This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

SUB-DIVISION OF THE COUNTRY FOR CENSUS, REGISTRATION, AND POOR LAW PURPOSES.

IN the modern sub-division of England and Wales into Unions and Registration Districts for the administration of the Poor Laws, and the Registration of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, the ancient boundaries of Counties and Hundreds have not in all cases been adhered to, attention having generally been paid to local convenience, and to the present distribution of the people. Hence the groups of Registration Districts or Poor Law Unions, which are designated Registration or Union Counties, do not coincide with the Counties bearing the same names; although in aggregate area and population they closely approximate.

The following Tables exhibit the Registration Districts or Unions, arranged topographically as in the Reports of the Registrar-General and of previous Censuses. This arrangement has also been adopted by the Local Government Board. For statistical purposes the Counties are grouped into eleven Divisions:—

DIVISION I. LONDON, namely, the Registration Districts within the limits of the Metropolis as defined in the Weekly Tables of Births and Deaths in London, comprising parts of Middlesex, Surrey, and Kent.

„ II. SOUTH-EASTERN COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Surrey and Kent [extra-metropolitan], Sussex, Hants, and Berks.

„ III. SOUTH-MIDLAND COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Middlesex [extra-metropolitan], Hertford, Buckingham, Oxford, Northampton, Huntingdon, Bedford, and Cambridge.

„ IV. EASTERN COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Essex, Suffolk, and Norfolk.

„ V. SOUTH-WESTERN COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Wilts, Dorset, Devon, Cornwall, and Somerset.

„ VII. NORTH-MIDLAND COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Leicester, Rutland, Lincoln, Nottingham, and Derby.

„ VIII. NORTH-WESTERN COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Chester and Lancaster.

„ X. NORTHERN COUNTIES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, and Westmorland.

„ XI. MONMOUTHSHIRE and WALES, comprising Registration Districts chiefly in the County of Monmouth and in Wales.

The Parishes and Places are arranged topographically under the Superintendent Registrars' Districts and Registrars' Sub-districts.

Note.—The Unions and other jurisdictions under the Poor Law Amendment Act embrace almost the whole of the country. The Middle Temple, Gray's Inn, the Charter House, the Inner Temple, the Tower of London, Lundy Isle, the Scilly Islands, Bardsey Isle, Burrow or Rat Island, Caldy Island, St. Margaret Island, Puffin Island, Looe Island, Fern Island, Dover Castle, York Castle, Lancaster Castle, and several places hitherto reputed to be extra-parochial are still unannexed to any Unions.

* Registration or Union Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts, which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Districts which extend into two or more Counties (proper) are included entirely in that County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration or Union Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties (proper).

† The limits to which the term "LONDON" applies are those of the District of the Metropolitan Board of Works, and the Registrar General's "Weekly Tables of Births and Deaths in London," with the following exceptions: the hamlet of Penge, in the Croydon Union, is within the District of the Metropolitan Board, but is not included in the Registrar General's limits; and the hamlet of Mottingham, being part of the Lewisham District, is included by the Registrar General, but is not included with the remainder of Eltham Parish in the District of the Metropolitan Board.

* The Superintendent Registrars' Districts of this Division are for the most part co-extensive with Poor Law Unions or single parishes with Boards of Guardians. Where this is not the case, the Districts are thus distinguished:— two or more Unions or Single Parishes with Boards of Guardians; ✝ Poor Law Unions with places annexed for Registration purposes.

† These areas of parishes and places in London have been supplied by Major General Sir Henry James, R.E., Director of the Ordnance Survey Department. The areas marked thus (w) either include water, or relate to parishes and places to which a portion of the tidal water or foreshore of contiguous rivers or creeks has been allotted, though not included within the boundaries thereof by the Ordnance Survey Department. For details see Table 7.

GENERAL NOTES.—Where the name of the Registration or Union County in which a parish or place is returned differs from that of the County Proper to which it belongs, the name of the latter is stated in italics.

The letter (W) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the parish or place, and has been included in the return. A statement of the number of persons in the principal Public Institutions in each District will be found in Table 5.

Where a parish is situate partly in two or more Sub-districts, the area, houses, and population of the entire parish are also shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the name of the parish at the foot of the page, and to the principal parts of such parish in the Table above.

Where the word Parish has been printed in italics, the place was formerly extra-parochial, but is now, under the Statute relating to such places, a parish for civil purposes.

The AREAS of parishes and places in London have been supplied by Major General Sir Henry James, R.E., Director of the Ordnance Survey Department.

The areas marked thus (w) either include water or foreshore, or relate to parishes and places to which a portion of the tidal water or foreshore of contiguous rivers or creeks has been allotted, though not included within the boundaries thereof by the Ordnance Survey Department. For details see Table 7.

Persons who, on the night of the 2nd April 1871, were on board barges or boats employed in inland navigation, and those who were on board sea-going vessels in harbours, rivers, and creeks, are included among the general population. A detailed statement of the number of the latter class will be found in Table 6.

The population of the Ecclesiastical Districts or new Parishes which have been formed under the authority of several Acts of Parliament will be found stated under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

The statements contained in the following notes, respecting the increase or decrease in the population of parishes and places since 1861, are made on the authority of the Registrars of Births and Deaths of the Sub-districts in which such parishes, &c. are situate, and are to be received as indicating the principal circumstances by which the returns from those parishes may have been affected.

The number prefixed to several of the following notes is that of the District to which such notes relate. The number of the District or Sub-district in which the parish or place mentioned in a note is situate, is, wherever necessary, also inserted in such note.

1. KENSINGTON. [a] The Superintendent Registrar's District of Kensington consists of Paddington parish (Sub-districts 1 and 2), Kensington parish (Sub-districts 3 and 4), and the Fulham Union, comprising the parishes of Fulham and Hammersmith (Sub-districts 5—7.)

[b] A detached part of the parish of St. Margaret Westminster, forming the site of St. Margaret's Workhouse, is locally situate in Wright's Lane, in Kensington Town Sub-district.

2. CHELSEA. [c] There is in Chelsea South Sub-district a supposed detached part of the parish of Kensington, consisting of 8 acres of land, and 11 acres of water, = 19 acres. The inhabitants pay rates to Chelsea, but a payment in commutation of tithes is made to the vicar of Kensington.

[d] Chelsea North-East Sub-district includes the detached part of the parish of Chelsea which is known as "Kensal New Town," containing 538 inhabited houses, and a population of 3021 persons in 1871.

3. ST. GEORGE HANOVER SQUARE. [e] The decrease of inhabited houses and population in that part of the parish of St. George Hanover Square which is in the Sub-district of Hanover Square is attributed to the removal of houses in Hanover Place and Oxford Street for improvements, to the increasing habit of residents going out of town from Saturday till Monday (many being consequently absent on the night of the Census) and to the large number of tradesmen and others engaged there in business during the day, who now live out of town.

[f] The return for the Belgrave Sub-district includes 73 persons in the Buckingham Palace Hotel, and 161 in the Grosvenor Hotel.

[g] The Guard House at Buckingham Palace is situated in St. Martin in the Fields, and returned accordingly. Her Majesty and the Court were at Windsor on April 3rd, 1871.

[h] The parish of St. Margaret Westminster includes Privy Gardens and Whitehall. There are two workhouses in this parish: one situate in York Street, in the neighbourhood known as "Petty France," and the other erected on a detached part of the parish situate in Wright's Lane, Kensington. A large detached part of the parish includes Kensington Palace, part of Kensington Gardens, and part of Knightsbridge. The return for this parish includes 134 persons in the Westminster Palace Hotel. The decrease of population is attributed to the pulling down of houses to make room for the new public offices and the Metropolitan District Railway.

5. ST. GEORGE HANOVER SQUARE. [a] The decrease of inhabited houses and population in that part of the parish of St. George Hanover Square which is in the Sub-district of Hanover Square is attributed to the removal of houses in Hanover Place and Oxford

10. ST. GILES. [a] The parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury are united for the relief of the poor.

[b] The St. Giles North Sub-district includes a detached part of St. Giles in the Fields parish, locally situate in the Camden Town Sub-district (7 : 5), and containing 13 inhabited houses and 90 persons in 1871.

11. STRAND. [c] The Workhouse of the Strand Union is situate in the Tottenham Court sub-district (7 : 2).

[d] The Sub-district of Long Acre includes a detached part of St. Martin in the Fields parish, locally situate in Camden Town Sub-district (7 : 5), and containing 9 inhabited houses and 52 persons in 1871.

[e] Part of the "Verge of the Palaces of St. James and Whitehall," formerly deemed extra-parochial, is in the Charing Cross Sub-district, the remainder being in the parishes of St. Margaret Westminster and St. George Hanover Square.

[f] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of St. Martin in the Fields which constitutes the Sub-district of Charing Cross, also in the parishes of St. Paul Covent Garden, St. Mary-le-Strand, and in the precinct of the Savoy, is attributed to the removal of Hungerford Market and some adjoining houses for the construction of the Charing Cross Railway Station and the formation of the Thames Embankment, and to the demolition of a large number of houses to provide a site for the erection of the new Law Courts.

[g] By the Act 20 Vict. c. 19. s. 3. it is provided that the Middle Temple and Gray's Inn shall not be added to any Union.

12. HOLBORN. [h] Lincoln's Inn is a township separated from the united parishes of St. Giles and St. George Bloomsbury, under the Act 10 & 11 Vict. c. 21.

[i] St. George the Martyr is a distinct parish for ecclesiastical purposes, but for civil purposes it is united with St. Andrew Holborn above the Bars.

[j] The decrease of population in the liberties of Saffron Hill, Hatton Garden, Ely Rents, and Ely Place is attributed to the clearance made for the construction of the Holborn Viaduct and Charterhouse Street, and to the conversion of dwelling-houses into manufacturing premises.

[k] The decrease of population in that part of St. Sepulchre parish in the Saffron Hill Sub-district is attributed to the clearance of houses made for the construction of the Farringdon Street Station and the Metropolitan Meat Market.

[l] The Charterhouse, although returned as one house, consists of several separate tenements. It is provided by the Act 20 Vict. c. 19. s. 3. that the Charterhouse shall not be added to any Union.

[a] St. Luke's Workhouse, now belonging to the Holborn Union, is situate in the Shoreditch District, Hoxton New Town Sub-district (14 : 3).

[b] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of St. Luke in the Finsbury Sub-district is principally attributed to the conversion of dwelling houses into business premises.

13. LONDON CITY. [c] This District comprises the whole of the City within and without the walls, except the Middle Temple, which is in the St. Clement Danes Sub-district (11 : 4), and part of Whitechapel parish (containing 8 houses and a population of 53 persons), which is in the Whitechapel Church Sub-district (16 : 5.) Glasshouse Yard, however, which is included within the Cripplegate Sub-district (13 : 2) is not within the boundaries of the City. The population within the present limits in 1861 was 113,387; in 1871 it was 75,983, being a decrease of 37,404, or as nearly as possible one out of three of the number in 1861. In the Preliminary Report on the Census of 1871, p. vi., it is stated, with reference to the City, that:—Its streets, empty and silent during the night, present a very different aspect during the day. In 1866 the Corporation determined to take a day Census; when it was found that, in addition to the ordinary sleeping population, the mercantile men engaged in the City amounted daily to 170,133. The number has probably increased since that time. Benjamin Scott, Esq., Chamberlain of the City of London, remarks that an important cause of the decrease of population is to be found in the fact that at the time of taking the Census of 1871, extensive tracts of ground were vacant, in consequence of the demolition of houses for the formation of the new street from Blackfriars Bridge to the Mansion House, the completion of the Holborn Valley improvements, the construction of the Metropolitan Meat Market, the widening of Ludgate Hill, Tower Street, &c. Mr. Scott also states that, in April 1871, only 431 of the houses or premises in the City were exempted from local rates, in consequence of being unoccupied.

[d] The parish of St. Dunstan in the West includes Clifford's Inn and Serjeants' Inn (Chancery Lane), formerly extra-parochial.

[e] By the Act 20 Vict. c. 19. s. 3. it is provided that the Inner Temple shall not be added to any Union.

[b] The decrease of population in that part of Whitechapel parish in Whitechapel Church Sub-district is attributed to the clearance made for the formation of the new Commercial Street.

[c] The decrease of population in that part of Whitechapel parish in the Goodmans Fields Sub-district is attributed to the demolition of houses for the extension of the Blackwall and Docks Railway, and for effecting the Royal Mint Street and the Commercial Road improvements.

[d] The decrease of population in that part of Whitechapel parish in Aldgate Sub-district is attributed to the demolition of houses in consequence of the extension of the Blackwall line of railway, and to the increased vigilance on the part of the sanitary authorities to prevent overcrowding.

[e] The decrease of population in the liberty of St. Botolph without Aldgate or East Smithfield is attributed to the demolition of a block of houses by the London and St. Katharine Dock Company.

[f] The Tower of London is a "Royal Palace and Fortress," and is under the peculiar jurisdiction of the Constable of the Tower. The increase of population in the Tower of London is attributed to a larger number of troops being in garrison than in 1861.

17. ST. GEORGE IN THE EAST. [g] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of St. George in the East in the St. John Sub-district is attributed to the clearance of a number of houses for the East London Railway, and for sites for a new infirmary and the Ratcliff gasworks.

18. STEPNEY. [h] The decrease of population in the parish of St. John of Wapping is attributed to the pulling down of houses for the construction of warehouses, &c., and to the conversion of private houses into business premises.

[i] The increase of inhabited houses in the parish of St. Paul Shadwell is attributed to the erection, since 1861, of Peabody's Buildings; notwithstanding which, the population has slightly decreased, owing to so many of the old dwelling houses being converted into business premises.

[j] The ancient parish of Stepney comprises the hamlets of Mile End New Town (16: 3), Ratcliff (18: 2), and Mile End Old Town (19: 1 and 2). Mile End New Town is a detached part of the parish, situate north of St. Mary Whitechapel.

[k] The decrease of population in the hamlet of Ratcliff is attributed to emigration, in consequence of want of employment.

20. POPLAR. [a] This Workhouse belonging to the City of London Union is partly in the parish of Bromley St. Leonard and partly in the hamlet of Mile End Old Town.

[b] The increase of population in the parishes of Bow or St. Mary Stratford-le-Bow, and Bromley St. Leonard is attributed to the erection of a large number of houses, which became occupied as rapidly as they could be built.

21. ST. SAVIOUR SOUTHWARK. [c] The decrease of population in the parishes of Christchurch Southwark and St. Saviour Southwark is attributed to the demolition of houses for the construction of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, and the Charing Cross extension of the South-Eastern Railway, for the formation of the new "Southwark Street," and the erection of business premises.

22. ST. OLAVE SOUTHWARK. [d] The decrease of population in the parishes of St. Olave Southwark and St. Thomas Southwark is attributed to the removal of St. Thomas's Hospital, and the clearance made for the construction of the South London Railway and the Charing Cross extension of the South Eastern Railway, and for the erection of business premises.

[e] The decrease of population in the parish of St. John Horsleydown is attributed to the demolition of houses for the erection of warehouses, and for the extension of the London Bridge Railway Station.

[f] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of Bermondsey in the Subdistrict of St. Mary Magdalen is attributed to the demolition of a number of houses for the extension of the Brighton and South Coast and the South London Railways.

[g] The increase of population in that part of the parish of Bermondsey in the Subdistrict of St. James Bermondsey is attributed to immigration from surrounding parishes, where a number of houses have been pulled down for the extension of the London and Brighton Railway and the Bricklayers Arms Station of the South Eastern Railway, and for the formation of the new Southwark Street. The Charing Cross extension of the South Eastern Railway has also contributed to the increase, owing to the facilities of intercommunication between London Bridge, Cannon Street, and Charing Cross. An extensive biscuit manufactory, established since 1861, affords employment to more than a thousand persons.

23. LAMBETH. [a] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of Lambeth in the Waterloo Road First Sub-district is attributed to the demolition of houses for the extension of the South Eastern Railway.

[b] The decrease of population in that part of the parish of Lambeth in the Lambeth Church First Sub-district is attributed to the demolition of houses for the construction of the Southern Thames Embankment and the new St. Thomas's Hospital. This Sub-district includes 17 acres of land, attached to Lambeth Palace, which land was formerly extra-parochial.

24. WANDSWORTH. [c] The hamlet of Penge, which is detached from the remainder of the parish of Battersea, forms part of the Croydon District (37) and is included in the District of the Metropolitan Board of Works, see Table 10. The increase of population in the parish of Battersea, excluding Penge hamlet, is attributed to the lowness of rents, and to the facilities for communication by railway, road, and river.

[d] The parish of Streatham includes Upper Tooting and Balham hamlets, and Knight's Hill, which is a detached portion of the parish lying between Lambeth and Camberwell.

25. CAMBERWELL. [e] The increase of population in the hamlet of Dulwich is attributed to the extension of the educational advantages of Dulwich College since 1859; to building operations on the College property, and to a great improvement in railway communication.

26. GREENWICH. [f] The increase of population in the parish of St. Paul Deptford is attributed to building operations, the houses being chiefly occupied by persons in business in London who are attracted by the facilities of railway communication. The prosperity of the iron ship building and engineering trades led to a great increase of population during the early portion of the decade.

[g] The decrease of population in the parish of St. Nicholas Deptford is attributed to the depressed state of trade, which has caused numbers of persons to seek employment elsewhere. A large number of the houses are so old and dilapidated that they are almost untenantable.

[h] The Greenwich East Sub-district includes the "Royal Hospital Schools and Infirmary." In 1861 there were in the Royal Hospital 1489 pensioners, all of whom, except 4, have since then been removed. These 4 are, in Table 5, included among the officers, &c. in the Royal Hospital Schools and Infirmary. The ship "Dreadnought" is no longer occupied as a seamen's hospital, the inmates having been removed to the Royal Hospital, which was formerly occupied by the pensioners.

28. WOOLWICH. [a] The decrease of houses and population in that part of the parish of Woolwich in the Woolwich Dockyard Sub-district is attributed to the discontinuance of the Woolwich division of the Royal Marines, the closing of the Royal Dockyard, and the transfer of the "Military Clothing Stores" to Pimlico.

[b] The Woolwich Arsenal Sub-district includes North Woolwich, a portion of the parish situate on the north side of the River Thames, and surrounded on three sides by the county of Essex. This detached part contained 215 houses (213 inhabited and 2 uninhabited) and 1455 persons in 1871.

PERSONS ON BOARD VESSELS.

TABLE 6.—Number of Persons on board Sea-going Vessels in the River and Docks on the Night of 2nd April 1871, included among the GENERAL POPULATION of PARISHES, PLACES, &c.

NOTE.—Persons on board vessels belonging to the Merchant Service were enumerated by the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs; those on board the training ship "Warspite" by the principal officer of that vessel. The returns of officers, seamen, &c. on board the ships of the Royal Navy were obtained through the Admiralty.

All the above-mentioned persons have been included among the general population of the Districts, Sub-Districts, Parishes, Places, &c. contiguous to the waters in which the vessels were lying; and, although some doubt has occasionally arisen respecting the Parish, Place, &c. to which persons on board certain vessels should be assigned, and complete accuracy is, therefore, scarcely attainable, yet it is believed that the results as stated in this Table are sufficiently correct for all general purposes.

* The District of the Metropolitan Board of Works is identical with the District which by the Poor Law and other authorities is now deemed to be "London," and for which a Weekly Return of Births and Deaths is prepared and published by the authority of the Registrar General,—except that the hamlet of Penge, in the Croydon Union, is within the District of the Metropolitan Board of Works, but is not included in the Registrar General's limits, and Mottingham hamlet, being part of the Lewisham District, is included by the Registrar General but excluded from the District of the Metropolitan Board.

* The Boundaries of the Wards have been taken from Collingridge's "City of London Directory" Map.

† Of the 12,510 houses (9,305 inhabited and 3,205 uninhabited) in the City, 2,774 were returned as uninhabited, solely because no person slept in them on the night of the Census. According to Mr. Scott, Chamberlain of the City of London, many of these so-called houses are really shops and warehouses which are occupied during the day, but are left at night without caretakers other than the police. He also states that by a return from each collector of rates within the City it appears that only 431 of the houses or premises were exempted in April 1871 from local rates in consequence of being unoccupied.

The boundaries of the respective Wards are defined in the Supplement to the "London Gazette," No. 21,802, Oct. 20, 1855. The number of Houses and Population within the several Wards have been submitted to the respective Vestry Clerks or to the Clerks to the District Boards of Works, as the case may be.

* In the "Insurance Cyclopædia," by Cornelius Walford, F.I.A., F.S.S., it is stated that "the Old Bills of Mortality of the Company of Parish Clerks have ceased; but the "Company itself remains. As early as 1823 St. George Hanover Square had ceased to "make any returns. In 1832 the Parishes of All Saints Poplar, and St. John's Wapping "followed its example; and in 1834 the Clerks of St. Bartholomew the Less, and St. "George Queen Square, became defaulters. The Company of Parish Clerks had no "authority by which they could make these contumacious Parishes supply correct, or "indeed any information."

These Bills had long been regarded as of no practical use, owing to the necessarily imperfect nature of the information they contained. The Weekly Bill was made up to the Tuesday in each week, from the accounts sent in by such of the Parish Clerks as chose to furnish returns. After the discontinuance of the searchers the Parish Clerks were deprived of their former means of ascertaining the causes of death, and the diseases and casualties were no longer stated in the Bills.

† The New Weekly Tables of Mortality are prepared from returns made up every Saturday night by the Registrars, containing a copy of so much of the Register as relates to the age, sex, residence, occupation, and cause of death of each person registered during the week, together with the number of births recorded in the same period. These returns are received on Monday at the General Register Office, where they are prepared for publication, the diseases being classified, and the other information arranged in a tabular form, admitting of comparison with the results (which are also stated) of corresponding weeks in previous years. The number of deaths in Hospitals, Workhouses, and other public Institutions is separately shown, and extracts are given from the returns of the cases of death from violence, or from any prevailing epidemic, &c. Meteorological observations taken at the Royal Observatory, Greenwich, as furnished by the Astronomer Royal, are added for each day. The whole is accompanied by a report containing such general remarks on the health of London, and of 20 other large towns of the United Kingdom, and of those Foreign Cities from which Returns are received, as the facts may suggest, and the Tables are published every Tuesday afternoon. A Summary of the weekly returns is issued at the end of each year.

[a] The Police on duty on the nights preceding the enumeration day, viz., on the night of 30th March 1851, of 7th April 1861, and of 2nd April 1871, were returned at their homes.

* The dates of the insertion of the Parishes in the Bills are stated on the authority of "A Collection of the Bills of Mortality," Lond., 1759, the reputed work of Dr. Birch; who, however, as well as Mr. Marshall and other writers on the subject, speaks of the new Parishes, like St. George Bloomsbury, as if their baptisms and burials were first returned when the names appeared for the first time in the Bills. It is obvious, however, that before St. George Bloomsbury was taken from St. Giles in the Fields and constituted a distinct Parish, the parish clerk of St. Giles would return the burials and baptisms of the inhabitants of that locality with those of the rest of the Parish. The insertion of St. George Bloomsbury in the Bills was not therefore an addition, the limits included within the Bills being the same as when the mother parish only was returned by name. This observation applies to all cases of new parishes formed out of parishes previously incorporated in the Bills.

The frequent recurrence of the Plague in London led to the establishment, about the year 1592-3, of the weekly BILLS OF MORTALITY, which were prepared and issued by the Company of Parish Clerks. After having fallen into desuetude, they were resumed in 1603 (December 29th), and from that date were continued in a regular series until 1823, in which year St. George Hanover Square ceased making returns. Subsequently other Parishes followed that example at irregular intervals, and eventually the Old Bills were discontinued. At their commencement the Bills contained an account of the Burials and Christenings in the following Parishes and Places :—

* The Liberties, Precincts, and Places formerly extra-parochial marked thus (*) made no separate returns to the parish clerks; being, however, locally situated within the limits of the Bills, they contributed to swell the number of burials and baptisms, and are therefore here inserted after the parishes to which they lie contiguous.

† St. George the Martyr is a distinct parish for ecclesiastical purposes only: for the relief of the poor and other purposes it is still part of St. Andrew Holborn.

† St. Mary Stratford-le-Bow, which formed a Chapelry of Stepney Parish until 1717, was not brought within the Old Bills of Mortality. A separate register has been kept at Bow Church since A.D. 1539, and there is no reason to believe that the burials and baptisms of the inhabitants were returned with those of Stepney, or otherwise taken into account by the parish clerks in their Bills.

TOTAL	130,268†

* From "Natural and Political Observations on the Bills of Mortality, by Capt. John Graunt, F.R.S.," 5th edit., 1676. The Privy Council being apprehensive of an approaching scarcity, wrote to Sir Robert Ducie, Lord Mayor, on the 30th June 1631, requiring him to state, in addition to certain other particulars, "the number of mouths esteemed "to be in the City of London, and the Liberty;" in consequence of which an enumeration "of the men, women, and children" in the City was made. The letter of the Council to the Lord Mayor is given in Rushworth's Coll., vol. ii.; the original, with a copy of the answer, is preserved at Guildhall.

† The total given by Graunt is only 130,178; the sum of his details is 130,268, which number is adopted by Maitland in his "History of London." Maitland adds, however, that the number returned by the Lord Mayor, as appeared by the copy of his answer to the Council, was 130,280.

* Registration or Union Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts which are generally co-extensive with the Poor Law Unions. Those Districts which extend into two or more Counties (proper) are included entirely in that County in which the principal town of the District or the greater part of the population is located. The boundaries of Registration or Union Counties therefore differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties (proper).

GENERAL NOTES.—The names of Cities and Boroughs, of Local Board Districts, of Towns, and of Parishes which contain Towns of the same name, are printed in capitals (thus, "EPSOM"). A detailed statement of the population of the Cities, Boroughs, Local Board Districts, Improvement Commissioners' Districts, &c., will be found under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where the name of the Registration or Union County in which a parish or place is returned differs from that of the County Proper to which it belongs, the name of the latter is stated in italics.

The letter (W) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the parish or place, and has been included in the return. A statement of the number of persons in the principal Public Institutions in each District will be found in Table 5.

Where an ancient parish comprises two or more civil parishes, townships, &c., the area, houses, and population of the entire ancient parish are shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the ancient parish and to the civil parish or township bearing the same name. The civil parishes, townships, &c., comprised within every such ancient parish are shown under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where a parish or township is situate partly in two or more Counties or Sub-districts, the area, houses, and population of the entire parish or township are also shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the name of the parish or township at the foot of the page, and to the principal parts of such parish or township in the Table above.

Where the word Parish has been printed in italics, the place was formerly extra-parochial, but is now, under the Statute relating to such places, a parish for civil purposes.

The AREAS of parishes and places are reprinted from the Census Tables of 1861, after revision. The areas which have been supplied by Major-General Sir Henry James, R.E., Director of the Ordnance Survey Department are printed in Script type (thus, "Banstead, 5557"). Those printed in French type (thus, "Ockham, 2340") have been obtained from records in the custody of the Tithe Commissioners; and those printed in Arabic type (thus, "Wanborough, 1560") were assigned to the parishes and places by the late Mr. Rickman, in the Enumeration Abstract for 1831. In these latter cases a more accurate computation of the area is not at present available.

The areas marked thus (w) either include water or foreshore, or relate to parishes and places to which a portion of the tidal water or foreshore of contiguous rivers or creeks has been allotted, though not included within the boundaries thereof by the Ordnance Survey Department. For details, see Table 7.

Persons who, on the night of 2nd April 1871, were on board barges or boats employed in inland navigation, and those who were on board sea-going vessels in harbours, rivers, and creeks, are included among the general population. A detailed statement of the number of the latter class will be found in Table 6.

The population of the Ecclesiastical Districts or new Parishes which have been formed under the authority of several Acts of Parliament will be found stated under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

The statements contained in the following notes, respecting the increase or decrease in the population of parishes and places since 1861, are made on the authority of the Registrars of Births and Deaths of the Sub-districts in which such parishes, &c., are situate, and are to be received as indicating the principal circumstances by which the returns from those parishes may have been affected.

The number prefixed to several of the following notes is that of the District to which such notes relate. The number of the District or Sub-district in which the parish or place mentioned in a note is situate, is, wherever necessary, also inserted in such note.

29. EPSOM. [a] The increase of population in the parishes of Banstead, Carshalton, and Cheam is attributed to improved railway communication, which has stimulated building operations.

[b] The increase of population in the parish of Sutton is attributed mainly to the facility of communication by railway with London. The South Metropolitan District Schools are situated in this parish.

[c] The increase of population in Cuddington parish is attributed to the building of a number of houses on an estate known as "Worcester Park."

[d] The civil parish of Ewell includes a place known as Gibraltar. Kingswood Liberty, in the Reigate District (35 : 1), is part of the ancient parish of Ewell.

[e] The increase of population in the parish of Epsom is mainly attributed to additional facilities for communication by railway. The hamlet of Horton is in this parish.

[f] The increase of population in the parish of Leatherhead is attributed to the opening of new railway communication, and the enclosure of common lands, enabling copyholders to build upon their allotments. The hamlet of Pattersham is in this parish.

[g] The parish of Stoke D'Abernon includes the hamlet of Oxshot.

30. CHERTSEY. [h] The increase of population in the parishes of Walton on Thames and Weybridge is attributed to a large number of houses and cottages having been built, which are occupied by persons engaged in business in London, and by their servants and labourers. The parish of Walton on Thames includes the village of Hersham. Oatlands Park, and Weybridge Heath and Common are in the parish of Weybridge.

[i] The increase of population in Chertsey parish is attributed to improvement of trade. The villages of Addlestone, Botleys, Long Cross, Ottershaw, Lyne, and New Haw are in this parish. In Addlestone and in the neighbouring parish of Byfleet the increase of population is ascribed to their being selected as places of residence by merchants and others.

[j] The increase of population in the parishes of Horsell and Bisley is attributed to the erection of Bisley Refuge Farm School, and a number of houses near the Woking convict prison and the county lunatic asylum.

[k] The increase of population in the parish of Chobham is attributed to an addition to the number of labourers employed in the large nursery grounds in the neighbourhood. The return includes a detached part of the parish locally situate at Sunningdale in the parish of Sunninghill (Sub-district No. 122: 1).

[l] The increase of population in the parish of Windlesham is attributed to building operations in the neighbourhood of the Sunningdale railway station. The return includes Bagshot and a detached part of the parish, comprising Broom Hall, Broom Hall Lodge, and part of the village or hamlet of Sunningdale, locally situate in the parish of Sunninghill (122 : 1).

31. GUILDFORD. [a] The increase of population in Pirbright parish is ascribed to increased facilities for communication by railway. The parish includes the places known as Cowshot, Deepcut, Pirbright Green, and Upper and Lower Mill.

[b] The increase of population in Woking parish is attributed to the erection of Brookwood Lunatic Asylum and the Female Convict Prison, and to the disposal by the London Necropolis Company of a large portion of their land for building purposes. Goldsworth, Kingfield, Mayford, Shackleford, Sutton, Westfield, Bunker's Hill and Common, Hook Heath, St. John's, Bridley, Knaphill, and Brookwood, and Woking Station, are in Woking parish.

[c] Perry Hill, Ryde's Hill, Pitch Place, Whitmoor and Broadstreet Commons, Wyke, and the tythings of Burgham and West End are in the parish of Worplesdon.

[d] The increase of population in the parish of Wisley is attributed to the erection and occupation of a mansion and several cottages.

[e] The return for Ockham includes a detached part of the parish, consisting of one house and 60 acres of land, known as Ockham Glebe or Pitlands Farm, and situate about 11 miles from Ockham village, in Abinger parish (Sub-district No. 34: 1).

[f] The increase of population in the parishes of Merrow and Albury is attributed to the erection of a number of villas and cottages. Albury Parish includes Farley Heath.

[g] The villages of Gomshall, Felday, and Pislake are in Shere parish.

[h] The general increase of population in the Sub-district of Guildford is attributed to building operations.

[i] The increase of population in the parish of Godalming is attributed to improved railway communication and the erection of a number of new buildings, including King Edward's School for Boys at Wormley Heath, and an asylum connected with Bethlehem Hospital. The return includes 64 persons employed in building the new Charterhouse Schools. Catteshall, Crownpits, Eashing, Farncombe, Hurtmore, Shackleford, and Wormley Heath are in the parish of Godalming.

32. FARNHAM. [j] The increase of population in Ash parish is chiefly attributed to its proximity to the Camp at Aldershot.

[k] The increase of population in Frimley hamlet is attributed to the building of a number of houses at a place now known as "Cambridge Town," and to the establishment of the Royal Military Staff College and the Royal Albert Orphan Asylum.

[l] The parish of Seal with Tongham includes Crooksbury.

[m] The large increase of population in the parish of Aldershot is attributed to the establishment of the Camp, which has caused a large number of houses to be built during the past few years.

[n] To the facilities of communication by railway and the contiguity of Aldershot camp may be attributed the increase of population in Farnham parish, which comprises the tythings of Farnham, Badshot and Runfold, Culverlands and Tilford, Runwick and Wrecclesham with Bourne, and also places called Hale, Hoghatch, Compton, Rowledge, and Upper and Lower Bourne.

[o] Shottermill and the village and tything of Churt are in the parish of Frensham.

33. HAMBLEDON. [a] The increase of population in Thursley parish is attributed to the erection of houses on an estate recently laid out as building land, near the Haslemere railway station. Clay Hill and part of the town of Haslemere are in this parish.

[b] The employment of children at a factory in the parish of Elstead having ceased, several families have removed since 1861.

[c] The increase of population in the parish of Witley is attributed to the attractions of its scenery, many artists having taken residences in the neighbourhood. An estate has also recently been laid out and sold for building purposes. Milford is in Witley parish.

[d] The increase of population in the parish of Haslemere is attributed to the opening of the Haslemere railway station. Part of the town, including the railway station, is in the adjoining parish of Thursley.

[e] The increase of population in Shalford and Wonersh is stated to be caused by the low rents attracting labourers from neighbouring parishes. The parish of Shalford includes the hamlet of Gosden and Shalford Common, and the parish of Wonersh includes Shairley Green and Lords Hill Common.

[f] The parish of St. Martha on the Hill includes Chilworth hamlet.

[g] The increase of population in Cranley parish is attributed to facilities for communication by railway, and the establishment, since 1861, of the Surrey Middle Class School. This parish is now called Cranleigh, in consequence of the confusion caused by letters, parcels, &c. being mis-sent to Crawley.

[h] The decrease of population in Alfold is ascribed to its being a purely agricultural parish, with no resident gentry.

34. DORKING. [i] Portions of the villages of Ockley and Forest Green are in Abinger, Wotton, and Ockley parishes; and the villages of Walliswood and May's Green are partly in Abinger and partly in Ockley parish. Abinger parish includes Abinger Hammer and Abinger Common. Broadmoor and Oakwood Hill are in Wotton parish.

[j] Cold Harbour is partly in the parish of Capel and partly in Dorking. At the time of the Census of 1871 there were 25 persons strangers living in Capel, who were temporarily employed in building.

[k] The ancient parish of Newdigate is partly in two Parliamentary Divisions: the hamlet of Newdigate is in the hundred of Reigate and the Mid Division of Surrey; and the other part of the parish is in the hundred of Copthorne and the Western Division of Surrey.

[l] The increase of population in Dorking is attributed to additional railway accommodation, and the sale of plots of building land by a Freehold Land Society. Part of Cold Harbour (the other part being in Capel parish), Holmwood, Westcott, and Milton are in the parish of Dorking.

35. REIGATE. [m] The increase of population in the parishes of Betchworth, Walton on the Hill, and Chipstead is attributed to improved railway communication and the employment afforded by the erection of villa residences, &c. The hamlet of Brockham Green is in Betchworth parish.

[n] The increase of population in Reigate is attributed to the improved railway accommodation, the healthiness of the neighbourhood, and the erection, by means of building societies, of a number of small houses.

[o] Kingswood is a detached liberty of Ewell parish: the principal part of the parish is in the Epsom District (29: 2).

[p] The increase of population in the parish of Horley is attributed to the building of houses and cottages near the railway station.

[q] The decrease of population in the parish of Charlwood is attributed to the absence of several large families, to the enlistment of young men, and to a reduction in the number of in-door labourers at farms.

36. GODSTONE. [a] The parish of Horne with Harrowsley includes the hamlet of Outwood. Harrowsley is detached from the part of the parish known as Horne.

[b] The increase of population in Bletchingly and Godstone parishes is attributed to the erection of many villa residences and labourers' cottages. The hamlet of Ham is in Bletchingly parish.

[c] The excellent railway accommodation is stated to have induced a large number of persons engaged in business in London to reside at Caterham. Building has also greatly extended for every class of persons. Since 1861 the Metropolitan District Lunatic Asylum has been instituted; it had 1387 persons within its walls in 1871.

[d] The increase of population in Warlingham is ascribed to its facilities for communication by railway, and the erection and occupation of labourers' cottages.

37. CROYDON. [e] The Reedham Asylum for Fatherless Children is in the parish of Coulsdon. House building has been actively carried on at Kenley and Caterham Junction in this parish.

[f] Croydon has continued to increase in favour as a place of residence for merchants and others engaged in business in London, as well as for retired tradesmen and gentry. Several public philanthropic and other institutions have been established since 1861. The return includes 524 persons in boarding schools. Broad Green, Addiscombe, Thornton Heath, Waddon, Woodside, Shirley, and part of Norwood are in the parish of Croydon. The barracks which, in 1861, contained 300 persons, are now disused.

[g] Extensive building operations have been carried on in and around Penge, which is a detached part of the ancient parish of Battersea, and locally situate in the neighbourhood of the Crystal Palace. The facilities for communication by railway have greatly contributed to the large increase of population. The other and principal part of Battersea parish is in the Wandsworth District (No. 24, Div. I.).

[h] The increase of population in Beddington and the surrounding parishes is attributed to the opening of a new railway and to the building of numerous houses. The Female Orphan Asylum, the Warehousemen and Clerks' School, and other institutions, have been established in Beddington and the neighbourhood since 1861.

[i] The increase of population in Mitcham is ascribed to extensive building operations and the establishment of a large telegraph factory since 1861.

[j] In Merton a large addition has been made to the house accommodation. A boarding school situate in Morden parish was in 1861 returned as being in the parish of Merton; only the grounds attached to the school are, however, in the latter parish. In 1871 this school contained 84 persons.

38. KINGSTON. [k] The large increase of population in Wimbledon is attributed to its attractive situation, its accessibility by railway, and to sales of small plots of ground upon which numbers of persons have built houses of their own, thus adding largely to the number of freeholders in the parish.

[l] Extension of railway accommodation and house building have greatly added to the population of the civil parish of Kingston upon Thames, which includes Norbiton, Surbiton, and New Malden.

[m] The increase of population in the hamlet of Hook is attributed to building investments, which are becoming frequent in consequence of its proximity to the Surbiton railway station.

[n] The parish of Malden comprises Church Malden and Malden Rushett: the latter is detached, and is seven miles distant from the former.

[o] Long Ditton parish includes Rushett.

[p] The population of Thames Ditton was included in the return for Ember and Weston hamlet in 1861. Ditton Marsh and Weston Green are still returned with Ember and Weston.

[a] The return for Hampton includes Hampton Court Palace.

39. RICHMOND. [b] To the attractions of Richmond and the excellence of its railway accommodation the great increase of residents since 1861 is attributed.

[c] Many houses at Kew have been pulled down to make room for the railway station near Kew Gardens, and the inhabitants have removed to the adjoining parish of Richmond; hence the decrease of population in the parish of Kew. The Thames Navigation Toll House, formerly extra-parochial, is now included in the parish of Kew.

[d] Facility of access to London, and the pleasant situation of Mortlake and Barnes on the river, are stated to have caused a considerable addition to the population of those parishes. 127 strangers were present in Mortlake, and 130 in Barnes, chiefly to witness the University boat-race.

40. BROMLEY. [e] The increase of population in the Bromley Sub-district is attributable to the proximity of this healthy locality to the metropolis, and its accessibility therefrom by railway. Plaistow, Sundridge, Bickley, Widmore, Elmstead, Southboro', and Bromley Common are in the parish of Bromley. 103 residents were absent from Bromley on the Census night, and 137 strangers were present.

[f] The parish of Beckenham includes the hamlet of Elmer's End, and parts of Penge and Sydenham.

[g] Increased employment at the paper-mills, and in the extensive fruit grounds recently laid out, has given an impulse to cottage building, and accounts for the increase of population in Farnborough, Chelsfield, Orpington, St. Mary Cray, and St. Paul's Cray. Part of Crocken Hill is in St. Mary Cray parish, the remainder being in Eynsford parish (41 : 3).

[h] The increase of the population of Chislehurst is partly attributed to the erection of villas, and partly to the fact that Camden Place has become the residence of the Ex-Emperor of the French.

[i] Extensive building operations on the Sidcup Park estate are stated to have caused the increase of population in Foots Cray.

41. DARTFORD. [j] The recent opening of the loop line of the North Kent Railway, which has three stations in Bexley parish, is stated to have stimulated building operations, especially on Bexley Heath. Blendon, Bridgen, Upton, Upper Webbsfield, and Bexley Heath are in Bexley parish.

[k] The conversion of a tract of woodland to fruit-growing and arable land has added to the number of labourers, &c. in East Wickham. The healthiness of the locality and the lowness of rents attract many persons employed in Woolwich Arsenal to reside here. Welling, Bell Grove, and Shoulder Mutton Grove are in this parish.

[l] The opening of the Royal Alfred Institution for Decayed Merchant Seamen, and of the Main Drainage (southern outfall) works, the establishment of an extensive iron foundry and some large chemical works, &c. in Erith Marshes have drawn large numbers of various classes to Erith parish. Beadonwell, Lessness Heath, Northumberland Heath, Belvedere, Picardy, Crossness, and Abbey Wood are in this parish.

[m] The increase of population in Crayford is attributed to the opening of the loop line of the North Kent Railway, and the extension of calico, silk printing, felt, carpet, and other works. North End and Slade's Green are in Crayford parish.

[n] The increase of population in Dartford is attributed to the employment of many additional persons at the numerous mills in the district. The parish includes the liberty of Overy.

[o] The increase of population in the parish of Stone near Dartford is attributed to the erection and occupation of the Penitentiary and the City of London Lunatic Asylum, and to the increased demand for labour at the cement manufactory in the adjoining parish of Swanscombe.

[p] Swanscombe parish includes the hamlet of Greenhithe. The increase of population in this parish is attributed to the demand for labour at the cement works in the neighbourhood, and at Northfleet. 307 persons on board vessels in the river were enumerated as being in this parish.

[q] The hamlet of South Darenth is partly in Darenth parish and partly in Horton-Kirby.

[r] The parish of Sutton at Hone includes Swanley and Hawley.

[a] The increase of population in the parish of Horton-Kirby is attributed to the erection of several houses and cottages on land recently laid out for building purposes. The parish includes Dean Bottom, and part of the hamlet of South Darenth, the remainder of which is in Darenth parish in the Dartford Sub-district (41 : 2).

[b] The decrease of population in Farningham is attributed to the removal of labourers who, in 1861, were employed on railway works.

[c] The decrease of population in Eynsford is attributed to the removal of railway labourers. Eynsford parish includes part of Crocken Hill, the remainder being in St. Mary Cray parish (40 : 2).

[d] The hamlets of Hodsoll Street and West York, and part of Culverstone Green, are in Ash parish.

[e] Westfield, hitherto reputed to be extra-parochial, is stated to have not yet been brought under the operation of the Poor Laws, as required by the Act relating to extra-parochial places. It contained neither houses nor population in 1871.

[f] Southfleet parish includes Betsome, Hook Green, Westwood, and Red Street.

42. GRAVESEND. [g] The returns for Gravesend and Milton include 852 persons on board vessels in the river.

43. NORTH AYLESFORD. [h] The increase in the population of Northfleet is attributed to the extension of cement factories. The village of Perry Street is in Northfleet parish.

[i] Meopham parish includes part of Culverstone Green, the other part being in Ash parish (41 : 3.)

[j] The increase of population in the parishes of Cobham and Denton is attributed to the erection of cottages, and the immigration of labourers from the neighbouring parishes of Chalk, and Shorne and Merston.

[k] The establishment of cement manufactories is stated to have occasioned the increase of population in the parish of Cliffe at Hoo.

[l] Extensive engineering and cement works have caused the erection of many additional houses and the increase of population in Frindsbury. Whitewall, Wainscott, Lower and Upper Upnor, and the barracks at Upnor Castle are in Frindsbury parish.

[m] The increase of population in Halling is attributed to the demand for labour consequent upon the extension of the lime and cement works established there.

44. HOO. [n] The Mean is common to the parishes of High Halstow and St. Mary Hoo, and contained neither houses nor population in 1871.

[o] The increase of population in the parishes of Allhallows, and St. James, Isle of Grain, is attributed to the erection of fortifications, and the consequent demand for workmen.

[p] The increase of population in Hoo St. Werburgh is chiefly attributed to the erection of houses for brickmakers employed in the neighbourhood.

45. MEDWAY. [q] The decrease of the population of Rochester Cathedral Church Precinct is attributed to the demolition of dilapidated houses.

[r] The increase of population in St. Margaret, Rochester, is mainly attributed to the establishment of a manufactory of engines and agricultural implements. Troytown is in St. Margaret parish.

[s] The increase in the population of Chatham is attributed to an enlargement of the Government establishments and works. The return includes 220 persons on board vessels in 1871; in 1861 there were 617. The village of Luton is in that part of Chatham parish which is in the Gillingham Sub-district.

[t] The population of Gillingham is stated to have increased in consequence of the extension of Government works, and the large additional number of labourers and artificers employed thereon. Old and New Brompton, and part of the town of Chatham, are in Gillingham parish.

46. MALLING. [a] The large increase of the population of Wouldham and Burham is attributed to there being an additional number of persons employed at the lime, brick, and cement works.

[b] The return for Aylesford includes a detached part, viz., part of Herne Pound, described as "the hamlet of Aylesford, lying within the boundary of Mereworth," and locally situate in the East Peckham Sub-district (46 : 2.)

[c] The parish of East Malling includes Larkfield.

[d] Greater activity at the paper mills, and the extension of the lime and cement works at Wouldham and Burham have caused the large increase of population in Snodland and Paddlesworth; the latter place was formerly a separate parish, but has for many years been annexed to Snodland parish.

[e] Birling parish includes Hamhill.

[f] The parish of Leybourne includes Comp.

[g] The increase of population in West Malling chiefly consists of labourers employed in the chalk and cement works distant about four miles, there being a want of house accommodation nearer to the works.

[h] North Pole and Red Hill are in Wateringbury parish. The return includes a detached part of this parish, viz., Lilly Hoo, locally situate in Brenchley parish in Sub-district No. 48 : 3.

[i] Little Mill, Small Hatch, Poundfield, Pound, Bush, Bullen, and Goose Green are in the parish of East Peckham.

[j] West Peckham parish includes Oxonhoath.

[k] Mereworth parish includes New Pound, part of Herne Pound, and also Old Hay Farm, which latter is detached from the main body of the parish, and is locally situate in Brenchley parish (48 : 3).

[l] Although several new cottages and houses are occupied at Wrotham, its population has decreased, owing, it is stated, to the attraction of better wages offered at the lime and cement works, potteries, &c. along the banks of the Medway, especially in North Aylesford District (45), and in Aylesford Sub-district (46 : 1). Crouch, Dunks Green, Platt, Wrotham Heath, Plaxtol, and part of Borough Green (the other part being in Ightham), are in the parish of Wrotham.

[m] Ivy Hatch, Old Bury, Ightham Common, and part of Borough Green, are in Ightham parish.

47. SEVENOAKS. [n] Under-river, Godden Green, and Seal Chart are in Seal parish.

[o] The increase of the population of Otford is attributed to improved trade in connexion with the brick and lime works. Dunton Green is in this parish.

[p] Several acres of woodland have been cleared for fruit-growing in the parish of Halstead, and cottages for the labourers have been erected.

[q] The village of Chepstead and the hamlet of Bessell's Green are in the parish of Chevening.

[r] Hartaland is in Sevenoaks parish. The increase of population in this parish is attributed to the extension of the South-eastern Railway; while the decrease in the number of houses in Riverhead is caused by the demolition of several huts in which the railway labourers had dwelt. The liberties of Riverhead and Weald are not separately assessed for the relief of the poor, and some uncertainty is said to exist respecting their boundaries.

[s] Ide Hill and Goathurst Common are in the parish of Sundridge.

[t] The parish of Brasted includes part of Linkhill hamlet, the remainder of which is in Hever parish (47 : 3).

[u] Crockham Hill is in the parish of Westerham.

[v] The parish of Edenbridge includes the hamlet of Marsh Green.

[w] Part of Linkhill hamlet is in the parish of Hever, the remainder being in Brasted parish (47 : 2).

[x] Chiddingstone parish includes Little Chiddingstone and Bowbeach.

[y] The hamlet of Hollanden is in the parish of Leigh. The increase of the population is ascribed to the works in progress, such as the rebuilding of the church, the erection of a chapel, two mansions, and other houses, &c.

48. TUNBRIDGE. [a] The decrease of population in the parish of Ashurst is attributed to the demolition of cottages.

[b] Groombridge, Lower Green, Rusthall New Town, Rusthall, Denny Bottom, and part of the town of Tunbridge Wells, are in the parish of Speldhurst.

[c] The large increase of population in the parish of Tunbridge is principally attributed to the fact that the town of Tunbridge Wells is situate therein, also partly to the facilities for communication by railway, and partly to the enlargement of the grammar school. That part of the parish which is within the Tunbridge Wells sub-district comprises Southborough and part of Barden and part of the town of Tunbridge Wells, the other parts of which, as also the places known as Pembury and Haysden, are in the Tunbridge sub-district. In the entire parish 164 persons were returned as visitors; 312 persons were in boarding schools; and 162 in common lodging houses.

[d] Tudely parish includes the hamlet of Crockhurst.

[e] Matfield Green and Pettridge are in the parish of Brenchley, the increase in the population of which is attributed to the erection of a number of houses, especially in a new suburb near Paddock Wood.

[f] A part of Horsemonden parish is in Sussex, but it contains no houses or population.

49. MAIDSTONE. [g] Collier Street is in the parish of Yalding. The decrease of the population in the parish is attributed to emigration.

[h] About 50 small houses have been built in Marden since 1861, but many of them were unoccupied in 1871.

[i] Loddington hamlet is a detached portion of the parish of Maidstone.

[j] The erection of new cottages is stated to be the cause of the increase of population in Otham.

[k] The parish of Maidstone is partly in the Sub-districts of Marden (49: 2), West Maidstone (49: 4), and East Maidstone (49: 5), in which latter the greater part of the militia were billeted at the time of the Census. The hamlet of Tovil is included in the West Maidstone part of the parish.

50. HOLLINGBOURN. [l] Sandling and Forstall are in the parish of Boxley.

[m] A considerable tract of woodland, in the parish of Bredhurst, has been cleared and cultivated, thus creating a demand for labour to which is attributed the increase in the population.

51. CRANBROOK. [d] Willesley Pound and Sissinghurst are in Cranbrook parish.

[e] Iden Green is in the parish of Benenden, the population of which has diminished in consequence, it is stated, of the removal of workmen employed in 1861 in rebuilding the church and a mansion.

[f] Sandhurst Green is in the parish of Sandhurst.

[g] Part of the parish of Hawkhurst, comprising 120 acres, without houses in 1871, extends into Sussex, forming part of the Hundred of Henhurst in that county. Hawkhurst includes the villages of Highgate and Gills Green.

52. TENTERDEN. [h] The decrease of the population of Rolvenden is attributed to a reduction in the number of farm-holdings since 1861, and to migration to the towns.

[i] The village of Isle of Oxney is partly in Wittersham, and partly in Stone parish.

[j] Tenterden parish includes the places known as Town Borough, Park Gate, Castweasle Borough, Smallhythe, Dumbourne Borough, hamlet of Bird's Isle, Bird's Isle Borough, Boar's Isle Priory, and Shrubcote Borough. The decrease of population in Tenterden is ascribed chiefly to the migration of young people to better labour-markets.

[k] The return for Appledore includes a detached part of the parish known as Little Appledore, locally situate in Newchurch parish, in the New Romney Sub-district (65 : 1).

53. WEST ASHFORD. [l] The increase of population in the parish of Ashford is attributed to its being an important junction, and the site of the South-eastern Railway workshops, at which upwards of 1000 persons are employed.

54. EAST ASHFORD. [m] Ham Street is partly in Warehorne parish and partly in Orlestone parish.

[n] Bilsington parish includes Bilsington Cross.

[a] Willesborough Lees, New Town, and Aylesford Green are in the parish of Willesborough. The increase of population is attributed to the demand for labour at the railway workshops in the parish.

[b] The parish of Smeeth includes Stonehill, Lilley Hole, and part of Brabourne Lees.

[c] The parish of Brabourne comprises Brabourne West and part of Brabourne Lees.

[d] Kennington Lees (part of which is in Kennington and part in Boughton-Aluph parish) has been enclosed, and several cottages built upon the allotments. Many railway workmen employed at Willesborough, live at Kennington.

[e] Withersdane and Nackholt are in the parish of Wye.

[f] The parish of Boughton-Aluph includes Boughton Lees, and part of Kennington Lees. The other part of Kennington Lees is in Kennington parish.

[g] The parish of Challock includes "the Leese."

[h] The parish of Chilham includes Shottenden and Bayham Cross. The increase of population is ascribed to the extension of hop gardens and the erection of several cottages on the castle estate.

55. BRIDGE. [i] Chartham Hatch, Chartham Green, and Shalmsford Street are in Chartham parish. The paper mills have been rebuilt and are now at work: at the time of taking the Census of 1861 they had been recently destroyed by fire, and the workpeople had consequently gone elsewhere for employment.

[j] The decrease of population in Waltham is attributed to migration and emigration. The apparent decrease of inhabited houses is attributed to several houses being divided into tenements or lodgings, and each lodging having been returned in 1861 as a separate house.

[k] The parish of Petham includes Garlinge Green.

[l] Bossingham is in Upper or Great Hardres parish. The increase of population in this parish is attributed to immigration, mostly of farm labourers.

[m] Rough Common is in Harbledown parish.

[n] The decrease of population in this part of Holy Cross, Westgate, is attributed to the migration of young people. The other part of the parish is in Canterbury District (56).

[o] Upon the completion of the works on the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway at Beaksbourne and Adisham, large numbers of labourers removed. These works were in active progress in 1861.

[p] The decrease of population in the parishes of Bishopsbourne and Barham is attributed to migration. The hamlet of Dorrington is in Barham parish.

[q] The hamlet of Bramling is in the parish of Ickham. Well is a detached part of this parish.

[r] The parish of Wickhambreux includes a place named Grove.

56. CANTERBURY. [s] The decrease of the population of St. Augustine's monastery, almonry, and precinct is attributed to a number of students having left St. Augustine's College.

[t] Although a number of militia were quartered in the parish of St. Mary Northgate, the military population was not so numerous as in 1861; this explains the apparent anomaly of a decrease of the population and an increase in the number of inhabited houses.

[a] Since the completion of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, which was in progress in 1861, many railway workmen then living at Holy Cross Westgate Within have removed. The other part of the ancient parish of Holy Cross Westgate is in the Chartham Sub-district (55:1).

[b] St. Mary Bredin now possesses a railway station, and the population has in consequence considerably increased since 1861.

[c] Several houses in St. Mary Bredman have been demolished for the erection of a rag store. The houses returned as uninhabited are mostly business premises occupied during the day.

[d] The decrease of population in St. Margaret is owing to railway labourers having left the parish upon the completion of the works on which they were employed.

[e] Migration of the labouring class, in search of better employment, is stated to be the cause of the decrease of the population of St. Peter.

57. BLEAN. [f] In Archbishop's Palace precinct 3 houses have been pulled down recently to afford access to ruins which they hid. The increase of population is attributed to the growth of the King's school.

[g] Several houses in the Ville of St. Gregory which were destroyed by fire have not been rebuilt. The decrease of population is attributed to the migration of the poorer classes, and the removal of soldiers to the "Married Quarters" recently built in Canterbury City District.

[h] Tyler Hill is partly in the parish of Hackington or St. Stephen, and partly in the parish of Blean.

[i] The return for the parish of Chislett includes Upstreet and Markside.

[j] The increase of the population of Herne is attributed to improved railway accommodation, to the formation of the Herne Bay Oyster Company, and to the opening of brickfields. Bellinge, Broomfield, Eddington Old Town, and the town of Herne Bay are in the parish of Herne. The increase in population is principally in the town of Herne Bay, which shows an advance of 39 per cent. upon the returns for 1861.

[k] The privileges of the Company of Free Fishers (Oyster Company), which extend to the great bulk of the adult male population of Whitstable, tend to encourage early marriages; hence the large and continuous additions to the native population. For 10 years the Company was very flourishing, and the operation of building societies supplied excessive house accommodation. During the last three years, however, the depression in the trade caused by the deficient deposit of oyster spat has reduced the freemen's earnings from 2*l.* and 3*l.* to about 15*s.* per week, and many young persons have given up housekeeping and taken lodgings, many houses now containing two or three families. The places known as Two Brewers and Borstal Hill are in Whitstable parish. The return for 1871 includes 113 persons on board vessels within the parish. Part of the town of Whitstable is in the parish of Seasalter. The parishes of Whitstable and Seasalter include what was formerly known as the "Borough of Harwich," which was an ancient member of the hundred of Westgate, and was added thereto for the purposes of levying public taxes, administration of justice, &c.: the only evidence of its existence at the present time appears to be the land tax assessment, as for all other purposes it is merged in the two parishes, and its boundary is said to be now unrecognizable.

58. FAVERSHAM. [l] Fairbrook and Nash Court are in the parish of Boughton under Blean.

[m] The increase of population in Selling is attributed to the erection of a number of farm labourers' cottages.

[n] Sheldwich Lees is in Sheldwich parish.

[o] Throwley parish includes Clares Forstall, and Bells Forstall.

[p] Improved railway accommodation has attracted many persons to the neighbourhood of Faversham; the demand for houses being still on the increase in Preston next Faversham, Faversham In Liberty, Faversham Out Liberty, and Davington. In the northern part of Preston next Faversham extensive brickfields have lately been opened, causing the erection of several labourers' cottages. Faversham is a member of the Cinque Port of Dover.

[a] The return for Luddenham includes a detached part of the parish comprising Oare Mill, Mill Cottages, and the Marsh Powder Works. The decrease of population is attributed to migration caused by the demand for brickmakers in Faversham and other parts of the county.

[b] The demand for labour in the brickmaking business, is stated to have occasioned the increase of the population in the parishes of Buckland, Eastling, Doddington, and Linsted. Part of Greenstreet and Celler Hill are in Linsted; the remainder of Greenstreet is in Teynham parish.

[c] Cement works, boat building, and brickmaking have attracted large numbers of labourers and bargemen to Teynham. Part [of Greenstreet, Barrow Green, Frogmall, and Conyer are in Teynham.

59. MILTON. [d] The attractions of Sittingbourne and the District generally, and the improved railway accommodation, have given a great impulse to building; and large brickfields, employing many additional labourers, are in active progress in Sittingbourne, Tong, Milton next Sittingbourne, Rainham, Upchurch, Lower Halstow, &c. The operations of a freehold land society have also tended to increase the population of the district, especially at Borden (including Chestnut Street, Mill Lane, Oad Street, and part of Key Street) and Sittingbourne.

[e] The increase of population in the parish of Murston is attributed to the establishment of large cement works and brickfields.

[f] Part of Key Street is in the parish of Bobbing, the remainder being in Borden.

[g] East, West, and Lower Rainham are in the parish of Rainham.

60. SHEPPEY. [h] Queenborough parish is one of the ancient boroughs which were disfranchised by the Reform Act of 1832. The decrease of population is attributed to the removal of a number of railway labourers who were employed here in 1861.

[i] The town of Sheerness (including Mile Town and Blue Town), West Minster and Half Way Houses are in the parish of Minster in Sheppey. There has been a considerable reduction in the Government establishments at Sheerness; the number both of Dockyard men and of soldiers being now about 300 less than in 1861; the general population has, however, somewhat increased. The return for 1871 includes 1,334 persons on board vessels (viz., 1,086 in the Royal Navy, and 248 in the Merchant Service), and also 94 persons residing at coastguard stations.

[j] The return for Leysdown includes 49 persons at the coastguard station.

61. THANET. [k] The increase of population at Birchington is attributed to the opening of the railway, and the consequent demand for houses. There were 36 persons at the coastguard station.

[l] The increase of population in Minster is attributed mainly to an additional demand for labour. The return includes 40 persons residing at the coastguard station.

[m] The increasing demand for lodgings at Margate has caused the erection of many houses, nearly all of which are occupied. At the time of the Census of 1871, private schools contained 1118 inmates. A new suburb known as Westgate on Sea has recently been built. Northdown and part of Nash are also in Margate parish. The return of uninhabited houses includes a large number used for business purposes during the day. The number of unoccupied dwelling houses is stated to be not more than 50. The return for 1871 includes 136 persons in hotels, and upwards of 200 other visitors.

[n] The parish of St. Peter comprises the town of Broadstairs, Reading Street, parts of Northwood and Nash, and the village of St. Peter's. The return includes 118 persons at coastguard stations, 10 at the North Foreland lighthouse, and 76 sea-side visitors. The opening of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway with a station at Broadstairs has caused the building of a number of houses in this neighbourhood.

[o] The increase of population in the parish of St. Lawrence is attributed to improved railway communication and to the operations of the British Land Society. Places known as Ellington, Southwood, Pegwell, Manston, Hereson, and part of Northwood are in St. Lawrence parish. Private schools contained 84 persons, and coastguard stations 115 persons.

[p] In the parish of Ramsgate there has been a considerable increase of houses and population. The facilities for communication afforded by the railways, and the allotment of a building estate purchased by the British Land Society, have attracted numbers of persons to this locality. The return includes 126 sea-side visitors, 458 persons on board vessels in the harbour, and 565 in private schools.

62. EASTRY. [a] The parish of Ash next Sandwich comprises the tythings of Overland, Guilton, Godstone, and How Town.
[b] Marshborough is in the parish of Woodnesborough.
[c] The return for Worth includes 77 people at the coastguard station.
[d] This part of Northbourne parish includes part of the village of Betshanger. The return includes a detached part of the parish, containing Napchester, Minacre, and West Studdle, or Studdall.
[e] The part of the parish of Northbourne which is in Wingham Sub-district, is a detached part called Tickenhurst.
[f] Barnsole, Staple, and Shatterling are in the parish of Staple next Wingham.
[g] The parish of Preston by Wingham includes Preston Street and Preston Forstall.
[h] The decrease of population at Barfreston is attributed to there being fewer visitors from Dover and other places in 1871 than in 1861.
[i] The part of the parish of Waldershare which is in the Deal Sub-district is a detached part adjoining Ripple and Sutton, and is in the Hundred of Cornilo.
[j] The return for Sutton by Dover includes Little Sutton, a detached portion of the parish situate between Ringwould and Ripple.
[k] Little Mongeham parish includes East Studdall, or Studdle.
[l] The increase of population in Walmer and Deal is ascribed to the erection of a number of houses, many of which are occupied by lodgers. Private schools contained 105 persons.

63. DOVER. [m] Ringwould parish includes Kingsdown. The coastguard station contained 62 persons.
[n] The increase of population in the parish of Oxney is attributed to the proprietor and his household being at Oxney Court at the time of the Census, and to a gardener's cottage having been built on the estate.
[o] Martin is in the parish of East Langdon. The decrease of population in this parish is mainly attributed to migration.
[p] St. Margaret's Bay is in the parish of St. Margaret at Cliffe. The return includes 151 persons in private schools, and 32 at the South Foreland lighthouse.
[q] The selection of Whitfield as a place of residence by retired tradesmen and others is stated to be the principal cause of the increase of its population.
[r] The garrison of Castle Hill Fort (erected since 1861) is included in the return for Guston parish.
[s] Dover is one of the Cinque Ports. The decrease of population in St. Mary the Virgin parish is attributed to removals to the newer suburban portions of the borough, especially to Charlton, and to the want of employment caused by the stoppage of the continental traffic during the Franco-German war. Private schools in the town of Dover contained 154 persons, hotels 233, and lodging houses 210. The return also includes upwards of 100 militia in training, and 460 persons on board vessels.

[a] The increase of the population of Hougham is attributed to there being a greater number of military in the barracks in 1871 than in 1861, and to increased house accommodation in the parish. Coastguard stations contained 88 persons.

[b] The increase of population in the parishes of Buckland, River, and Ewell is attributed to additional villa and other house accommodation.

[c] The increase of population in the parish of Sibertswold is attributed to the completion, since 1861, of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway with a station here, and the impetus thereby given to building.

[d] The population of the parishes of Wootton and Denton is stated to have decreased in consequence of the migration of labourers. In Wootton two large houses were temporarily uninhabited.

64. ELHAM. [e] Reinden, formerly in Hougham Sub-district, has been incorporated with the parish of Folkestone by order of quarter sessions, bearing date 3rd July 1866. Its population was 4 persons in 1861, and 9 in 1871. The increase of population in Folkestone is attributed to its attractions as a watering place. Private schools contained 222 persons, coastguard stations 66, hotels 93; 33 persons were on board ship.

[f] The wives and families of the military in Shorncliffe Camp (viz., 339 males and 669 females) are included in the return for Cheriton parish. In 1861 the Camp contained 1103 more military than in 1871. Sandgate, a watering-place and local board district, is partly in Cheriton and partly in Folkestone parishes.

[g] Each End Hill and North Lyminge are in Lyminge parish.

[h] The parish of Newington next Hythe includes the hamlet of Marwood.

[i] Court at Street is in the parish of Lympne.

[j] Hythe is one of the Cinque Ports. The return for St. Leonard Hythe includes 216 volunteers attending the Hythe School of Musketry. The number of volunteers in 1861 was 108, although the total number of strangers then present was about the same as in 1871. 96 persons were living at the coastguard station, and 20 on board ship. The increase of the population is attributed to the development of the School of Musketry, and to the attractions of the place as a bathing resort.

65. ROMNEY MARSH. [k] The return for Dymchurch includes 40 persons living at the coastguard station.

[m] New Romney is one of the Cinque Ports; the return includes 5 persons employed on the ordnance survey, and 36 living at the coastguard station.

[n] The increase of the population of Lydd is consequent upon a larger area of land being brought under cultivation, requiring more labour than in 1861. The return includes 109 persons on board ship, 228 at coastguard stations, and 20 at Dungeness lighthouse.

66. RYE. [a] The Registrar states that the return for 1861 of the parts of Broomhill respectively in Kent and Sussex, must have been erroneous: the boundaries upon which the present return is based having been carefully ascertained.

[b] Rye is one of the two ancient towns attached to the Cinque Ports. 62 persons were on board vessels at Rye.

[c] In three of the parishes in the Beckley Sub-district a decrease appears in the total population. This is attributed, especially at Brede and Northiam, to emigration, many persons having recently gone to America.

[d] Little Brede is in the parish of Brede.

[e] The return for Udimore includes a detached part of the parish known as Little Udimore, lying in and surrounded by the parish of Brede.

[f] Winchelsea is a corporate town (but not regulated by the Municipal Reform Act), and is one of the two ancient towns attached to the Cinque Ports. The hamlet of Camber is in this parish. The return includes 48 persons living at the coastguard station.

[g] Icklesham includes the hamlet of Rye Harbour. The return for this parish includes 90 inmates of the coastguard station, and 6 at the Martello Tower.

67. HASTINGS. [h] The return for Pett includes 66 persons at the coastguard station, and 10 at the Martello Tower.

[i] The coastguard stations in Fairlight parish contained 85 persons.

[j] Several villas, a large number of cottages, and also Hurst Court College (containing 37 inmates) have been erected at Ore, and occupied since 1861. The number of inmates of the workhouse is also larger than in that year. Fairlight Down and part of the town of Hastings are comprised in the parish of Ore.

[k] Hastings is one of the Cinque Ports. There were, in the town of Hastings, in 1871, 453 persons in boarding schools, exclusive of the conventual schools (containing 150 inmates), and 377 in hotels. Coastguard stations contained 118 persons. About 4400 persons were at the time of the Census returned as "visitors" or "non-residents" in the town, nearly the whole of whom were enumerated in the Sub-district of St. Mary in the Castle.

[l] The increase of population in the parish of St. Clement, Hastings is attributed to the building of a number of small houses, chiefly on the barrack ground at the limits of the parish.

[m] The parish of St. Andrew occupies a central position between the old and new portions of the borough, and much of its area has, since 1861, been sold for building purposes, to which is attributed the great increase in the population.

[n] The parish of Holy Trinity or Priory comprises the best business quarters of the town, the railway terminus, and a valuable sea-frontage.

[o] The parishes of St. Mary Magdalen and of St. Leonard on Sea include the fashionable quarters of the town. In the latter parish the population has more than doubled since 1861. A detached portion of the parish of St. Leonard on Sea, consisting of about 50 acres without population in 1871, adjoins the town of Winchelsea (66: 2).

68. BATTLE. [p] The increase of population in Hollington is attributed to its having become the place of residence of large numbers of the labouring classes employed in the adjoining towns of St. Leonard's and Hastings.

[q] Lidley Green and Little Common are in the parish of Bexhill, the return for which includes 72 persons living at the coastguard stations: the return for the Liberty of the Sluice also includes 52 persons at the coastguard station.

[a] Netherfield is in the parish of Battle.

[b] The apparent decrease in the number of inhabited houses in Brightling, Dallington, and Ashburnham is said to be owing to houses being divided into tenements or lodgings, and each lodging having been returned in 1861 as a separate house. The return for Dallington includes a detached part of the parish, known as Hodgkins, locally situate in Hellingly Sub-district (70 : 2).

69. EASTBOURNE. [c] The decrease in the population of Pevensey is attributed to the removal of labourers to Eastbourne, to the absence of the Royal Artillery, and to the Martello Towers being unoccupied. The coastguard station at Pevensey contained 31, and that at Westham, 36 persons.

[d] Willingdon adjoins Eastbourne, and is a convenient place for workmen's homes; the returns consequently show an increase of the population. Langley Fort is in the parish of Willingdon.

[e] The increase of population at Eastbourne is attributed to its attractions as a watering place, and to the demand for labour, consequent upon sanitary improvements, and the formation of new streets, parades, &c. The village of Meads is in this parish.

[f] Seaford is a member of the Cinque Port of Hastings, and is now much frequented as a sea-side resort.

70. HAILSHAM. [g] The hamlet of Upper Dicker is in the parish of Arlington.

[h] The villages of Polegate and Cooklebury are in Hailsham parish. The return includes 9 persons temporarily present engaged on the Ordnance survey.

[i] The population of Herstmonceaux, Wartling, and Ninfield is stated to have been reduced by the migration of labourers to towns, and the hill districts. Boreham Street and Wartling Hill are in Wartling parish.

[j] The parish of Hellingly includes the hamlet of Horsebridge.

[k] The village known as The Dicker and the hamlets of Gun Hill, Muddler Green, and part of Whitesmith are in the parish of Chiddingly.

[l] Part of Whitesmith is in the parish of Laughton.

[m] Warbleton parish includes the villages of Rushlake Green and Bodle Street.

71. TICEHURST. [n] The hamlet of Flimwell is in Ticehurst parish.

[o] Salehurst parish comprises Hurst Green, Robertsbridge, Silverhill, and Northbridge Street.

[p] Improved railway communication has caused the erection of many villa residences, all of which are now inhabited; the increase of population is, however, mainly ascribed to the improved condition of the farmers since the repeal of the hop duty, many additional labourers being now employed. These remarks apply to both parts of Lamberhurst, and especially to the neighbouring parish of Wadhurst, which includes Woods Green, Sparrows Green, Pell Green, and Conseleywood. In Lamberhurst 46 workmen were temporarily present, employed in house building.

[q] That part of the parish of Frant which is in the county of Kent includes the village of Hawkenbury. The Sussex portion of Frant comprises Bells Yew, Eridge Green, and part of the town of Tunbridge Wells, in which the increase of buildings and population has principally taken place. A large number of villa residences has been built, and the increase still goes on, owing to the close proximity of the Tunbridge Wells Chalybeate spring and the beauty of the neighbourhood.

72. UCKFIELD. [a] Rotherfield parish includes Jarvis Brook and Croborough Cross.
[b] Coggins Mill Street is in Mayfield parish.
[c] The increase of population in Framfield parish (which includes the village of Blackboys) is ascribed to facilities for communication by railway.
[d] East Hoathly parish includes Nursery hamlet.
[e] The parish of Waldron includes Cross in hand.
[f] The increase of population in Uckfield is ascribed to improved railway communication.
[g] Several cottages have been built in the parish of Fletching since the enclosure and allotment of Chetwood Common: hence the increase of population.
[h] The increase of population in Buxted is ascribed to the erection of several cottages and almshouses and to the facilities for communication by railway. Part of Five Ash Down is in this parish. The other part (containing 1 house) is in Maresfield parish.

73. EAST GRINSTEAD. [i] The junction of the Tunbridge Wells and Brighton with the East Grinstead Railway being situate in Withyham, has tended to increase the population of that parish. An additional cause of the increase is the enclosure of part of Ashdown Forest at Croborough, and its sale for building purposes. Groombridge, Croborough Warren, and part of Croborough are in the parish of Withyham.
[j] Gallipot is in the south division of the parish of Hartfield.
[k] The increase of population in East Grinstead is attributed to the opening of a railway to Tunbridge Wells, and the consequent extension of building operations. A new convent has been established, and a new workhouse built since 1861. Ashurst, Forest Row, and Felbridge are in East Grinstead parish.
[l] The increase of population in Worth is attributed to improved railway accommodation. Copthorne, Crawley Down, Turner's Hill, and Three Bridges are in the parish of Worth.
[m] A cottage called Buckswood Copse, with about half an acre of land, formerly returned as extra-parochial, is now included in the parish of Crawley.
[n] Birch Grove is in West Hoathly parish.

74. CUCKFIELD. [o] Lindfield comprises Walstead and Endfield Commons.
[p] Hapstead is in the parish of Ardingly. St. Saviour's College, recently erected, is also in this parish.
[q] The increase of population in Balcombe is attributed to the extra demand for labour caused by a considerable quantity of land having been laid out for building purposes.
[r] The increase of population in Cuckfield parish is attributed to the erection of a large number of buildings around Hayward's Heath, which being easily accessible from Brighton is selected as a place of residence by many persons engaged there in business. To the same cause may be attributed the increase in what may be termed Cuckfield proper. The suburb of Hayward's Heath is also known as St. Wilfrid's. Staplefield and part of Handcross are in the parish of Cuckfield.
[s] Warninglid and part of Handcross are in the parish of Slaugham.
[t] The parish of Hurstpierpoint includes Sayers' Common. A considerable increase has taken place in the number of inmates of the Middle Class School (St. John's College).
[u] The increase of population in the parishes of Clayton and Keymer is attributed to the proximity of the Burgess Hill and Hassocks Gate railway stations. The demand for labour, caused by the extension of building operations, and by the potteries and brickyards, has also tended to increase the population. St. John's Common, the site of much of the building referred to, is partly in Clayton and partly in Keymer parish.

75. LEWES. [v] The District of Lewes comprises the four Poor Law Unions of Chailey (Sub-districts 1 and 2); Lewes (Sub-district 3); West Firle (Sub-district 4); and Newhaven (Sub-districts 5 and 6).
[w] The Sussex County Lunatic Asylum at Wivelsfield has been greatly enlarged, and many houses have been erected in the parish and occupied since 1861.
[x] The increase of population in Ditchling is chiefly owing to the erection of a lunatic asylum called "St. George's Retreat," and a preparatory college, with 37 inmates. In the former were several of the workmen temporarily employed in completing the building. At the time of the Census it contained only 12 patients, but when completed it will accommodate a much larger number.

[a] A new workhouse has been built in St. Anne's parish, in place of the two formerly in All Saints and St. Thomas in the Cliffe. To this fact and to the large number of houses erected on land recently sold for building purposes, the increase of population in St. Anne's parish is attributed.

[b] The increase of population in the parish of St. John under the Castle is mainly attributed to the fact that the Invalid Convict Prison which was unoccupied in 1861, is now used for the detention of naval prisoners.

[c] The erection of fortifications, the improvement of the river, and the extension of steam-boat traffic, are stated to have caused the increase of population in Newhaven. Coastguard stations contained, at Bishopstone, 34; at Newhaven, 47; and at Telscombe, 30 persons. 34 persons were living in the Fort at Newhaven.

[d] The increase of population in Rottingdean is attributed to the erection of the Brighton Industrial Schools, and to the presence of a large number of excavators employed on the Brighton sewer, which runs through this parish. The 3 coastguard stations at Rottingdean, contained 74 persons.

76. BRIGHTON. [e] The large increase of buildings and population in Brighton has almost exclusively taken place in the St. Peter's Sub-district, owing to the larger quantity of building land available in that district than in the other parts of the town. A considerable number of houses has been erected in the north-east part of the town, and several public institutions have been established since 1861. The return includes 1607 persons in boarding schools, 612 in hotels, and 603 in common lodging houses.

77. STEYNING. [f] The continued increase of population in Hove is attributed to the extension of Brighton. Private schools contained 1104 persons.

[g] The large increase of population in Preston has resulted from the erection of numbers of houses upon two estates known as Prestonville and Clermont.

[h] At Patcham several villa residences have been built and occupied since 1861.

[a] The population of Portslade has more than doubled since 1861, a part of the parish known as Portslade by Sea, which was not built on at that period, being now thickly populated. The canal traffic, and the adjacent extensive gas works, employ large numbers of workmen, who mostly live in this parish. The return includes 105 strangers employed upon new buildings in progress in Portslade.

[b] A large number of houses have been built at Southwick, and at Fishergate (a hamlet in Southwick parish), which are chiefly inhabited by the families of oyster-dredgers and seafaring men. The return for Southwick parish includes 54 persons at the coastguard station, and 118 on board ship.

[c] Kingston Terrace, in the parish of Kingston by Sea, has been erected since 1861, and is chiefly let out in apartments.

[d] Schools in New Shoreham contained 110 inmates, and 310 people were on board vessels.

[e] At Lancing a large middle-class school has been established since 1861. This and other schools contained 201 persons, and 96 people were living at the two coastguard stations.

[f] The entire Sub-district of Steyning is, except the hamlet of Fulking and the parish of Poynings, in West Sussex, and is included within the parliamentary borough of Shoreham. Fulking and Poynings are in East Sussex, and are not included within the parliamentary borough.

[g] The population of Bramber and Henfield is stated to have increased in consequence of railway extensions in the district. Nep Town is in Henfield.

[h] Woodmancote parish includes Blackstone.

78. HORSHAM. [i] In 1870 a part of the parish of Horsham, including a part of the town of Horsham and the hamlet of Southwater, was transferred from the North to the South Sub-district. The number of houses and population in the transferred portion has been estimated, for 1861, by the Superintendent Registrar. The other part of the parish (in the North Sub-district) includes the rest of the town, and part of the hamlet of Broadbridge Heath, the remainder of which forms a detached part of the parish of Sullington, in Thakeham District (80 : 2). The decrease of population in the part of Horsham parish which is in the South Sub-district is attributed to the migration of labourers upon the completion of the Shoreham and Horsham Railway, the opening of which is stated to be the principal cause of the increase in the rest of Horsham and in the adjoining parishes. The area of the entire parish of Horsham is returned in the North Horsham Sub-district.

[j] Lower Beeding includes the forest of St. Leonard's, and also Holmbush and Bewbush. These two latter form the tithing of Baybush, and for ecclesiastical purposes remained part of Beeding or Upper Beeding parish (77 : 2) until the formation of the Colgate ecclesiastical district, in which they are now included.

[k] Buck's Green, Tisman's Common, and Linnick Street are in the parish of Rudgwick.

[l] Billingshurst parish comprises Fine Oaks, Parbrook, and Adversane.

79. PETWORTH. [m] The parish of Wisborough Green includes Loxwood; and Kirdford parish includes Plaistow.

[n] Byworth is in Petworth parish.

[o] Fittleworth parish includes Upper Fittleworth and Little Bognor.

[p] The return for Bignor includes a detached part of that parish in the tything of Buddington, locally situate in the Midhurst Sub-district (84 : 1).

[q] The hamlet of West Burton is in Bury parish.

80. THAKEHAM. [a] The parish of Cold Waltham includes Watersfield hamlet.
[b] Nuthourne is in Pulborough parish.
[c] A detached part of the parish of Sullington, viz., part of Broadbridge Heath, is locally situate in the parish of Horsham, in the North Horsham Sub-district (78 : 2).
[d] The return for Thakeham includes two detached portions, viz., Spear Hill, locally situate in Ashington parish, and Mutton's Farm, in Washington parish.
[e] The return for Ashington includes two detached parts of the parish locally situate in Wiston parish.

81. EAST PRESTON. [f] In Broadwater and Worthing the increase of population is ascribed to the attractions and healthiness of the locality. A detached part of Broadwater is locally situate in Nuthurst parish, in the South Horsham Sub-district (78 : 1). The return for Worthing includes 326 persons in boarding-schools, 61 in hotels, and 35 at the coastguard station.
[g] Little Heene is in the parish of Heene.
[h] Salvington is in West Tarring parish.
[i] Clapham Common is partly in Clapham and partly in Goring parish, in which latter there are two coastguard stations, with 60 inmates. The causes of the decrease of population are stated to be of a temporary character, viz., several old houses having been pulled down and new ones being in course of erection, and the presence in 1861, and the temporary absence in 1871, of several of the gentry and their households.
[j] East Preston has a coastguard station, with 50 inmates.
[k] The proximity of Leominster to the port of Littlehampton, and the quantity of land available for building purposes, continue to attract residents. The other part of the parish, viz., Warningcamp tything, is in Arundel Sub-district.
[l] The increase of trade is stated to be the principal cause of the increase of population in Littlehampton.
[m] The population of Climping is less than in 1861, owing to the absence of military at the Fort.
[n] The population of the parish of Arundel, which had decreased at the Census of 1861, now exhibits an increase, attributed to an influx of masons and labourers employed in the erection of extensive buildings, including a Roman Catholic church now in progress.
[o] The increase of population in Warningcamp tything is owing to the erection of several new houses and cottages.
[p] The parish of South Stoke includes Offham.

82. WESTHAMPNETT. [q] There are two coastguard stations in the parish of West Wittering, containing 71 persons.

[a] The parish of Selsey contains the hamlet of Norton, and also a coastguard station with 75 inmates.

[b] The decrease of population in Pagham is attributed to the reduced demand for labour, resulting from the merging small holdings into larger farms, and to some houses, which were formerly used as a coastguard station, being now unoccupied. Pagham parish includes Aldwich, South Mundham, Lagness, Rose Green, and Nytimber.

[c] Mundham village and Runcton are in the parish of North Mundham.

[d] Wickham and part of Hornet (which forms part of the town of Chichester) are in the parish of Rumbolds Wyke. The other part of Hornet is in the parish of St. Pancras Chichester (83 : 1).

[e] The parish of South Bersted includes Shipney and North Bersted. That part of the parish which is outside the limits of the town of Bognor, shows a considerable increase of population, arising from cottagers and others residing close to the town and at the same time being able to avoid its local rates and coal dues; this also chiefly accounts for the large number of empty houses (mostly old tenements) in Bognor. Schools contained 124 persons, and the St. Michael Institute for Girls contained 132 persons.

[f] Coastguard stations contained, at Felpham 46, and at Middleton 37 persons.

[g] Yapton parish includes Bilsham. Slindon parish contains the Gumber.

[h] The parish of Aldingbourn includes Lidsey, Norton, and Westergate.

[i] Eartham parish includes part of Seabeach.

[j] Boxgrove parish includes Easthampnett, Halnaker, Strettington, and parts of Seabeach and Goodwood.

[k] The parish of Westhampnett comprises the other part of Goodwood, and also Maundling and Westerton.

[l] The population of the parish of Oving has lately increased considerably in consequence, it is stated, of land becoming available for building near the city of Chichester. Oving includes Colworth and Portfield.

[m] The parish of East Lavant includes West Lavant.

83. CHICHESTER. [n] The hamlet of Stockbridge is partly in St. Bartholomew, partly in All Saints, and partly in St. Peter the Great or Sub-deanery parish. The decrease of population in the latter parish is owing to the number of military in barracks in 1871 being smaller than in 1861.

[o] The decrease of population in Cathedral Close is owing to the Bishop's Palace and the Diocesan College being vacant at the time of the Census.

[a] St. Pancras Within includes part of Hornet, the other part being in the parish of Rumbolds Wyke (82 : 2). St. Pancras Without is a detached part of the parish consisting of Kingsham Farm.

[b] The decrease of population in the parish of St. James is attributed to the destruction, by fire, of 4 cottages, and the pulling down of 3 others.

84. MIDHURST. [c] Under the Poor Law Board's Provisional Orders' Confirmation Act, 1869 (32 & 33 Vict. cap. 123), the parishes of East and West Lavington have been formed for Civil purposes out of the old parish of Woolavington, excluding, however, the detached parts adjoining the parishes of Fernhurst (84 : 2) and Terwick (84 : 3), which have been added to those parishes. For ecclesiastical purposes, however, it is understood that the ancient name of Woolavington is preserved as the mother parish out of which these two new Civil parishes have been formed. The areas of the detached parts of the old parish which have been added to Fernhurst and Terwick parishes, are included in the area for East and West Lavington.

[d] The return for Lodsworth includes a detached part of the parish, called Blackdown House, locally situate in Fernhurst Sub-district (84 : 2).

[e] The decrease of population in Selham, is attributed to the removal of a number of labourers who, in 1861, were employed on railway works.

[f] Part of Woolbeding is detached from the remainder of the parish by an intervening portion of Linch parish.

[g] North and South Ambersham are detached from the remainder of the parish of Steep, which is in Petersfield District (103). Bexley Hill is partly in North Ambersham and partly in Fernhurst parish.

[h] The return for Lurgashall includes a detached part of the parish, known as Bittlesham, locally situate near Kirdford, in Petworth District (79).

[i] A detached part of the parish of Woolavington, with which it was returned in 1861, has since become part of Fernhurst parish.

[j] A detached part of Linch parish, called Linch House and cottages, is locally situate near Bepton, in Harting Sub-district.

[k] A small part of Stedham is detached, and surrounded by the parishes of Chithurst and Iping.

[l] The parish of Trotton includes Milland.

[m] Chithurst Marsh and Chithurst Common are in the parish of Chithurst. Part of the parish is detached by an intervening part of Trotton parish.

[n] A detached part of the parish of Woolavington, with which it was returned in 1861, has since become part of Terwick parish.

[o] Rake and Habin Fyning are in the parish of Rogate.

[p] A part of Bepton (10 miles from the remainder of the parish) known as Great and Little Brookham, is locally situate near Linch (84 : 2).

85. WESTBOURNE. [q] The parish of West Dean includes Chilgrove.

[r] West Marden, and part of Forest-side, are in the parish of Up Marden.

[s] Walderton, part of Stanstead, part of Forest-side, and part of East Marden village (the principal part of which is in East Marden parish), are in Stoughton parish.

[t] Part of Stanstead is in Racton parish.

[u] East and West Ashling are in the parish of Funtington.

[v] Bosham parish includes Old Fishbourne.

[w] The parish of Chidham comprises Easton and Weston.

[x] The increase of population at West Thorney is attributed to the extensive public works in progress for reclaiming several thousand acres of land from the sea.

[y] The parish of Westbourne includes Hermitage, Nutbourne, and Prinstead.

86. HAVANT. [a] There were 40 persons living at the coastguard station, South Hayling.

[b] Warblington parish comprises Emsworth, and part of Leigh hamlet.

[c] The parish of Havant includes Brockhampton, Langstone, Durrants and Leigh. It also contains a coastguard station with 31 inmates. The increase throughout this District is attributed to land having been made available for building purposes.

[d] The parish of Farlington includes Stakes and Purbrook. There were 32 people living in the fort.

87. PORTSEA ISLAND. [e] There has been a gradual removal of residents from the business centres of Portsea and Portsmouth to the modern suburbs outside the walls. Landport, one of these suburban parts, possesses the attractions of a large open common and a long stretch of sea-beach. The naval and military (and consequently to some extent the civilian) population is liable to great fluctuation. Government works now in progress (the principal of which is the extension of the dockyard,) employ several thousand men, a large proportion of whom live outside the town. Another cause of the increase of population is the growing reputation of Southsea as a watering-place, and the consequent great demand for houses of a superior description. The return for Portsea Island includes 3099 persons on board-ship, besides 2282 on board vessels of the Royal Navy, and 120 at the coastguard stations. There were 164 persons living in H.M. dockyard and 126 in lodging houses. 1162 residents were returned as absent, and there were 860 strangers temporarily present. The large number of uninhabited houses, as compared with 1861, arises mainly from the conversion of many residences into business premises. A number of houses, the sites of which are required for the extension of barracks, fortifications, &c., have also recently been vacated.

[f] Copnor and Milton are included in that part of Portsea parish situate in Kingston Sub-district (87 : 1), and Southsea is in that part situate in Landport Sub-district (87 : 4).

[g] A small part of the parish of Portsmouth, consisting of about a quarter of an acre, is in this Sub-district; the area is included in that of Sub-district 87 : 3.

88. ALVERSTOKE. [h] The increase of population in the liberty of Alverstoke, that is, that part of Alverstoke parish outside the ramparts of the town of Gosport, is attributed to extensive building operations, and the migration thereto of families formerly living in Gosport. Alverstoke liberty includes Bingham, Bridgemary, Brockhurst, Elson, Ewer Common, Forton, Hardway, and Seafield. The coastguard station contained 27 persons. The Royal Clarence Victualling Yard is in Gosport.

[i] Burrow Island (or Rat Island, as it is sometimes called) is the property of the Crown, and is not rated to the relief of the poor; its population is shown separately for 1871.

89. FAREHAM. [j] The increase of population in Fareham is mainly attributed to the employment of a number of workmen in the erection of the fortifications, one of which, built since 1861, contained upwards of 200 soldiers. The parish comprises Wallington, Fontley, Catisfield, and Crocker Hill.

[k] The increase of population in Wymering is chiefly owing to the presence of a larger number of military than in 1861. Some houses have been pulled down to make room for the Hilsea forts. Hilsea, and parts of Cosham, East Cosham, Potwell, and Portsdown are in Wymering parish.

[l] Widley parish includes the other parts of Cosham, Portsdown, and Potwell.

[m] Three houses, with 12 inhabitants, in Wickham Forest, formerly extra-parochial, have been incorporated with Wickham parish under 20 Vict. c. 19.

[n] The parish of Titchfield comprises Hook, Warash, Newtown, Brook, Swanwick, Sarisbury, Crofton, and Stubbington.

[o] The apparent increase of population in Rowner parish is attributed to the fact that Fort Grange was occupied in 1871, but not in 1861.

90. ISLE OF WIGHT. [p] To the attractions of the Isle of Wight as a place of permanent residence and as a sea-side resort, is attributed the large increase of population, there being, in 1871, an increase of 2000 houses and 11000 persons. Her Majesty and the Court were at Osborne in 1861, but in 1871 Osborne House contained only 11 persons. The returns for the whole island show that 808 strangers were present on the night of the Census; private schools contained 215, hotels 219, and lodging houses 108 persons.

[q] Parkhurst Prison (a juvenile reformatory) is partly in Northwood and partly in Carisbrooke parish (90 : 2). 15 males and 6 females lived at Palance Gate, formerly extra-parochial, but stated to be now incorporated with Northwood parish.

[r] West Cowes includes the village of Gurnard. The return includes 35 persons at the coastguard station.

[s] The parish of Whippingham includes East Cowes, Fairlee, Barton, Osborne House and village, and part of the town of Newport. The coastguard station contained 23, and there were 45 persons on board vessels. The decrease of the population of Whippingham parish is attributed to the absence of the Court at the time of taking the Census of 1871, to the migration of workmen on the completion of building and drainage works on the Osborne estate, to the closing of a brickyard in which 40 men were formerly employed, and to a reduction of the number of workmen in the ship-building yards.

[a] The parish of Newport, is almost wholly built upon, and the decrease of population is stated mainly to arise from persons engaged in business taking private residences in the adjoining parish of Carisbrooke; to which fact and to an influx of other residents the increase of population in Carisbrooke is ascribed.

[b] Parkhurst Prison, a juvenile reformatory, is partly in Carisbrooke and partly in Northwood parish (90 : 1).

[c] The parish of Carisbrooke comprises Gunville, Hunney Hill, Chillerton, and part of the town of Newport. Parkhurst Forest, formerly extra-parochial, is now incorporated with Carisbrooke parish.

[d] The parish of Arreton includes Wootton Common, Wootton Bridge, Rookley, Merstone, parts of Wootton and of Haven Street, and part of the village of Godshill.

[e] Binstead being contiguous to Ryde, many artizans and others employed in Ryde reside there.

[f] Under the Newchurch Parish Act of 1866 (29 & 30 Vict. cap. cxi.), the ancient parish of Newchurch was divided for all civil and ecclesiastical purposes into the three parishes of Newchurch, Ryde, and Ventnor. That part of Newchurch which is in Godshill Sub-district includes Wroxall.

[g] Owing to improved travelling facilities, Ryde is increasing in favour as a watering-place. Haylands, and part of Haven Street are in the parish of Ryde, which was created a separate parish in the year 1866.

[h] St. Helens so closely adjoins the town of Ryde as to participate with it in public favour as a sea-side resort. Springvale, Cherrygin, Nettlestone, Sea View, Oakfield, Elmfield, and St. John's Park Apley are in St. Helens parish.

[i] The parish of Brading includes Sandown (the population of which is increasing in consequence of its sea-side attractions), and also Yarbridge, Adgestone, Bembridge, Gatten, America, and Lake. A military station, hospital and fortifications, have been established in Sandown and its vicinity since 1861.

[j] Shanklin, which is a rapidly increasing sea-side resort, contains a military depôt and fortifications.

[k] In Ventnor, which was created a separate parish in 1866, there has been a considerable increase of population, it having become one of the most popular watering-places on the south coast: at the time the Census was taken, it was computed that 534 "visitors" or strangers were temporarily staying in the town.

[l] Whitwell parish includes Nettlecombe and Kemming.

[m] At the time of the Census there were 21 persons at the coastguard station, and 7 at the lighthouse in the parish of Niton.

[n] The parish of Godshill includes Ronds and Rookley. Part of the village of Godshill is in the parish of Arreton (90 : 2).

[o] Kingston parish comprises part of Atherfield.

[p] Shorwell parish includes the greater part of Atherfield, and also a place known as Billingham.

[q] The parish of Brixton includes part of Chilton, the other part being in the parish of Mottistone.

[r] Calbourne parish includes Lock Green. The decrease of population is attributed to several large families having left the parish.

[s] Shalfleet parish includes Ringwood, Hampstead, Wellow, Newbridge, and Portsfield.

[t] The increase of population in Yarmouth and in Freshwater is attributed to the provision of additional house accommodation; and also, at Freshwater, to recent extension of the fortifications. Freshwater parish includes Weston, Alum Bay, Middleton, Colwell, and Afton. The coastguard stations at Yarmouth contained 46, and that at Freshwater 77 persons.

91. LYMINGTON. [u] The parish of Lymington includes the tythings of Buckland and Croydon.

[v] The parish of Boldre includes the tythings of South Baddesley, Battramsley, Pilley-and-Warborne, Sway, and Walhampton. Part of this parish is situated in the New Forest.

[w] The boundary between the parish of Brockenhurst and Rhinefield township, as shown on a map supplied by the Ordnance Survey Department, does not correspond with the boundary as shown on a map prepared for the Poor Law Board when the townships in the New Forest were formed, and defined in the "Order" of the Board constituting this township. According to the Ordnance map, the parish of Brockenhurst (exclusive of Whitley Ridge Lodge, 326 acres) comprises 6,647 acres, and Rhinefield township 4,757 acres; but according to the map prepared for the Poor Law Board the area of Brockenhurst parish is 4,044 acres, and that of Rhinefield township 7,360 acres as stated above.

[x] The township of Rhinefield was constituted by an Order of the Poor Law Board, dated 23d November 1868, and was added to the Lymington Union by a subsequent Order, dated 30th January 1869; it consists of parts of Rhinefield and Wilverley Walks in the New Forest, which were extra-parochial prior to the passing of the New Forest Poor Act of 1866 (29 & 30 Vict. c. 66.), and includes the following places:—Rhinefield Lodge, Rhinefield Sandys Cottage, Aldridge Hill Cottage, Latchmore, Railway Gatehouse No. 10., Wilverley Lodge, and Set Thorns Inclosure Cottage. The houses and population as stated above for 1861 have been estimated for the township according to the present boundaries.

[a] The parish of Milford comprises the tythings of Lyford, Efford, Keyhaven, Milford, and Pennington, and also the village of Everton.

[b] Hordle parish includes the tythings of Hordle and Arnewood. Upon the completion of the fortifications, in course of erection in 1861, a number of workmen left the parish; hence the decrease of population in 1871.

[c] The tythings of Ashley and Chewton are in the parish of Milton. The increase of population is attributed principally to the enclosure of, and erection of tenements upon, Ashley Common. An additional coastguard station has been established since 1861.

92. CHRISTCHURCH. [d] The increase of population in Christchurch parish is attributed to the rapid development of Bournemouth as a watering-place. Bournemouth is partly in Christchurch and partly in Holdenhurst parish; and it is computed that 1408 persons present on the Census night were "visitors," or persons temporarily staying in the place. The parish of Christchurch also comprises Bockhampton, Beckley, Boscombe, Bosley, Burton, Godwinscroft, Hurn or Heron, Hinton or Hinton Admiral, Iford, Mudeford, Neacroft, Newtown, Parley, Pokesdown, Purewell, St. Catherine's, Springbourne, Stanpit, Thorney Hill, Watersditch, Wick, Winkton, and part of Bransgore, the remainder being in Sopley parish.

[e] In the parish of Holdenhurst there has been a large increase of population from the same cause as mentioned in the preceding note (d), viz., that it contains part of Bournemouth; in addition to which it comprises places known as Moordown, Throop, and Winton.

[f] Sopley, which is an agricultural parish, has decreased in population owing to the demolition of several cottages, and the migration of their occupants. The parish includes Avon, Ripley, Shirley, and part of Bransgore, the other part of which is in Christchurch parish. An estate called Avon Cottage, on the opposite side of the river from Avon Village, is in the parish of Ringwood (see next note [g]).

93. RINGWOOD. [g] The parish of Ringwood comprises the tythings of Ashley, Bistern and Crow, Burley, Kingston, Ringwood Town, Avon Cottage, Wattensford, Moortown, Poulner, Hop Garden, and part of Blashford. Parts of the parish are in the New Forest.

[h] Ellingham parish is partly in the New Forest. Moyle's Court, Rockford, Linwood, Highwood, Linbrook, and part of Blashford are in this parish.

[i] The township of Burley was constituted by an Order of the Poor Law Board, dated 23d November 1863, when certain adjacent extra-parochial parts of the New Forest known as Burley Walk and Holmsley Walk were added to the ville or township of Burley Ville and Bistern Closes, the whole to be thenceforth styled "Burley township." A part of Wilverley Walk (including Ossemsley Ford, railway station, and cottages, Toll-gate House, and Holmesley Cottage) which, in 1861, was included in the Sub-district of Milford (91 : 2), has now been included in Burley township. The places called Holmesley Lodge and Inclosure Cottage, three railway gate-houses, Foulford, Picket Post, and Picket Post Gate, Burley Lodge, Burley Rails Cottage, and Burley New Enclosure Cottage, now form part of the township. The houses and population given above for 1861 have been estimated for the townships of Burley and Broomy according to the present boundaries.

[j] The township of Broomy was constituted by an Order of the Poor Law Board, dated 23d November 1863, and by a subsequent Order (dated 12th February 1869), was added to the Ringwood Union. It is composed of places in the New Forest which were extra-parochial prior to the passing of the New Forest Poor Act of 1866, and comprises the following:—Broomy Lodge, Broomy New Enclosure Cottage, Linford, Linford New Enclosure Cottage, Linwood, Roe Inclosure Cottage, Shobley, and Holly Hatch. See note (i) to Burley township respecting the population in 1861.

94. FORDINGBRIDGE. [k] The parish of South Damerham includes the tythings of East End, North End, and South End.

[l] The parish of Martin includes the tythings of East Martin, West Martin, and Tidpit.

[m] The decrease of population in Whitsbury is attributed to the migration of young people and to emigration. The chancel of the church of Whitsbury is the only part of the parish in the county of Hants.

[n] The parish of Fordingbridge includes the hamlets of Burgate, Stuckton, Bickton Froyham, Creddlestyle, and part of Godshill village.

[o] The parish of Rockbourn includes the hamlet of Brickhill, and part of Sandhill Heath.

[p] The township of Ashley Walk has been formed under an Order of the Poor Law Board, dated 23rd November 1863, out of the following places, formerly extra-parochial, situate in or adjoining the New Forest:—part of Godshill (the other part of which is in Fordingbridge parish, see note [n]), Godshill Wood, Godshill Inclosure, Ashley Walk, Ashley Lodge, Mudmore, Ogdens, Amberwood, Eyeworth Lodge, Telegraph Toll-gate, Miller's Ford, and Greenhouse Farm. The houses and population as stated above for 1861 have been estimated for the township according to the present boundaries.

95. NEW FOREST. [q] The whole of the Hampshire portion of Bramshaw is situate in the New Forest; parts of Fritham and Brook are in the Hants portion, and the remainder of Brook, with Furzley hamlet are in the Wilts portion. The other part of Fritham is in Minstead parish.

[a] The parish of Minstead includes Canterton, part of Fritham, London Minstead, Minstead, Cadnam, and part of Emery Down. Alumn Green, formerly extra-parochial, has now been annexed to the parish of Minstead.

[b] The parish of Lyndhurst is mainly in the New Forest, viz., in Irons Hill Walk, and in Rhinefield Walk. The hamlets of Pike Hill, Bolton's Bench, and part of Emery Down are in Lyndhurst parish.

[c] The township of Denny Lodge was formed under an Order of the Poor Law Board, dated 16th March 1868, out of extra-parochial places in or adjoining the New Forest; and was added to the New Forest Union by a subsequent Order, dated 6th April 1868. Following the arrangements for medical relief, the township has been divided between the three Sub-districts for registration purposes, as follows:—that part of the township which is in the Lyndhurst Sub-district comprises Ramnor Cottage, New Enclosure Cottage, Lady Cross Lodge, Whitley Ridge Lodge, and Gardener's House in Whitley Ridge Walk; and Denny Lodge and Beaulieu Road, or Blackdown in Denny Lodge Walk;—the part of the township which is in the Fawley Sub-district includes Kingshat, Sandyhill, Ipersbridge, Roughdown, Gatebridge, Cowleaze, Otterwood, and Hilltop, mostly in Denny Lodge Walk;—the remainder of the township which is in the Eling Sub-district comprises Decoy Pond Farm, Calverley Cottage, and part of Ipley Farm. The houses and population as stated above for 1861 have been estimated for the several parts in the township according to the present boundaries. The Ordnance Survey Department state that Lady Cross Lodge (comprising 550 acres) is within the parish of Boldre, and that Whitley Ridge Lodge (comprising 326 acres) is within the parish of Brockenhurst, in the Lymington District (91: 1); they are however rated to Denny Lodge township, and included therein as stated above.

[d] The parish of Beaulieu includes the village of Bucklershard. The decrease of population is attributed to the demolition of several houses.

[e] The parish of Exbury includes the tything of Lepe.

[f] Calshot, formerly extra-parochial, has now been incorporated with the parish of Fawley, which also includes the places known as Badminstone, Butsash, Cadland, Hardley, Holbury, Langley, Stanswood, Stone, Hugh's Common, and part of Hythe.

[g] The parish of Eling comprises Bartley Regis, Bauldoxfee, Bistern and Bartley, Colebury, Durley, North Eling, South Eling, Langley, Lopperwood, Marchwood, Rumbridge, Tatchbury, Testwood, Wade, Ower, and Wigley. Part of Ipley Farm in Denny Lodge Walk, Beechwood and Lamb's Corner in Castle Malwood Walk, Ashurst Lodge and Grounds in Ashurst Walk, and parts of Irons Hill Walk are also in Eling parish.

96. SOUTHAMPTON. [h] Portswood tything, a part of the county of the town of Southampton, is in South Stoneham District (97: 2). The returns for the Southampton District include 117 persons in private schools, 348 in hotels, and 347 in lodging houses; 223 residents are returned as temporarily absent, and 386 strangers (including several French refugees) as temporarily present.

[i] The increase of population in the parish of St. Mary is attributed to extensive building operations during the past 10 years. 515 persons were enumerated on board vessels, as compared with 887 in 1861.

[j] Several new streets have been formed in All Saints parish, although there is but a trifling increase in the population.

[k] The population of the parishes of St. Lawrence, St. John, and Holy Rood, which contain the chief business centres of the town, has been diminished by the removal of several old courts and passages to make room for extensive new business premises, and also by the removal of merchants and tradesmen who now live outside the town but who formerly resided at their places of business.

97. SOUTH STONEHAM. [l] The increase of population in St. Mary Extra is attributed to the additional number of workmen and seafaring men living there, the Southampton Docks being in close proximity. Most of the medical men engaged at the Royal Victoria Hospital reside in this parish. The hospital is in the parish of Hound, and largely contributes to the increase in the return for that parish. In 1861 this hospital was building; the decrease of population in Hamble-le-Rice, in 1871, is attributed to the migration of the workmen upon its completion. H.M.S. "Hector," with 310 persons on board, was lying off Hound, and is included in the return for that parish. St. Mary Extra comprises Weston, Weston Common, New Town, Botany Bay, Thornhill, Itchen, Pear Tree Green, and parts of Bitterne and Woolston. The parish of Hound includes the other parts of Woolston and Bitterne, Netley, Netley Abbey, Netley Green, Butlocks, Sholing, Sholing Lane, and part of Lowford. By the conversion of Pear Tree Part Estate into building ground, and the erection of houses near the railway station, Woolston village now extends partly into St. Mary Extra and partly into Hound parish.

[m] Bursledon parish comprises the other part of Lowford, Dodwell, Hoemoor, and Hungerford Bottom, and also a detached part locally situate at South Stoneham (97: 2); the houses in this latter have been for some years in ruins.

[n] The parish of Botley includes the hamlet of Hedge End.

[o] No Man's Land (1 acre) hitherto reputed to be extra-parochial, is stated to have not yet been brought under the operation of the Poor Laws as required by the Act relating to extra-parochial places.

[p] The population of the parish of South Stoneham has largely increased, owing to its proximity to Southampton, and the extent of available building land.

[q] The tythings of Barton and Eastleigh were returned together in 1861, as also were the tythings of Bitterne and Pollock. The tything of Pollock includes West End and parts of Swathling and Burgess Street (see North Stoneham, 97: 3). The other parts of Burgess Street are in Portswood tything, and in North Stoneham.

[r] Portswood tything includes Highfield, St. Denys, Bevois, and part of Burgess Street (see note [q]).

[s] The parish of North Stoneham comprises North End, Middle Stoneham, and parts of Swathling, Burgess Street, and Bassett. Building operations upon a large estate forming what has become a suburb of Southampton, have further developed since the Census of 1861, although not at so great a rate as in the decade ending at that date.

[t] The parish of Millbrook includes Shirley and Freemantle. The return includes 127 persons in boarding schools.

[a] The increase of population in the Winchester Sub-district has chiefly occurred in the parishes of Weeke, St. Bartholomew Hyde, St. Michael, and St. Faith, and is attributed to extensive improvements in and additions to the collegiate buildings, and to the influx of new residents during the past few years. Schools contained 692 persons, including 399 in, or in connection with, St. Mary's and Winchester Colleges, and 47 in a training college. 110 persons were in lodging houses and 36 at the head quarters of the Hants constabulary.

[b] The county gaol, which in 1861 was returned in St. Faith parish, is now included in the parish of St. Thomas. Considerably fewer military were in barracks in 1871 than at the previous Census. The Female Asylum, formerly in the parish of St. Thomas, is now comprised in that of St. Bartholomew Hyde.

[c] Bishop Morley's College, Cathedral Yard, and the Close of Winchester have been merged in the parish of St. Maurice, which also includes St. John's Hospital North.

[d] Wolvesley has been added to the parish of St. Peter Colebrook, which also includes St. John's Hospital South, and the Industrial School.

[e] St. Mary's College and Winchester College now form part of the parish of St. Michael.

[f] The county hospital is now comprised within the parish of St. Faith. In 1861 it was included in St. Mary Kalender. St. Cross Mill parish and St. Cross Hospital precinct have been incorporated with St. Faith parish, in which also Battery House, a female convict prison, is situated. The parish of St. Faith also includes the tythings of Bishop's Sparkford and West Sparkford.

[g] Milland Ville now includes College Wharf and College Mill, formerly extra-parochial places.

[h] The parish of St. Peter Cheesehill comprises the Weirs.

[i] The parish of Chilcombe includes two places called No Man's Land, formerly extra-parochial, comprising respectively 9 acres and 19 acres.

[j] The parish of Morestead includes a place known as No Man's Land, formerly extra-parochial.

[k] Owslebury parish comprises Hursting Down and Baybridge.

[l] The increase of population in Bishop Stoke is owing to the large number of porters and labourers employed at, or in connection with, the South Western Railway Junction. Fair-oak, Horton Heath, Stoke Common, and Middle Street are in this parish.

[m] The increase at Twyford is chiefly due to the fact of the Easter vacation happening at the time the Census was taken in 1861, and not so in 1871. Boarding schools in the latter year contained 85 persons. A number of cottages have been built and occupied on Golden Common, which has been recently enclosed. Haseley, and parts of Brambridge and Shawford are in the parish of Twyford.

[n] Compton parish comprises the other part of Shawford and part of Silkstead. The other part of Silkstead is in Hursley parish (100 : 5).

[o] The parish of Otterbourne includes part of Brambridge. The construction of sawmills at Albrook, in this parish, has caused the erection of additional labourers' cottages, and the immigration of labourers.

[p] The parish of Hursley contains Pitt, Standon, Potkiln, Ampfield, and part of Silkstead, the remainder of which is in Compton parish (100 : 4). The decrease of population in Hursley is attributed to migration, owing chiefly to the demand for labour outside the parish.

[q] North Baddesley parish, with the exception of that part called Rownhams, is chiefly uncultivated, and contains much bog-land; since 1861, however, an additional portion has been brought under cultivation, thus employing more labourers, and causing the increase of population.

101. DROXFORD. [r] The increase of population in the parishes of Upham and Durley is attributed to the enclosure of Stroudwood Common and Durley Common, and the erection and occupation of houses thereon. The tything of Mincingfield is in Durley parish.

[s] The increase of population in Bishops Waltham is attributed to the enclosure of Bishops Waltham Chase, and its partial occupation by householders, the opening of the railway to Botley, and the establishment of large potteries and brickworks. The tythings of Bishops Waltham, Ashton, West Hoe, and St. Peter's Curdridge are in this parish.

[t] The parish of Warnford includes the hamlet of Riversdown.

[u] Droxford parish comprises the tythings of Swanmore, Hill, Shidfield, Droxford Street, and Shirril Heath. The increase of population is attributed to the enclosure of a large tract of land a few years ago. The increase of building had commenced prior to the Census of 1861, since which it has not been so vigorously carried on: the number of new residents however continues to increase.

[v] The parish of Soberton comprises King's Mead, Southend, and Wickham Lodge.

[w] The parish of Hambledon includes the tythings of Chidden and Glidden, Denmead and Bangreen, and Envils, and also Little Creech, formerly extra-parochial, comprising 236 acres, and belonging to the Crown. The Registrar states that in 1861 an outlying part of the parish of Hambledon may possibly have been included in the return for an adjoining parish, but that in 1871 the boundaries of the parish have been carefully adhered to. This may account for the apparent increase of population.

102. CATHERINGTON. [x] Additional labourers' cottages have been provided in Catherington parish, and the increase of population is stated to be owing to the employment of more persons at the brewery. The parish includes Horn Dean, Love Dean, and Cow Plain.

[y] Idsworth chapelry includes Rowlands Castle.

103. PETERSFIELD. [a] The parish of Buriton includes Weston, and the tything of Nursted.

[b] The remainder of the parish of Steep, viz., North and South Ambersham, is in Midhurst District (84). Stroud is included in the Hants portion of the parish.

[c] The increase of population in Liss parish is attributed to the opening of the Portsmouth Direct Railway.

[d] The parish of Bramshott comprises Woolmer Forest, Wheatsheaf Common, Liphook, Comford, Canner's Green, and Hammer Sale.

[e] East Meon parish includes the tythings of Riplington, Ramsdean, Oxenbourne, Bordean, and Langrish.

104. ALRESFORD. [f] West Tisted parish includes Tisted Common. The decrease of population is attributed to the dismantling of some cottages.

[g] Bramdean parish includes Bramdean Common.

[h] At Hinton Ampner a large barn has been converted into several tenements, and 8 or 9 new cottages have been built since 1861.

[i] The parish of Itchen Stoke includes the hamlet of Abbotstone.

[j] The parish of New Alresford comprises the Soke and the Dean. An orphan home has been established since the Census of 1861.

[k] A part of the parish of Northington, containing 5 labourers' cottages, with 29 inmates, is detached from the main part of the parish, and is situate between Chilton Candover and Brown Candover, but the parish is wholly included in the Alresford Subdistrict.

105. ALTON. [l] The opening of a new railway and station has caused the erection and occupation of several new houses in Medstead: several other houses have been converted into small tenements, occupied by two or three distinct families.

[m] The decrease of population in Bentworth is attributed to the temporary absence of some of the principal families, and to some having left the neighbourhood, and being succeeded by smaller households.

[n] Anstey tything is in the parish of Alton. The increase of population in this parish is attributed to the enlargement of the paper mills and breweries, and the establishment of an iron foundry since 1861.

[o] The parish of East Tisted includes the tythings of Rotherfield, Herds, and Holtham, which latter, however, contained no houses in 1871.

[p] Selbourne parish comprises the villages of Oakhanger and Blackmoor. The increase of population is attributed to the erection of a mansion, a parsonage, and several cottages, all of which are occupied.

[q] The parish of Headley includes Standford, Lindford, Hollywater, Barford, and Ayford. The increase of population is attributed to the erection of buildings upon waste land recently enclosed.

[r] The erection of additional farm labourers' cottages has occasioned an increase in the population of Hartley-Mauditt.

[a] Binsted parish includes Issington, Wheatley, Blacknest, and Wyck. The increase of population has resulted from the disposal of building sites by landowners.

106. HARTLEY WINTNEY. [b] The parish of Odiham includes North Warnborough and the Bury.

[c] The large increase in the population of Farnborough is attributed to improvements in the neighbourhood of the camp at Aldershot. The wives and families of the military in the North Camp, viz. 368 males, and 745 females, are included in the return for Farnborough.

[d] The parish of Yateley is composed of the tythings of Cove, Hawley, and Yateley, and includes, besides villages of those names, places known as Blackwater, Southwood, Minley, Cricket Hill, Yateley Common, and Frogmore.

[e] The increase of population in Hartley-Wintney and Eversley parishes is attributed to the opening of a large boarding school in each parish, and to the temporary employment of a number of extra workmen in the district.

107. BASINGSTOKE. [f] Hook Street is partly in Newnham parish and partly in Nately-Scures parish. Newnham parish also comprises Newnham Green.

[g] Upton-Gray includes Weston Lane and the tything of Hoddington. Some large families have come to reside here since 1861.

[h] Extended railway accommodation, and the establishment of implement manufactories have considerably increased the number of residents at Basingstoke.

[i] The parish of Stratfieldsaye includes Fair Oak, New Street, Beech Hill, and the Common.

[a] The decrease of population in Hartley-Westpall is attributed to migration of the labouring classes, and the reduction of some large households.

[b] Pamber Common, Pamber Green, Pamber End, and Little London are in the parish of Pamber.

[c] The parish of West Sherborne includes the tythings of Chineham and Woodgarston.

[d] The parish of Wootton St. Lawrence comprises Ramsdale, Upper and Lower Wootton, Newfound, and East Oakley.

[e] The parish of Herriard includes the tything of Southrope.

[f] The decrease of population in Preston Candover and Dummer is attributed chiefly to the reduction of large households and the migration of young adults.

[g] Popham parish includes Popham barracks.

108. WHITCHURCH. [h] Additional house accommodation has been provided by the railway company and other proprietors in the parish of Ashe.

[i] The increase of population in the parishes of Laverstoke and Freefolk Manor is owing to the larger number of persons employed at the Bank of England paper mills.

[k] The parish of Whitchurch includes Freefolk Priors and Cold Henley.

[l] Tufton Warren is in Tufton parish, the population of which and of the adjoining parish, Hurstbourne-Priors, has decreased owing to a large paper mill which employed a number of people in 1861, being closed in 1871.

[m] The parish of St. Mary Bourne comprises places called Stoke, Binley, Egbury, Bourne, and Week.

109. ANDOVER. [n] The decrease of population in the parish of Longparish, which includes Forton and Middleton, is attributed to the migration of young adults, chiefly to service or to the iron districts in the north.

[o] The parish of Barton-Stacey includes Bramsbury, Newton-Stacey, and Drayton.

[p] The population of Chilbolton parish has been reduced by the migration of young people, and the dismantling of some cottages.

[q] The increase of population in Goodworth-Clatford, Upper Clatford, and Abbotts Ann parishes is attributed to improved railway communication, to the opening of the Upper Clatford Paper Mill, and to the enlargement of the Waterloo ironworks. 8 cottages, destroyed by fire at Abbotts Ann, have not been rebuilt.

[r] The parish of Amport includes East Cholderton.

[s] Park House, containing 2 houses with 12 inhabitants in 1871 was formerly extra-parochial but has been incorporated with the parish of Shipton-Bellinger.

[t] Hampshire Cross is chiefly in the parish of South Tidworth (Hants), but part of it is in the adjoining parish of North Tidworth (Wilts). The destruction of some cottages by fire has to some extent reduced the population of the latter parish; while the increase observable in South Tidworth is attributed to the maintenance of larger establishments by the gentry than in 1861.

[u] The parish of Kimpton comprises the Shoddesdens.

[v] The parish of Fyfield includes Redenham hamlet.

[w] Appleshaw parish includes Appleshaw Bottom.

[x] Penton-Grafton, generally called Weyhill, includes Clanville. The increase of population is attributed principally to the establishment of some horsedealers' stables near Weyhill.

[y] Hatherden is partly in Foxcott and partly in Andover parish, which latter also includes places known as Charlton, King's Enham, Little London, Wildhern, and Woodhouse. The area of Foxcott parish is included in that of Knight's Enham.

[a] The Berkshire part of Shalbourn parish comprises Rivars, Bagshot, Oxenwood, and part of Shalbourn village; the Wiltshire portion contains Newtown and the other part of the village of Shalbourn. Oxenwood Tything was annexed to Wilts under 7 & 8 Vict. c. 61, in 1844, but was restored to Berks in 1859, by an Order of the Wilts October Sessions, the ground of the previous annexation (namely, that it was a detached part of Berks,) having been disproved: a correction of the number of houses and population published in 1861 has been made above.

[b] The parish of Combe (or Coomb) includes East Wick hamlet.

[c] In most of the parishes in the Hungerford Sub-district a decrease of population has taken place which is attributed to the migration of young people. In Hungerford tything the improved state of trade, &c. has had the effect of increasing the population.

[d] Tidcombe parish includes Fosbury.

[e] Great Bedwin parish comprises Crofton, Wilton, Wexcombe, Martin, and East and West Grafton.

[f] Chisbury is in Little Bedwin parish, and Oakhill is in the parish of Froxfield.

[g] That part of the parish of Chilton Foliatt which is in Wilts contains East and West Soley. The Berks portion comprises Leverton and Haywards Bottom or Calcot.

[h] Park Town is in Axford tything, and New Town is in the tything of Ramsbury Town.

[i] The general decrease of population in the Lambourn Sub-district is attributed to the reduced demand for labour consequent on the absorption of small holdings into larger farms.

113. FARINGDON. [j] The parish of Compton-Beauchamp includes Knighton hamlet.

[k] Beckett tything is rated with Shrivenham Proper, the other parts of Shrivenham parish, viz., Bourton, Watchfield, Longcot, and Fernham, are separately assessed to the poor rate.

[l] The other parts of Uffington parish, viz., Uffington and Balking, are in Buckland Sub-district (113: 3).

[m] The other and principal part of Great Faringdon parish is in the Faringdon Sub-district (113: 2).

[n] The decrease of population in the parish of Coleshill is attributed to the death of the owner of Coleshill House, and the consequent breaking-up of his large establishment.

[d] The greater part of the parish of Sparsholt is in the Wantage Sub-district (115 : 1). The hamlet of Fawler is part of the township or chapelry of Kingston-Lisle, with which it is also rated. The decrease of population in this neighbourhood is attributed to the emigration of young labourers.

[e] This part of the parish of Stanford in the Vale comprises Horsecroft and Bow. The other part of this parish, viz. Goosey chapelry, is in the Wantage Sub-district (115 : 1).

[f] Buckland parish comprises Carswell tything.

[i] The parish of Fyfield includes Netherton and Fyfield Wick. The decrease of population in Fyfield and Draycott Moor is attributed to the recruiting, migration, and emigration of young people. Draycott Moor was formerly a hamlet of the parish of Longworth, but it now appoints its own overseers, &c.

[j] The return for Appleton exhibits an increase of population, which is attributed to more land having been brought under cultivation.

[k] The other part of Longworth parish is in the Faringdon District (113).

[l] Sandford, a township or chapelry in the parish of St. Helen, is also called Dry Sandford, to distinguish it from Sandford upon Thames, or Wet Sandford (Oxon) five miles distant.

[e] Brightwaltham is by the Post Office authorities styled Brightwalton; it is also known as Brickleton.

[f] The parish of Hampstead-Norris comprises Upper and Lower Bothampstead, World's End, Hermitage, and Little Hungerford.

[g] The decrease of population in East or Market Ilsley is attributed to the reduction of some racing establishments, and the emigration of young people.

[h] The principal part of the parish of Wantage is in the Wantage Sub-district (115 : 1), where the area of the hamlet of Charlton is included.

[i] East Lockinge parish includes Betterton and West Ginge.

[j] The parish of West or Little Hendred includes East Ginge.

[k] The parish of Blewbury is partly in Wantage district (115 : 3), and partly in Wallingford district (116 : 1).

116. WALLINGFORD. [l] The increase of population in Cholsey parish, which includes Winterbrook, is attributed to the recent erection of the County Lunatic Asylum and several houses connected therewith.

[m] The parish of Brightwell comprises Mackney and Slade End.

[n] The other part of Dorchester parish, viz., Burcott hamlet, is in the Nuneham Courtney Sub-district of Abingdon (114 : 4).

[o] The increase of population in Clapcot liberty is chiefly attributed to the conversion of a farm house into 4 separate tenements.

118. READING. [a] The extension of manufactories and the facilities for communication by railway have led to a considerable increase of population in Reading. The hamlet of Whitley is becoming a favourite place of residence for persons engaged in business in the town. There is a large biscuit factory in St. Giles, but many of the persons employed there live in St. Mary. A training institution for servants has been established in the former parish. The returns for Reading included 462 persons in boarding schools, 108 in lodging houses, and 43 in almshouses.

119. WOKINGHAM. [b] The parish of Wokingham includes Tontley Roundabout. A detached part of the parish, situate near Arborfield Cross (and contiguous to the parishes of Arborfield and Barkham, and to the liberty of Newland, in the parish of Hurst), is included in this return. The increase of population is attributed to improved railway communication, to the erection and occupation of a number of houses near the railway station, and to the building of a new church.

[c] The remainder of Sonning parish, viz., Eye and Dunsden liberty, is in the Henley (Oxon) district (146), Div. III.

[d] The increase of population in the liberty of Earley is attributed to a number of houses constituting a new suburb of the town of Reading, and known as "New Town," having been built since 1861; most of its inhabitants are employed at the biscuit factory.

[e] Twyford village is partly in the liberty of Whistley in Hurst, and partly in Broad Hinton liberty.

[f] Swindlesham is in Winnersh liberty, the increase of population in which is attributed to additional cottage accommodation provided by the landed proprietor.

[g] A small portion of a farm called "Old Warren House" in the parish of Wokingham is in the county of Wilts, the remainder being in Broad Hinton liberty, in Wargrave Sub-district (119 : 2); the farm house is rated to Broad Hinton.

120. COOKHAM. [h] Part of the village of White Waltham extends into the parish of Shottesbrook.

[i] The parish of White Waltham comprises Littlewick and Paley Street.

[j] Bray comprises Cox Green, Tittle Row, Holyport, Sturt Green, Tuchen End, Fifield, Money Row Green, Oakley Green, and part of Bray Wick, the remainder being in the town of Maidenhead. The decrease of population is attributed partly to the removal of several large families; but the railway accommodation provided in the town of Maidenhead is believed to have attracted large numbers from the neighbouring parishes.

[k] That part of Maidenhead which is in the Bray Sub-district includes Boyn Hill, and part of Bray Wick (see note [j]).

[m] The parish of Cookham includes North Town Moor, Cookham Dean, and Pinkney's Green.

[n] This part of Maidenhead comprises North Town and the Ray; (see note [j] respecting increase of population).

121. EASTHAMPSTEAD. [a] The parish of Winkfield includes Woodside, Ascot, and Buckhurst Hill. Ascot Priory Hospital is a modern establishment.

[b] The number of inmates of the Royal Military College at Sandhurst has more than doubled since 1861; Wellington College and the Broadmoor Criminal Lunatic Asylum have been opened, and a considerable amount of house accommodation has been provided, in Sandhurst parish.

122. WINDSOR. [c] The increase of population in Sunninghill and Egham is attributed o the improved railway accommodation which has attracted large numbers of residents, providing employment for many additional labourers, workmen, servants, &c. The return for Sunninghill includes Broom Hall Farm. Broom Hall, Broom Hall Lodge, and part of the village or hamlet of Sunningdale, are detached parts of the parishes of Windlesham and Chobham in the Chobham (Surrey) Sub-district (30 : 3), and have been included with those parishes. The part of the parish of Egham which is in the Egham Sub-district (123 : 1) comprises Egham Wick. The return for the part of Egham which is in the Windsor Sub-district includes 13 persons connected with Beaumont Roman Catholic College.

[d] That part of Old Windsor parish which is in the Egham Sub-district includes part of the village of Sunningdale. The remainder of Old Windsor parish is in the Windsor Sub-district, and includes the Convalescent Hospital and the greater part of Beaumont College (see note [c]), to the erection of which, and of some large private houses, &c., the increase of population is attributed.

[e] New Windsor parish includes Frogmore House and guard, the Royal Mews, and the infantry barracks. The town of Windsor contained 274 persons in boarding schools, 145 in lodging houses, 53 in hotels, and 59 in almshouses. The parish of Clewer comprises part of the town of Windsor. The return for this parish also includes St. Andrew's Hospital, the cavalry barracks, and other large establishments. Additional railway accommodation, and the numerous attractions of the neighbourhood, have considerably added to the number of residents both in Windsor and Clewer.

[f] At the time of the Census of 1861 Her Majesty's Court was at Osborne; in 1871 the Court was at Windsor, hence the difference in the population of Windsor Castle. At former Censuses the Upper Ward (which now comprises George IVth.'s Gateway and St. George's Gateway) included the Castle proper and Middle Ward. Lower Ward now includes the Guardhouse, formerly returned separately. All these wards are within the Castle walls; but only the Lower Ward forms part of the municipal borough and the New Windsor Local Board District. The Superintendent Registrar states that the Upper Ward of Windsor Castle being in the immediate occupation of the Crown is not rateable, but that the Lower Ward is assessed to the poor rate of New Windsor parish. The Castle was formerly deemed extra-parochial.

PERSONS ON BOARD VESSELS.

TABLE 6.—Number of Persons on board Sea-going Vessels in Harbours, Rivers, and Creeks on the Night of 2nd April 1871, included among the General Population of Parishes, Places, &c.

Note.—Persons on board vessels belonging to the Merchant Service were enumerated by the officers of Her Majesty's Customs. The returns of officers, seamen, &c. on board the ships of the Royal Navy, were obtained through the Admiralty.
All the above-mentioned persons have been included among the general population of the Districts, Sub-districts, Parishes, Places, &c., contiguous to the waters in which the vessels were lying: and, although some doubt has occasionally arisen respecting the Parish, Place, &c., to which persons on board certain vessels should be assigned, and complete accuracy is therefore scarcely attainable, yet it is believed that the results as stated in this Table are sufficiently correct for all general purposes.

District and Sub-district.	Parish or Place.	Persons on board: British Vessels.	Persons on board: Foreign or Colonial Vessels.	Total Number of Persons.	Number of Vessels.

GENERAL NOTES.—The names of Cities and Boroughs, of Local Board Districts, of Towns, and of Parishes which contain Towns of the same name, are printed in capitals (thus, "STAINES"). A detailed statement of the population of the Cities, Boroughs, Local Board Districts, Improvement Commissioners' Districts, &c. will be found under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where the name of the Registration or Union County in which a parish or place is returned differs from that of the County Proper to which it belongs, the name of the latter is stated in italics.

The letter (W) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the parish or place, and has been included in the return. The letter (W) in italics denotes a Workhouse not belonging to the District in which it is situate. A statement of the number of persons in the principal Public Institutions in each District will be found in Table 5.

Where an ancient parish comprises two or more civil parishes, townships, &c., the area, houses, and population of the entire ancient parish are shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the ancient parish and to the civil parish or township bearing the same name. The civil parishes, townships, &c. comprised within every such ancient parish are shown under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where a parish or township is situate partly in two or more Counties or Sub-districts, the area, houses, and population of the entire parish or township are also shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the name of the parish or township at the foot of the page, and to the principal parts of such parish or township in the Table above.

Where the word Parish has been printed in italics, the place was formerly extra-parochial, but is now, under the Statute relating to such places, a parish for civil purposes.

The AREAS of parishes and places are reprinted from the Census Tables of 1861, after revision. The areas which have been supplied by Major-General Sir Henry James, R.E., Director of the Ordnance Survey Department, are printed in Script type (thus "Staines 1843"). Those printed in French type (thus "Shenley 4056") have been obtained from records in the custody of the Tithe Commissioners; and those printed in Arabic type (thus "Elstree 1370") were assigned to the parishes and places by the late Mr. Rickman, in the Enumeration Abstract for 1831. In these latter cases a more accurate computation of the area is not at present available.

The areas marked thus (w) either include water or foreshore, or relate to parishes and places to which a portion of the tidal water or foreshore of contiguous rivers or creeks has been allotted, though not included within the boundaries thereof by the Ordnance Survey Department. For details, see Table 7.

Persons who, on the night of the 2nd April 1871, were on board barges or boats employed in inland navigation, and those who were on board sea-going vessels in harbours, rivers, and creeks, are included among the general population. A detailed statement of the number of the latter class will be found in Table 6.

The population of the Ecclesiastical Districts or new Parishes which have been formed under the authority of several Acts of Parliament will be found stated under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

The statements contained in the following notes, respecting the increase or decrease in the population of parishes and places since 1861, are made on the authority of the Registrars of Births and Deaths of the Sub-districts in which such parishes, &c. are situate, and are to be received as indicating the principal circumstances by which the returns from those parishes may have been affected.

The number prefixed to several of the following notes is that of the District to which such notes relate. The number of the District or Sub-district in which the parish or place mentioned in a note is situate, is, wherever necessary, also inserted in such note.

123. STAINES. [a] The increase of population in the parish of Shepperton is attributed to the extension of railway communication and the establishment of large brickfields. The hamlet of Lower Halliford is in this parish.

[b] The increase of population in Sunbury parish is attributed to the opening of the Thames Valley Railway, and to the establishment of extensive works for the supply of water to a portion of the metropolis. The hamlets of Upper Halliford and Charlton are in this parish.

[c] The enlargement of the Middlesex Reformatory or Industrial School for Boys, and the extension of market gardens, are stated to have mainly caused the increase of population in Feltham parish.

[d] Stanwell parish includes West Bedfont, and part of the town of Colnbrook, the remainder of which is in the parishes of Iver and Langley Marish (140 : 1), and Horton (140 : 2).

[e] The parish of East Bedfont includes the hamlet of Hatton.

[f] Harmondsworth parish comprises Sipson, Longford, and Heath Row.

124. UXBRIDGE. [g] The parish of Cowley includes Cowley-Peachey.

[h] The parish of Hillingdon comprises Uxbridge township, and the places known as Field Heath, Colham Green, Goulds Green, Long Acter, Hockley-Hole, Yiewsley, Uxbridge Moor, Hillingdon Heath, Little Britain, Horton Bridge, and Starve All. The return includes a detached part of the parish of Hillingdon locally situate in Ickenham parish (Sub-district 124 : 2).

[i] The hamlet of Eastcote or Eastcott is in the parish of Ruislip.

[j] The decrease of population in Northolt parish, which comprises the hamlet of West End, is attributed to the migration of labourers consequent upon the discontinuance of brickmaking in the vicinity.

[k] The increase of population in the Precinct of Norwood is attributed to the enlargement of the St. Marylebone Workhouse Schools and the Hanwell Lunatic Asylum, and to the erection of cottages for the labourers employed in the brickfields. Southall Green, Southall, and part of North Hyde are within the precinct. The remainder of Hayes parish comprises Botwell and Yeading hamlets.

125. BRENTFORD. [a] Heston parish includes part of the town of Hounslow, and the places known as Cranford, Lampton, Sutton, Scartage, Spring Grove, and part of North Hyde, the remainder being in the Precinct of Norwood in the parish of Hayes. The increase of population is ascribed to the establishment of new, and the development of existing, public institutions since 1861.

[b] Part of the town of Hounslow, and the places known as Brentford End, Smallberry Green, Whitton Dean, and Wyke Green are in the parish of Isleworth. The cause assigned for the increase of population in this parish is its accessibility from London.

[c] The increase of population in Twickenham parish (which includes the village of Whitton) is chiefly attributed to its ample railway accommodation.

[d] Twyford Abbey was, in 1861, returned in the Willesden Sub-district of Hendon (126 : 3).

[e] New Brentford is a township in the ancient parish of Hanwell; but for all civil purposes it is a separate parish, appointing its own overseers and other parish officers. The other part of the parish of Hanwell is in the Acton Sub-district.

[f] The increase of population in both parts of Ealing parish, viz., Old Brentford chapelry and the part known as Ealing, is stated to have been caused by large portions of land having been built on since 1861. There were 382 persons in private schools at Ealing in 1871.

[g] In consequence of additional facilities for communication by railway with the metropolis, there has been a considerable increase of population in Chiswick parish.

[h] In Acton parish, which includes Steyne and East Acton, the increase of population is ascribed to facilities for communication by railway, and to the low price of building land.

[i] The Central London School (for the City of London Union and St. Saviour's Union, Southwark), with 1319 inmates, is situate in this part of Hanwell parish.

126. HENDON. [j] Alperton, Greenhill, Harrow Weald, Kenton, Roxeth, Sudbury, and Wembly are in the parish of Harrow on the Hill. There were 718 persons in the schools at Harrow in 1871, whereas in 1861 they were almost empty, the Census having in that year been taken during the Easter vacation. The increase of population is attributed to a large number of houses having been built and occupied in different parts of the parish, especially at Wembly, Harrow Weald, and Roxeth.

[k] There has been a considerable increase in the number of inmates in the Commercial Travellers' School at Pinner since 1861.

[l] The parish of Edgware includes Edgwarebury and part of the village of Elstree, the other parts of which are in Elstree parish (Sub-district 127 : 1) and in Aldenham parish (136 1). The decrease of population in the parishes of Little Stanmore and Edgware is attributed to migration and to the absence of direct railway communication.

[m] An exceptional cause of the increase of population in Willesden has been the demolition of a large part of Agar Town (St. Pancras), for the extension of the Midland railway, and the consequent removal of large numbers of householders to Willesden. Harlesden, and parts of Kilburn, and Kensal Green are in Willesden parish.

[n] Since the opening of the Midland Railway Extension there has been a large influx of residents at Hendon. The erection of the Roman Catholic College at Mill Hill and other extensive building operations have brought many additional workmen into this and adjoining parishes. Mill Hill, Child's Hill, Golder's Green, and Hyde are in the parish of Hendon.

127. BARNET. [o] The village of Elstree is partly in the parish of Elstree, partly in the parish of Edgware (Sub-district 126 : 2), and partly in the parish of Aldenham (136 : 1).

[p] The parish of Shenley comprises Broad Colney and London Colney.

[q] The hamlet of Colney Heath is in Ridge parish.

[r] The increase of population in South Mimms parish is attributed to a number of houses having been built at West Barnet, near Chipping Barnet. South Mimms parish also comprises Potter's Bar, Little Heath, Bentley Heath, and Hadley Highstone.

[s] The parish of Chipping Barnet or High Barnet comprises part of New Barnet or Lyonsdown, Underhill, and Barnet Common.

[t] The parish of East Barnet comprises part of New Barnet or Lyonsdown, which is near the railway station. The increase of population is attributed mainly to the operations of a freehold land society.

[u] The increase of population at Fryern Barnet is attributed to the enlargement of Colney Hatch Lunatic Asylum, the erection of many houses near the railway station, the facilities for building afforded by a freehold land society, and the progress of works for railway extensions. Fryern Barnet comprises Fryern Park, part of Colney Hatch, the remainder being in Edmonton parish (128 : 3), and part of Whetstone, the remainder of which is in Finchley parish.

[v] The parish of Finchley comprises East End, Church End, Red Lion Hill, and the principal part of Whetstone, the remainder being in Fryern Barnet parish. The increase of population in Finchley is attributed to the opening of a new line of railway. Boarding schools in this parish contained 460 persons; and there were 142 strangers, chiefly navvies with their families, temporarily resident.

[a] 128. EDMONTON. The purchase and allotment of three estates by a land society is stated to be the chief cause of the large increase of population in Hornsey. The parish comprises South Hornsey, Crouch End, Fortis Green, Muswell Hill, Stroud Green, North Hill, Harringay Park, Seven Sisters Road, Brownswood Park, and parts of Highgate and Stoke Newington.

[b] The increase of population in Tottenham parish is mainly attributed to improved railway communication. The parish comprises Tottenham Green, Lower Tottenham, The Hale, Page Green, West Green, Green Lanes, and part of Stamford Hill, the remainder of which is in Hackney parish, District 9, Div. I.

[c] The increase of population in Edmonton is ascribed to its accessibility from the metropolis. The parish includes parts of Southgate, Colney Hatch, and Chase Side, and also Upper and Lower Edmonton, Barrow Well Green, Bourne Hill, Highfield, Marsh Side, Palmer's Green, Snell's Park, Tanner's End, and Winchmore Hill. The Strand Union has two establishments at Edmonton, one for infants, containing 398 inmates, the other for the aged and infirm, containing 325 inmates.

[d] The increase of population in Enfield is stated to have chiefly arisen from an addition to the number of persons employed in the Royal Small Arms Factory at Enfield Lock, and in the jute factory at Ponder's End. The parish comprises the places known as Botany Bay, Brigadier Hill, Bull's Cross, Chase Green, Clay Hill, Cockfosters, Enfield Chase, Enfield Highway, Enfield Lock, Forty Hill, Freezywater, Green Street, Hadley, Lock Lane, Ponder's End, Windmill Hill, and part of Chase Side, the remainder of which is in Edmonton parish (128 : 3). The Edmonton Union has an establishment for children at Enfield, with 276 inmates.

[e] The increase of population in Cheshunt parish (which comprises Cheshunt Street, Waltham Cross, and Goff's Oak) is stated to have been principally caused by the erection of houses at Waltham Cross, which are occupied by workmen employed at Enfield.

129. WARE. [f] The increase of population in Great Amwell is mainly attributed to the large number of scholars at Haileybury College in 1871 compared with 1861. Parts of Amwell End and Hertford Heath are in this parish; the remainder of Hertford Heath is in Little Amwell Liberty in the parish of All Saints Hertford (Sub-district 133 : 2); the other parts of Amwell End are in Little Amwell Liberty, and in the parish of Ware (Sub-district 129 : 3).

[g] Ware comprises Wareside and part of Amwell End (see note [f]).

[i] Little Munden comprises Dane End, Green End, Potter's Green, and part of Haultwick.

[j] Great Munden includes part of Haultwick, and the hamlet of Nasty.

[k] Standon parish includes part of Wadesmill, High Cross, Bromley, Collier's End, Old Hall Green, Youngsbury, and part of Puckeridge, the remainder of which is in Braughing parish (130 : 4).

130. BISHOP STORTFORD. [a] The area of part of Ugley parish is returned with that of Stansted Mountfitchet.

[b] Farnham parish includes Hazel End.

[c] The parish of Bishop Stortford includes Hockerill. There are a grammar school, a training college, and other educational establishments in this parish. The increase of population is chiefly attributed to the temporary presence of a large number of workmen employed upon sewerage works.

[d] The parish of Braughing includes part of Puckeridge, the remainder of which is in Standon parish (129 : 4).

131. ROYSTON. [e] The Royston District comprises two Poor Law Unions, viz., Buntingford (Sub-district 1), and Royston (Sub-districts 2 and 3).

[f] The decrease of population in Anstey is stated to have been caused by the migration of families whose homes were destroyed by fire.

[g] The town of Buntingford comprises parts of the four parishes of Wyddial, Throcking, Layston, and Aspeden. A part of the village of Wyddial is in Layston parish.

[h] The parish of Buckland contains the village of Chipping.

[i] Several cottages at Ardeley were recently destroyed by fire, and the families who occupied them have migrated: hence principally arises the decrease of population compared with 1861. The parish comprises Wood End, Moor Green, and part of Hare Street, the remainder of which is in Cottered parish.

[j] The parish of Sandon contains Roe Green and part of Red Hill, the remainder of which is in Wallington parish.

[k] The parish of Barkway includes the hamlets of Newsells and Nuthampstead.

[l] The decrease of population in the parishes of Barley and Great Chishall is stated to have been caused by emigration, and the removal of labourers and others to the coprolite diggings at Guilden Morden, the returns for which parish exhibit an increase in population.

[m] The decrease of population in the parish of Royston is attributed to removals into the hamlet of Kneesworth, where the Royston railway station is situate.

[a] Coprolites are obtained in large quantities in the Melbourn Sub-district, and the demand for labourers has attracted many men from neighbouring parishes. To this cause is attributed the general increase of population in the district; but the increase in Bassingbourn parish is also partly attributed to a number of houses having been erected in the vicinity of the Royston railway station.

[b] The increase of population in Kneesworth is attributed to the erection of houses near the Royston railway station, which is situate in this hamlet.

[a] The increase of population in St. John, Hertford is partly attributed to the larger number of inmates in the new union workhouse in 1871 compared with 1861.

[b] The liberty of Little Amwell comprises parts of Hertford Heath and Amwell End; the other parts of Amwell End are in Ware and Great Amwell parishes (District 129) which latter parish also contains the other part of Hertford Heath.

[c] The decrease of population in Brickendon is ascribed to some removals from dilapidated cottages, and to a reduction in the number of persons employed at a mill.

134. HATFIELD. [d] The Hatfield District consists of two Poor Law Unions, viz., the Hatfield Union (Sub-district 1), and the Welwyn Union (Sub-district 2).

[e] North Mimms comprises Welham Green, Marshmore, and part of Roe Stock, the remainder of which is in the St. Albans Sub-district (135 : 2).

[f] Bishops Hatfield includes Lemsford and Hatfield New Town.

[g] Digswell contains part of Burnham Green, the remainder of which is in Tewin parish (133 : 2). Welwyn includes Woolmer Green.

[h] Ayott Green is in the parish of Ayott St. Peter.

135. ST. ALBANS. [i] Harpenden comprises part of Kingsbourne (or Kinsman) Green, the other part being in Luton parish (West Hyde hamlet) Beds (175 : 2). The increase of population is chiefly attributed to the extension of the Midland railway.

[j] By the opening of the Midland Railway, St. Albans now possesses stations connected with three of the great railways of the country, and houses are in great demand, especially in the hamlet of Tittenhanger, which contains two of the railway stations and the new gaol. The old gaol was situate in St. Albans parish, otherwise called Abbey parish.

[k] The hamlet of "Sleep and part of Smallford" comprises Colney Heath, Sleeps Hyde, and part of Roe Stock; the other part of Roe Stock is in Hatfield Sub-district (134 : 1).

[l] The parish of St. Michael includes Bernard's Heath, Childwick Green, Gorhambury, and part of Leverstock Green, the other parts of which are in Abbots Langley parish (136 : 4), and in Hemel Hempstead parish (137 : 2).

[m] The parish of St. Stephen includes, besides the village of that name, Bricket Wood Common, Colney Street, Frogmore, Park Street, Smug Oak, and that part of Smallford not included in the hamlet of "Sleep and part of Smallford," and also part of Little Munden, the other part being in Leavesden hamlet (136 : 2). The parish of St. Stephen is divided into Park, Smallford, and Windridge Wards.

136. WATFORD. [n] The parish of Aldenham comprises Letchmore Heath, Radlett, Theobald Street, and part of the village of Elstree, the other parts of which are in Edgware parish (Sub-district 126 : 2) and in Elstree parish (127 : 1). The Midland Railway has stations at Radlett and Elstree in this parish, and the ample railway accommodation here, as well as at the adjacent stations at Bushey and Watford, is stated to be the cause of the large addition to the population of the parishes in this Sub-district. The parish of Bushey includes Bushey Heath, Chalk Hill, Clay Hill, Merry Hill, and Sparrow's Herne.

[o] The increase of population in the hamlets of Cashio and Leavesden is chiefly attributed to the opening of the Leavesden Asylum and the St. Pancras Industrial Schools, and to large sales of building land.

[p] The parish of Rickmansworth includes Mill End, West Hyde, Croxley Green, Batchworth, and Chorley Wood.

[q] A large paper factory at Sarratt which, in 1861, employed many persons, was closed at the time of the Census in 1871, causing a decrease in the population.

[r] Part of Leverstock Green is in the parish of Abbots Langley, as also are Bedmont, Trolley Bottom, and Langley Bury. The remainder of Leverstock Green is in St. Michael's parish (135 : 2), and Hemel Hempstead parish (137 : 2).

137. HEMEL HEMPSTEAD. [a] Kings Langley parish includes Chipperfield.

[b] The increase of population in the parish of Hemel Hempstead has chiefly occurred at Boxmoor, and is attributed to its proximity to the railway and the canal. [a] The other part of Waddesdon parish, viz., the hamlet of Woodham (the area of which is here included) is in the Haddenham Sub-district (142: 1).

143. WINSLOW. [b] The migration of young people of the labouring class is stated to have been the chief cause of the general decrease in the population of this District.

[c] East Claydon parish includes Botolph Claydon, otherwise Claydon St. Botolph.

[d] Winslow cum Shipton is the proper designation of this parish, but it is generally known as Winslow.

[e] Mursley parish comprises Salden, and Little Horwood parish includes Wood End.

[f] The other part of Shenley parish, viz., Shenley Church End, is in the Fenny Stratford Sub-district of Newport Pagnell (144: 1).

144. NEWPORT PAGNELL. [g] The other part of Shenley parish is in the Winslow District (143).

[h] The decrease of population in Great, Little, and Bow Brickhill, and Woughton on the Green, is attributed to the migration of mechanics and artizans on the removal of a portion of the railway workshops from Wolverton to Crewe.

[i] Part of Woburn Sands, including the railway station and a suburb around it, is in Wavendon parish. The other part of Woburn Sands is in Aspley-Guise parish, Bedfordshire (173: 1).

[j] The increase of population in Bradwell parish is attributed to the erection of a number of houses by the railway company, and to the sale of land for building purposes by a freehold land society.

[a] The decrease of population in Great Linford is ascribed to the removal of railway artizans and mechanics to the new workshops at Crewe.

[b] The increase of population in Newton-Blossomville and Olney is almost exclusively attributed to the temporary presence of a number of navvies, &c., engaged in constructing a railway from Northampton to Bedford.

[c] The area of Olney Park Farm, formerly extra-parochial, is included in that of Olney parish.

[d] Emberton parish includes Petsoe End.

[e] The area of Petsoe Manor, formerly extra-parochial, is included in the area of Emberton parish.

[f] An uninhabited place called Gorefields, containing about 65 acres, and formerly extra-parochial, was annexed to Stoke-Goldington parish in 1865 by an Order of Quarter Sessions.

145. BUCKINGHAM. [g] Maids Moreton parish comprises Wellmore and part of Chackmore, the remainder of which is in Radclive parish.

[h] Stowe parish includes Dadford.

[i] Oldwick, formerly extra-parochial, has been incorporated with the parish of Shalstone. In 1871 it contained 1 house, with 3 persons, viz. 1 male and 2 females.

[j] Radclive parish includes part of Chackmore, the remainder being in Maids Moreton parish.

[k] Luffield Abbey, formerly extra-parochial, is now a separate parish with its own overseer; two lodges have been pulled down in that part of the parish which is in Buckinghamshire, and rebuilt a short distance from their old site in Silverstone parish (Northamptonshire), in the Abthorpe Sub-district (15c: 1). The Northamptonshire part of Luffield Abbey is without houses or population.

[1] The population of Buckingham is stated to have decreased in consequence of migration to manufacturing districts, and emigration.

[a] The parish of Wood Eaton includes Forest Farm, formerly extra-parochial.

[b] Headington parish comprises Headington Quarry, Barton, and a place known as Bartlemas, formerly extra-parochial.

[c] The increase of population in Cowley, which comprises Church Cowley, Temple Cowley, and Rose Hill is attributed to a large quantity of land having been sold for building purposes.

[d] The remainder of Littlemore liberty is in that part of the parish of St. Mary the Virgin which is in the Abingdon District (114), Division II.; the entire area is here returned.

[e] The colleges and halls of the University of Oxford are here separately returned, as in the abstracts of former Censuses, under the names of the parishes in which they are wholly or for the most part locally situate. The colleges and halls within the Oxford Poor Law Incorporation are rated under a special Act of Parliament, and not in the several parishes in which they are located; the rate being paid in by the University. Those in the Headington District are rated in their corporate character as integral parts of the parishes in which they are situate. The areas of the parishes of St. John (with Merton College, Corpus Christi College, and St. Alban Hall), and St. Giles (with Keble College and Charsley's Hall) in the Headington District, are included in the area of the Oxford District. The Census of 1871 having been taken in the interval between terms the great body of professors, fellows, and students were not in residence. The total number of residents in the colleges and halls at the date of the Census was 394 persons, viz., 264 males and 130 females. The Vice-Chancellor has obtained from the heads of colleges a special return of all members resident on Thursday 4th May 1871. There were 2260 so returned, viz., in Merton College, 84; Corpus Christi, 61; St. Alban Hall, 47; Keble College, 53; Charsley's Hall, 9; Magdalen College, 93; St. Edmund Hall, 35; Queen's, 142; University, 106; New College, 87; Magdalen Hall, 60; Wadham, 83; All Souls, 10; St. Mary Hall, 56; Oriel, 68; Brasenose, 137; Lincoln, 67; Christ Church, 266; Pembroke, 83; Worcester, 98; New Inn Hall, 11; Jesus College, 59; Exeter, 172; Trinity, 89; Balliol, 133; St. John's College, 88; besides 83 unattached students. Of the non-collegiate population of Oxford (including Cowley), 439 persons were in boarding schools, 65 in hotels, 245 in lodging houses, and 50 in a convent.

[f] St. Clement is situate between the old city of Oxford and the parish of Cowley. In 1851 St. Clement contained only 2139 persons and Cowley only 775 persons.

[g] The increase of population in the parish of St. Giles has chiefly taken place since the sale of building land belonging to St. John's College. Many villa residences and other houses have been built, and the suburbs of the city of Oxford still continue to extend in this direction. The Oxford Workhouse which was situate in St. Giles parish in 1861 has since been pulled down, and a new workhouse has been erected in St. Clement parish.

149. OXFORD. [h] The other part of St. Mary the Virgin parish, viz., part of Littlemore liberty, is in the Abingdon District (114 : 4), Division II.

[i] The increase of population in the parish of St. Thomas is attributed to building operations at New Oxeny, and in a new district called St. Barnabas.

153. CHIPPING NORTON. The area of Shipton under Wychwood includes a large tract of Wychwood Forest. Ramsden township in this parish is in Witney Sub-district (152: 3). Brice's Lodge (formerly returned as extra-parochial in the Witney Sub-district 152: 3) is stated to have been since added to Leafield township (153: 1). [a] Part of the parish of Cropredy, viz., Wardington Chapelry, is in the Banbury Sub-district (154: 4), and comprises Coton, Upper and Lower Wardington, and part of Williamscott, the remainder being in that part of the parish which is in Sub-district 154: 3.

[b] Warmington parish includes Arlescote.

[c] Middleton-Cheney parish consists of Upper and Lower Middleton-Cheney, and part of Overthorpe, the remainder of which (one cottage) is in Warkworth parish.

[d] At Nethercot several cottages have been destroyed by fire, and have not been rebuilt.

[e] The increase of population in the hamlet of Grimsbury, which comprises Old and New Grimsbury, and Huscott, is attributed to the immigration of foundry men and other workmen employed in Banbury and the neighbourhood.

[f] The returns for Banbury parish include 126 persons in boarding schools and 76 in lodging houses. Neithrop township has considerably increased in population since 18[illegible] and, although not within the boundaries of the Municipal Borough of Banbury, virtually forms part of the town of Banbury. The townships of Banbury and Neithrop and the hamlets of Nethercote and Grimsbury constitute the Banbury Local Board District. (See County of Oxford, Table 9, vol. I.)

155. BRACKLEY. [g] The villages of Astrop and Charlton are partly in King's Sutton and partly in Newbottle parishes.

[a] The parish of Marston St. Lawrence includes Westrop, which forms part of the village of Greatworth, and also 9 houses adjoining Middleton-Cheney.

[b] The increase of population in the parishes of Greatworth, Stuchbury, and Helmdon, is attributed to the temporary presence of labourers at the railway extension works in progress. Part of the village of Greatworth, known as Westrop, is in the parish of Marston St. Lawrence.

[c] The larger part of Wappenham parish is in the Abthorpe Sub-district of Towcester (156: 1), where the area of the hamlets of Astwell and Falcott is included.

156. TOWCESTER. [d] Part of the parish of Wappenham (viz., Astwell and Falcott hamlets) is in the Sulgrave Sub-district of Brackley (155: 2); the return for this part of the parish includes 85 railway labourers temporarily present.

[e] The parish of Weedon-Loys includes Weston and Milthorpe.

[f] The hamlet of Foxley is comprised in Blakesley and Litchborough parishes (Sub-district 156: 1), and in Pattishall parish (156: 2). The decrease in the population of Litchborough is attributed to the migration of labourers to the ironstone quarries in different parts of the County.

[g] The other part of Canons Ashby parish is in Daventry Sub-district (160: 2).

[h] The parish of Cold Higham comprises Grimscote, and part of Forster's Booth, the remainder being in the parish of Pattishall.

[i] Pattishall parish includes Astcote, Eastcote, part of Forster's Booth, and part of Foxley (see notes [f] and [h]).

[j] Greens-Norton parish includes Duncote.

[k] Towcester parish comprises Caldecote, Wood Burcote, and Handley.

[l] The parish of Easton-Neston includes Hulcote.

157. POTTERSPURY. [m] Paulerspury parish comprises Pury End and Heathencote.

[n] Potterspury comprises part of Old Stratford, the other parts of which are in Passenham, Cosgrove, and Furtho parishes.

[o] Passenham parish comprises Deanshanger, part of Old Stratford and part of Puxley, the remainder of which latter is in Cosgrove parish.

[p] The decrease of population in Cosgrove (which includes parts of Old Stratford, and Puxley) is attributed to the removal of railway mechanics to Crewe.

[q] Hartwell Lodge and Salcey Lodge, described as extra-parochial in 1861, are stated to have not yet been brought under the operation of the Poor Laws as required by the Act relating to extra-parochial places. The area of these places is returned with that of Grafton Regis parish.

[a] The increase of population in Wolverton is chiefly attributed to the influx of workmen to the railway carriage works recently removed from Saltley near Birmingham.

[b] Calverton parish includes Upper, Lower, and Middle Weald.

[c] The West side of Stony Stratford parish formerly constituted the parish of St. Giles, and the East side the parish of St. Mary Magdalen; these parishes are separately assessed to the poor rate as "Stony Stratford, East" and "Stony Stratford, West," but are united for ecclesiastical purposes. The decrease of population in Stony Stratford, West side, is attributed to the removal of many mechanics and their families to the new railway works at Crewe. The increase of population in Stony Stratford, East side, is attributed to the establishment, since 1861, of a grammar school containing 92 inmates.

158. HARDINGSTONE. [d] The increase of population in Brafield on the Green is ascribed to the large demand for labourers at the ironstone mines at Cogenhoe (or Cooknoe) and at the various works in connection with a new line of railway.

[e] Hardingstone parish includes two suburbs of the town of Northampton, viz., Cotton End, and Far Cotton, in which latter most of the increase of houses and inhabitants in this parish has taken place. This increase is in a great measure attributed to the operations of a freehold building society.

[f] Milton is the name by which this parish is generally known, but "Middleto Malzor otherwise Milton" is the designation usually inserted in legal documents.

159. NORTHAMPTON. [g] The increase of population in the town of Northampton attributed to the growing importance of the shoemaking trade. Most of the land ava able for building purposes is situate in St. Giles, St. Sepulchre, and Priory of St. Andre and many houses have been built in those parishes. The returns include 325 persons schools and 76 in lodging houses; 113 of the usual residents were absent from hon and 245 strangers were temporarily staying in the town. The general infirmary a the county lunatic asylum are, for ecclesiastical purposes, comprised in the parish St. Giles, but, for civil purposes, they are part of the parish of Priory of St. Andrew. Town-part.

[h] The increase of population in the parishes in the All Saints Sub-district is attribut to the shoe-trade, which attracts large numbers of persons to Northampton.

[i] Dallington includes part of St. James's End. There is a boarding school with inmates in this parish.

[j] Duston includes a part of St. James's End.

160. DAVENTRY. [a] The parish of Stowe, Nine Churches includes Upper Stowe and Church Stowe.
[b] The parish of Weedon Beck contains Upper Weedon, Lower Weedon, Road Weedon, Weedon on the Street, and Weedon Outwards. The decrease of population is attributed to the transfer of the inmates of a large military prison to Millbank, and to a reduction at the Government stores, where a number of gunsmiths were formerly employed.
[c] Everdon parish comprises Great and Little Everdon and Snorscomb.
[d] The parish of Preston Capes includes Little Preston.
[e] The other part of Canon's Ashby parish, viz., Adstone hamlet, is in the Abthorpe Sub-district of Towcester (156: 1).
[f] The parish of Woodford includes Hinton and Farndon.
[g] The parish of Catesby Abbey (otherwise Catesby or Upper Catesby) includes the hamlet of Newbold Grounds.
[h] Daventry parish includes the hamlet of Drayton.
[i] The parish of Braunston includes Little Braunston. A large proportion of the inhabitants are canal boatmen, many of whom, living almost entirely in their boats, are frequently absent from the parish. In 1861 there were 124 persons enumerated in boats in this parish, whereas in 1871 the number of such persons was only 47. The decrease of population is also partly attributed to the demolition of cottages.
[j] Norton parish includes Thrupp and Muscott.
[k] Long Buckby parish includes part of Murcutt, the remainder being in the parish of Watford.

161. BRIXWORTH. [l] The decrease of population throughout the Spratton Sub-district is attributed to the removal of workmen and their families to towns and other places where higher wages can be obtained.

[a] The area of Mawsley is returned with Faxton parish.

162. WELLINGBOROUGH. [b] The increase of population in Earls Barton is mainly attributed to the prosperous state of the shoe trade, which attracts to this parish many persons from places in the neigbourhood.

[c] The parish of Poddington contains Hinwick hamlet.

[d] The increase of population in the parishes of Irchester, Rushden, and Irthlingborough is attributed to the development of the ironstone works and the shoe trade.

[e] Two cottages in Newton Bromshold village are in the parish of Yelden in the county of Bedford (170: 1).

[f] The iron-furnaces established at Harrowden within a mile of Finedon, the extensive ironstone mining and smelting works at Wellingborough, the extension of the shoe trade, and the general improvement in the trade of Wellingborough are stated to be the causes of the increase of population in these parishes.

163. KETTERING. [g] The development of the shoe, stay, and clothing manufactures is stated to be the cause of the increase of population in the parish of Kettering.

[h] The hamlet of Pipewell is partly in Rushton, Great Oakley, and Wilbarston parishes in the Rothwell Sub-district. In the abstracts of former Censuses the portion of the hamlet in Great Oakley was included in the returns for Rushton parish; the area of such portion is still so returned.

[a] The area of Barford parish is included in that of Glendon.

[b] The hamlet of Pipewell is partly in Wilbarston, Great Oakley, and Rushton parishes in the Rothwell Sub-district. In the abstracts of former Censuses the portion of the hamlet in Great Oakley was included in the returns for Rushton parish; the area of such portion is still so returned. The area of the part of Pipewell hamlet in Wilbarston parish is returned with that of the remainder of the parish in the Market Harborough District 402: 1, Div. VII.

[c] Part of Great Oakley parish, consisting of part of the hamlet of Pipewell, is in the Rothwell Sub-district (163: 2).

[d] The decrease of population in the Corby Sub-district is attributed to migration to towns and manufacturing districts.

[e] Beanfield Lawns, formerly returned as part of the parish of Corby, was constituted a separate parish for poor-law purposes in 1863 by an order of the Poor Law Board.

164. THRAPSTON. [f] The increase of population in the parish of Woodford and other neighbouring parishes is attributed to the extension of the shoe trade and the iron-ore works.

[a] In the parishes of Standground, Fletton, and Woodstone the increase of population is attributed to the erection of houses and cottages chiefly for the accommodation of railway and other workpeople employed in Peterborough. Fletton parish includes the hamlet of New Fletton.

[b] The large increase of population in this part of St. John the Baptist parish is attributed to the great facilities afforded at Peterborough for railway communication; in 1851 the population comprised 7165 persons. The hamlet of New England is included with this portion of the parish: the hamlet is inhabited chiefly by railway servants, and contained 1381 persons in 1871.

[c] In Dogsthorpe hamlet, which is close to the Great Northern Railway Company's Works, additional houses have been built, and the population is increasing.

[d] The ancient parish of Paston is at present undivided for ecclesiastical purposes, but the Rector states that on his death there will be a division of the benefice: Paston with Gunthorpe and Dogsthorpe (now a hamlet of Peterborough) will form one benefice, and Werrington with Walton another.

[e] Etton parish includes Woodcroft.

[f] Crowland parish comprises Crowland Common.

[g] The parish of Thorney includes English Drove, French Drove, Thorney Dyke, and Knarr Fen.

167. HUNTINGDON. [h] Ramsey parish includes Forty-foot Bridge, Ramsey Hollow, Hern Drove, Ugg Mere, and Middlemoor, and also the principal part of Daintree (or Dauntry) Farm, part of which (one cottage) is in Holme Chapelry, in the Peterborough District (166).

[a] The increase of population in Huntingdon is ascribed to an improvement in trade, especially in coach building.
[c] The parish of Abbot's Ripton includes Wennington hamlet.

168. ST. IVES. [d] Part of the village of Colne (on which there are 4 cottages) is within the township of Earith.
[e] Two destructive fires, emigration, and the removal of families to manufacturing districts are the causes assigned for the decrease of population in Bluntisham.

169. ST. NEOTS. [f] The decrease of population in the parish of Great Paxton is attributed to the dispersion of brickmakers upon the exhaustion of extensive clay-pits in the parish.
[g] Buckden parish includes the hamlet of Hardwick.
[h] Graffham parish comprises part of Perry, the remainder being in the Southern division of Great Staughton parish (Sub-district 169: 2).

[a] Diddington parish contains part of Boughton, the other part being in the parish of Southoe.

[b] The decrease of population in St. Neots is attributed partly to migration to manufacturing districts, partly to the provision of cheaper cottage accommodation in the adjoining village of Eynesbury, and partly to the discontinuance of a boarding school which in 1861 had 70 inmates.

[c] Great Staughton North Side, comprises Agden Green, Dillington, and part of Perry, the remainder of which is in Graffham parish (Sub-district 169 : 1).

[d] Kimbolton parish includes Newtown and Stoneley.

[e] Eaton Socon parish comprises Eaton Ford, Duloe, Little End, Wyboston, Staploe, and Honeydon.

170. BEDFORD. [f] The parish of Keysoe includes Brook End and Keysoe Row.

[g] Yelden parish includes 2 cottages in Newton-Bromshold village.

[h] Colworth Farm, returned as extra-parochial in 1861 and as part of Sharnbrook parish in former Census Abstracts, has become a separate parish under the Act relating to extra-parochial places. The area is included in that of Sharnbrook.

[i] The return for the parish of Turvey includes part of the hamlet of Pict's Hill: the Bedfordshire Reformatory is situate in this parish. Ninety-five strangers were employed in the construction of a railway at the time of the Census of 1871.

[j] The parish of Stevington, or Steventon, comprises West End and part of Pict's Hill. The increase of population is attributed to the temporary presence of labourers employed in the construction of the Bedford and Northampton Railway.

[a] The parish of Wootton includes Keely-Wootton.

[b] The increase of population in Kempston is chiefly attributed to the opening of a middle-class school, containing 344 inmates, and the erection of several dwellings for mechanics and labourers. Part of Bridge End is in Kempston parish and part in Bromham parish.

[c] The increase of population in Bedford is attributed to its excellent educational charities, to its direct communication with all the great railways, to the extension of a large agricultural implement foundry, and to the general improvement of trade. The parishes of St. Peter, St. Paul, St. Mary, and St. John are partly in the Bedford and Kempston Sub-district (170: 5) and partly in the Bedford and Cardington Sub-district (170: 6). The area of the entire borough of Bedford is returned in Sub-district (170: 5).

[d] The parish of Wilshamstead includes Wilshamstead Cotton End.

[e] Eastcotts township comprises Harrowden, Cardington Cotton End, and Fenlake.

[f] Wilden parish includes East End.

[g] Colmworth parish includes Channel's End.

[h] The decrease of population in the parish of Roxton, which comprises Colesden and Chawson, is mainly attributed to the destruction of cottages by fire.

171. BIGGLESWADE. [i] The parish of Tempsford includes Langford End.

[j] This part of the parish of Blunham comprises Chalton.

[a] Toddington parish comprises Chalton.

[b] The parish of Chalgrave includes Tebworth, Wingfield, and part of the village of Hockliffe, the other parts of which are in Tilsworth and Hockliffe parishes.

174. LEIGHTON BUZZARD. [c] The hamlet of Eggington includes Clipston: the decrease of population is attributed to the demolition of old cottages.

[d] Grove Bury Farm, which adjoins the parish of Grove, is within the township of Leighton Buzzard.

[e] Billington hamlet consists of Great and Little Billington.

[f] The parish of Linslade includes Surcott or Southcourt. The increase of the houses and population is attributed to the Leighton Buzzard railway station being situate in this parish.

[g] Soulbury parish contains Great and Little Hollingdon.

[h] Wing parish includes Littleworth, Burcott, Grafton, and Ascott.

[i] The parish of Mentmore contains Ledburn hamlet.

[j] Upon the inclosure of Cheddington parish a new boundary was set up and an exchange of certain lands was effected between it and the parish of Ivinghoe, for the purpose of more clearly defining the boundary between the two parishes; the total area of each parish was not altered by this exchange, the extent of such exchanged lands being nearly equal.

[k] The parish of Ivinghoe comprises Ivinghoe-Aston and parts of Ringshall and Horton.

[l] The parish of Edlesborough contains Northall, Dagnall, and parts of Ringshall and Horton.

[m] The increase of population in the parish of Eaton-Bray is attributed to the erection of additional houses, and their occupation by families removed from other parishes.

175. LUTON. [n] The parish of Houghton Regis comprises Upper Houghton Regis, which adjoins the town of Dunstable: the increase of population is chiefly attributed to an improvement in the straw bonnet trade, and to the demand for houses for the accommodation of straw workers and others employed in Dunstable.

[o] Humbershoe hamlet forms part of the town of Markyate Street, which also comprises a part of the parish of Caddington in Herts, and part of Flamstead parish in the Flamstead Sub-district of Hemel Hempstead (137: 3).

[p] The part of the parish of Caddington which is in Herts includes Aley Green, parts of Caddington village and Woodside, and also part of the town of Markyate Street.

[q] The part of Caddington in Beds contains Chaul End, Slip End, part of Woodside, and part of Caddington village. The increase of population is chiefly attributed to the sale of land in small allotments at Slip End for building purposes. In 1861 Slip End contained only one or two cottages.

[r] East Hyde hamlet includes Chiltern Green.

[s] The increase of population in West Hyde is attributed to the erection of several houses at "Brown Brick," which adjoins the township of Luton, and contains 937 of the total population of the hamlet. Part of Kingsbourne Green is in West Hyde hamlet, the remainder being in Harpenden parish in the Harpenden Sub-district of St. Albans (135: 1).

[t] Stopsley hamlet includes Round Green. The increase of the population is stated to have been caused principally by the opening of two large brickyards, and the extension of the straw bonnet trade.

[u] The increase of population in the township of Luton is attributed to the extension of the straw plait and bonnet trade, of which this township is the centre, and to improved railway communication.

[v] The increase of population in the hamlet of Limbury cum Biscott is attributed to the erection of a new church at Biscott and the building of a number of houses.

[c] The parish of Toft includes Little Toft.

177. CHESTERTON. [d] The parish of Waterbeach includes Joist Fen.

[e] The increase of population in Chesterton is ascribed to its contiguity to Cambridge.

[a] The Coprolite works, which are in full operation, are stated to have occasioned the increase of population in the parishes of Harston, Haslingfield, Barton, and Trumpington.

178. CAMBRIDGE. [b] The Colleges and Halls of the University of Cambridge, several of which are partly in two or three parishes, are here separately specified, as in former Census Returns, under the parishes in which they are wholly or for the most part situate. To these parishes they are rated under "the Cambridge Award Act, 1856," upon a valuation provided for by that Act. It is thereby also provided that no rate whatever shall be assessed or imposed upon or in respect of the Senate House, the University Library, the Schools and Museums of Science, Laboratories, and Lecture Rooms. The Census having been taken in the interval between terms, the great body of professors, fellows, and students were not in residence. The total number of residents in the Colleges and Halls at the date of the Census was 383 persons, viz., 263 males, 120 females. The Vice-Chancellor has obtained from the Heads of Colleges a special return of all members resident on Thursday 4th May 1871. There were 1953 so returned, viz., in Downing College 28, Peterhouse or St. Peter's College 48, Pembroke College 59, Queen's College 46, St. Catherine's College 46, Corpus Christi College 136, King's College 36, Clare College 74, Trinity Hall 108, Gonville and Caius College 135, Emmanuel 84, Christ's 87, Sidney-Sussex 65, Jesus 104, Trinity 471, St. John's 350, Magdalen 50, besides 8 members of the Senate not on the boards of any College, and 18 non-collegiate students. Of the non-collegiate population of the whole town 142 persons were in boarding schools, 65 in hotels, and 222 in common lodging-houses.

[c] The increase of houses and population in the parish of St. Andrew the Less is attributed to the improvement in railway communication, and to the enlargement of several of the Colleges.

[d] Trinity College, formerly returned as wholly in the parish of All Saints (178: 3), is partly in that parish and partly in the parish of St. Michael (178: 2).

[e] The decrease of population in Holy Sepulchre parish is stated to have been caused by the extension of the grounds of St. John's College and the erection of a new chapel upon a site previously thickly populated. St. John's College, formerly returned as wholly within All Saints parish (178: 3), is partly in that parish and partly in the parish of St. Peter (178: 4).

179. LINTON. [a] The increase of population in the parish of Sawston is attributed to the development of manufactories of paper and parchment, which afford employment for many persons.

[b] Duxford consists of the ancient parishes of St. John and St. Peter, which are distinct benefices; but the boundaries of each are not accurately known: for civil purposes they form one parish.

[c] Castle-Camps parish includes Camps Green.

[d] Shudy-Camps parish includes 2 cottages on Horseheath Green, the remainder being in the parish of Horseheath.

[e] Part of Ashdon parish is in the Radwinter Sub-district of Saffron Walden (201: 3), Division IV.

[f] West Wickham parish comprises Streetley End.

[g] Weston Colville parish comprises Weston Green.

[h] Carlton cum Willingham parish includes Willingham Green.

180. NEWMARKET. [i] The parish of Westley, or Westley-Waterless, includes Westley Bottom. Burrough Green is now generally known as Borough Green. Dullingham parish includes Dullingham Ley.

[j] The increase of population in the parish of Wood Ditton, which includes part of the town of Newmarket, and places known as Ditton Green, Little Ditton, and Saxon Street, is chiefly attributed to the extension of racing establishments, which in 1871 contained 73 persons.

[k] Kirtling parish includes Upend.

[l] Besides an addition to the ordinary residents, and to the number of grooms, jockeys and others connected with the racing and training establishments in and around Newmarket, a large number of French trainers and their staff were, owing to the Franco-German War, present in Newmarket at the time of the Census. The racing establishments in the parishes of Newmarket All Saints, Newmarket St. Mary, and the adjoining parishes of Wood Ditton and Exning contained 430 inmates, exclusive of large numbers who are similarly employed but are not residing on the owners' premises.

[m] This part of Burwell parish includes Newnham.

[n] Part of the hamlet of Reach is in Burwell parish; the remainder of the hamlet forms that part of the parish of Swaffham Prior which is comprised in the Newmarket Sub-district. The area of each part is returned with that of the parish in which it is situate.

[o] Swaffham Prior parish consists of the ancient parishes of St. Cyriac and St. Mary, which have now no separate existence for any purpose, civil or ecclesiastical.

[p] Bottisham parish comprises Longmeadow, Bottisham Lode, Lode Fen, and part of Six Mile Bottom, the remainder of which is in Little Wilbraham parish, in the Fulbourn Sub-district of Chesterton (177: 2).

[q] Dalham parish includes Grimwoods and Dunstall Green.

[a] This part of the parish of Gazeley includes Needham Street.
[b] Higham Green hamlet comprises Upper and Lower Higham and the Green.
[c] Fordham parish includes Market Street.
[d] Soham parish comprises Barway chapelry and Quafen.
[e] The increase of population in the parish of Wicken, which includes Fen Side, is attributed to the extensive coprolite digging having attracted numbers of labourers.

181. ELY. [f] Haddenham parish comprises Aldreth and Hilrow, in the latter of which most of the increase in the houses and population of the parish has taken place.
[g] The other part of Wentworth parish, which is without houses or population, is in the Littleport Sub-district (181: 4); the entire area is here returned.
[h] The remainder of Witcham parish is in the Littleport Sub-district (181: 4); the entire area is here returned.
[i] The decrease of population in Mepal is attributed to the migration and emigration of persons whose homes were destroyed by fire.
[j] The other part of Coveney parish, viz., Manea chapelry, is in the Chatteris Sub-district of North Witchford (182: 1).
[k] The remainder of Witchford parish is in the Littleport Sub-district (181: 4); the entire area is here returned.
[l] This detached part of the parish of St. Mary (Ely) is uninhabited; the main portion of the parish is in Ely Sub-district (181: 3).
[m] Parts of the parishes of Holy Trinity and St. Mary are in the Sub-districts of Sutton (181: 2) and Littleport (181: 4), but the larger parts of these parishes are in the Ely Sub-district (181: 3). The part of Holy Trinity which is in Sutton Sub-district, and is known as Ely Byal Fen, near Witcham Gravel, is detached from the main body of the parish. In 1861 it was returned as Witcham Gravel, partly in Holy Trinity and partly in Witcham parish. The parts of Holy Trinity and St. Mary which are in the Ely Sub-district are considerably intermixed, and some difficulty has been experienced in ascertaining the parish to which about 50 houses belong. This has been carefully effected by the Superintendent Registrar; and the return may be considered as the most accurate that can be made. In 1861 the parts of Ely Westmoor Fen, which are in Holy Trinity and St. Mary parishes, and in the Littleport Sub-district, were not distinguished.
[n] The other part of Witcham parish is in Sutton Sub-district (181: 2); the entire area is there returned.
[o] The inhabited part of Wentworth parish is in Sutton Sub-district (181: 2); the entire area is there returned.
[p] The other part of Witchford parish is in Sutton Sub-district (181: 2); the entire area is there returned.
[q] Redmore, returned in 1861 as extra-parochial, in the Methwold Sub-district of Thetford (240: 1, Division IV.), has for the purposes of the Act 20 Vict. c. 19. s. 1. become a parish, and been added to the Littleport Sub-district (181: 4).

[b] The Superintendent Registrar states that "the ancient parish of Doddington, prior to 1868, comprised Doddington, Benwick Hamlet, Wimblington Hamlet, and March Chapelry, but that these now form four separate parishes for all purposes, civil and ecclesiastical. (See 10 Vict. c. 8. and 19 Vict. c. 1.") Wimblington comprises parts of Eastwood End and Stonea, the other parts being in March parish.

183. WHITTLESEY. [c] The united parishes of St. Mary and St. Andrew, Whittlesey, comprise Coates, Eastrea, and Glassmoor.

[g] The parish of Wisbech St. Mary contains, besides the village of that name, places known as Guyhirn and Tholomas Drove, and part of Murrow. The increase of population is attributed to an extension of railway accommodation and to the improvement of the roads.

PERSONS ON BOARD VESSELS.

TABLE 6.—Number of Persons on board Sea-going Vessels in Harbours, Rivers, and Creeks on the Night of 2nd April 1871, included among the General Population of Parishes, Places, &c.

Note.—Persons on board vessels belonging to the Merchant Service were enumerated by the officers of Her Majesty's Customs. The returns of officers, seamen, &c. on board the ships of the Royal Navy were obtained through the Admiralty.
All the above-mentioned persons have been included among the general population of the Districts, Sub-districts, Parishes, Places, &c. contiguous to the waters in which the vessels were lying: and, although some doubt has occasionally arisen respecting the Parish, Place, &c. to which persons on board certain vessels should be assigned, and complete accuracy is therefore scarcely attainable, yet it is believed that the results as stated in this Table are sufficiently correct for all general purposes.

District and Sub-district.	Parish or Place.	Persons on board: British Vessels.	Persons on board: Foreign or Colonial Vessels.	Total Number of Persons.	Number of Vessels.

Thus, within Division III. there were on board vessels of all kinds 1,105 persons (781 males and 324 females) who are included in the general population of parishes, &c.

* Registration or Union Counties consist of groups of Superintendent Registrars' Districts, which are generally co-extensive with Poor Law Unions. Those Districts which extend into two or more Counties (proper) are included entirely in that County in which the principal town of the District, or the greater part of the population, is located. The boundaries of Registration or Union Counties, therefore, differ more or less from the boundaries of Counties (proper).

GENERAL NOTES.—The names of Cities and Boroughs, of Local Board Districts, of Towns, and of Parishes which contain Towns of the same name, are printed in capitals (thus, "STRATFORD"). A detailed statement of the population of the Cities, Boroughs, Local Board Districts, Improvement Commissioners' Districts, &c. will be found under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where the name of the Registration or Union County in which a parish or place is returned differs from that of the County Proper to which it belongs, the name of the latter is stated in italics.

The letter (W) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the parish or place, and has been included in the return. The letter (W) in italics denotes a Workhouse not belonging to the District in which it is situate. A statement of the number of persons in the principal Public Institutions in each District will be found in Table 5.

Where an ancient parish comprises two or more civil parishes, townships, &c., the area, houses, and population of the entire ancient parish are shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the ancient parish and to the civil parish or township bearing the same name. The civil parishes, townships, &c. comprised within every such ancient parish are shown under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

Where a parish or township is situate partly in two or more Counties or Sub-districts, the area, houses, and population of the entire parish or township are also shown at the foot of the page. In these cases a reference number is affixed to the name of the parish or township at the foot of the page, and to the principal parts of such parish or township in the Table above.

Where the word Parish has been printed in italics, the place was formerly extra-parochial, but is now, under the Statute relating to such places, a parish for civil purposes.

The AREAS of parishes and places are reprinted from the Census Tables of 1861, after revision. The areas which have been supplied by Major-General Sir Henry James, R.E., Director of the Ordnance Survey Department, are printed in Script type (thus, "STRATFORD 882"). Those printed in French type (thus, "Chigwell 4522") have been obtained from records in the custody of the Tithe Commissioners; and those printed in Arabic type (thus, "Loughton 3170") were assigned to the parishes and places by the late Mr. Rickman, in the Enumeration Abstract for 1831. In these latter cases a more accurate computation of the area is not at present available.

The areas marked thus (w) either include water or foreshore, or relate to parishes and places to which a portion of the tidal water or foreshore of contiguous rivers or creeks has been allotted, though not included within the boundaries thereof by the Ordnance Survey Department. For details see Table 7.

Persons who, on the night of the 2nd April 1871, were on board barges or boats employed in inland navigation, and those who were on board sea-going vessels in harbours, rivers, and creeks, are included among the general population. A detailed statement of the number of the latter class will be found in Table 6.

The population of the Ecclesiastical Districts or new Parishes which have been formed under the authority of several Acts of Parliament will be found stated under their respective Counties in Vol. I.

The statements contained in the following notes, respecting the increase or decrease in the population of parishes and places since 1861, are made on the authority of the Registrars of Births and Deaths of the Sub-districts in which such parishes, &c. are situate, and are to be received as indicating the principal circumstances by which the returns from those parishes may have been affected.

The number prefixed to several of the following notes is that of the District to which such notes relate. The number of the District or Sub-district in which the parish or place mentioned in a note is situate, is, wherever necessary, also inserted in such note.

185. WEST HAM. [a] The increase in the population of the Stratford Sub-district is attributed to the establishment of numerous factories, and to the extension of the Great Eastern Railway works.

[b] This part of the parish of West Ham includes the localities known as Stratford Green, Upton Green, Canning Town, Forest Gate, and Silvertown.

[c] In Plaistow and Church Street Wards the addition to the population is attributed to an increase in employment at the Victoria Docks, to the introduction of a number of important manufactures (gutta percha, telegraph wire, gas, &c.), and to the opening of an industrial school (that of St. George, Hanover Square). The population of the Plaistow Ward in 1871 amounted to 23,371 persons (11,990 males, 11,381 females), residing in 3487 houses; there were 569 houses uninhabited, and 109 building. In the Church Street Ward there were 16,262 persons (7837 males, 8425 females), residing in 2728 houses; the uninhabited houses numbered 588, and 110 were building. Of the population of Church Street Ward 269 were on board vessels in the docks, and 721 were in the Whitechapel Union Industrial Schools at Forest Gate. The population of Plaistow Ward includes 256 persons in the Richmond Street Industrial Schools, belonging to St. George Hanover Square Union.

[d] The increase of population in East Ham is attributed to the erection of numerous villas, the introduction of new branches of industry (the manufacture of telegraph wire and gas), and the opening of two additional industrial schools (Manor House and Boleyn Castle). The return includes 385 persons in the industrial schools at Plashet belonging to the Parish of St. George in the East.

[e] The increase of population in the Parishes of Wanstead, Low Leyton, Walthamstow, and Woodford is attributed to facility of railway communication with the metropolis, and to building operations. The return for Low Leyton includes 393 persons in the Bethnal Green Workhouse School.

186. EPPING. [f] The increase of population in Chigwell and Loughton, and the Sub-district generally, is ascribed to additional railway and dwelling-house accommodation. Chigwell includes the village of Buckhurst Hill.

[g] The increase of population in Thoydon-Garnon and North Weald Bassett is attributed mainly to the opening, since 1861, of a branch line of the Great Eastern Railway. The parish of North Weald Bassett includes the hamlets of Thornwood and Hastingwood.

[h] Matching parish includes the hamlets of Matching-Tye, Newman's End, and Matching Green.

187. ONGAR. [a] The parish of Abbots Roothing includes the hamlet of Berwick.

[b] The increase of population in Chipping-Ongar is reported to be caused by the establishment of two large schools.

188. ROMFORD. [c] The increase of population in Romford is ascribed partly to an extension of the business of a brewery, but mainly to increased dwelling-house accommodation, and facility of railway communication with the metropolis. The village of Haroldswood is situated in this parish.

[d] The villages of Beacontreeheath and Green Lane are in the parish of Dagenham.

[e] Barking parish is comprised within the Ilford and Barking Town Sub-districts.

[f] Increased dwelling-house accommodation and proximity to the metropolis are assigned as the main causes of the increase of population at Great Ilford.

[g] The establishment of a jute factory, giving employment to a large number of weavers (principally Scotch and Irish), is assigned as the principal cause of the increase of population in Barking Town. Many of the uninhabited houses are said to be dilapidated.

[h] The ward of Ripple is otherwise called the village of Rippleside.

[i] The extension of market gardens, and the consequent employment of additional labourers, is stated to be the principal cause of the increase of population at Rainham.

[j] The parish of Hornchurch is divided into the Town Ward, the North Ward, and the South Ward.

[k] The increase of population in Great Warley is ascribed to additional house accommodation, and facilities for access from the metropolis by railway. The return for Great Warley includes a detached portion of the parish, containing 7 persons, dwelling in 1 house, and situated in Fobbing Marshes.

189. ORSETT. [l] The parish of West Thurrock contains the hamlet of Purfleet (Pop. 163). Included among the population of West Thurrock are 307 persons on board vessels, 296 being on board the Reformatory Ship "Cornwall."

[m] The causes assigned for the increase of population in Grays Thurrock are the establishment of a cement manufactory, the extension of the brickmaking trade, as well as of the chalk and whiting works, increased house accommodation, and the presence of the training ship "Goliath," with 301 persons on board. In addition to these, 3[illegible] persons on board vessels were enumerated by the Customs officers, and 42 others on ships, barges, &c. in the docks by the ordinary Enumerators.

[a] The return for Chadwell St. Mary in 1871 includes Tilbury Fort, which in 1861 was returned with West Tilbury. At the Census of 1871, the occupants of the fort numbered 164 persons.

[b] Of the 247 persons, representing the excess of the population of East Tilbury in 1871 over that of 1861, as many as 232 were enumerated in the shipping lying in the Thames off that place.

[c] The extension of market gardening, and the establishment of a depôt of agricultural implements are mentioned as the principal circumstances which have contributed to the increase of the population of Stanford-le-Hope.

[d] A detached portion of the parish of Orsett, containing 49 persons residing in 7 houses, and adjacent to Buttsbury parish (191 : 1), is included in the above return.

[e] The large increase of population in Little Warley is attributed to the augmentation of the military force in the Depôt in the parish. The military "married quarters" are in Great Warley parish.

190. BILLERICAY. [f] The increase of population in South Weald is partly attributed to the considerable addition which has been made to the number of inmates in the Essex County Lunatic Asylum.

[g] An enlarged staff of workmen in an agricultural implement factory, an increase in the number of children in the Shoreditch industrial schools, and the opening of a new orphanage school, are stated to be the principal causes of the increase of population at Brentwood.

[h] The parishes of Vange, Pitsea, Bowers-Gifford, and North Benfleet include parts of Canvey Island, with 156 persons residing in 30 houses. The remaining portion of Canvey Island is in the Rochford District (192).

191. CHELMSFORD. [i] The village of Battle Bridge is in the parish of Rettendon; the hamlet of Bicnacre is in the parish of Woodham-Ferris, and Mill Green in the parish of Ingatestone.

[a] A detached portion of Chelmsford parish, enumerated with Writtle parish in the Writtle Sub-district (191 : 3), and containing 34 persons in 8 houses; and a second detached portion, containing 71 persons in 17 houses, and enumerated with Broomfield parish, also in the Writtle Sub-district, are included in the return for the parish of Chelmsford. Chelmsford parish also includes the hamlets of Moulsham and Southwood.

[b] The decrease of population in Broomfield is ascribed to the discontinuance of a boarding school.

[c] The addition to the population of Chignal-Smealy is partly attributed to the erection of cottages for agricultural labourers.

[d] In Little Leighs, Great Leighs, and Boreham the decrease of population is attributed to the migration of agricultural labourers to towns and manufacturing districts. The parish of Great Leighs includes Chatley hamlet, with a population, in 1871, of 626 persons in 135 houses.

[e] The parish of Little Baddow includes the hamlet of Middlemead, with a population, in 1871, of 173 persons in 37 houses.

[f] The decrease of population in Danbury parish is ascribed to the demolition of a row of cottages. Danbury parish includes the hamlets of Runsell and Bucknam.

192. ROCHFORD. [g] The return for Hockley includes 12 persons, occupying 2 houses in a detached portion of the parish adjacent to Paglesham in the Rochford Sub-district (192 : 3).

[h] South Benfleet, Hadleigh, Prittlewell, and Southchurch include parts of Canvey Island, having an aggregate population of 93 persons in 16 houses. The remainder of Canvey Island is in the Billericay District (190); and the entire island has a population of 249 persons residing in 46 houses.

[i] The increase in the population of Leigh is ascribed to the extension of the fish trade consequent on improved railway communication.

[j] The increase in the population of Prittlewell is attributed to the growing popularity of Southend as a watering place. Southend possesses a Local Board. Prittlewell parish includes Upper and Lower Southend, Southend Old Town, Southend Cliff Town, Southend Park Estate, and the hamlets of Milton and Prittlewell, in addition to part of Canvey Island. The return for Prittlewell includes a detached portion of the parish contiguous to South Benfleet, in the Rayleigh Sub-district and having a population of 28 persons, residing in 6 houses.

[k] The return for Southchurch parish includes 14 persons occupying 2 houses in a detached portion of the parish, contiguous to South Benfleet in the Rayleigh Sub-district (192 : 1).

[a] The increase of population in South Shoebury is attributed to the larger number of military attending the school of gunnery at Shoeburyness.

[b] The extension of the manufacture of bricks is assigned as the cause of the increase of population in Great Wakering. Most of the new dwellings consist of wooden huts which are occupied by brickmakers.

193. MALDON. [c] The increase of population in Burnham is ascribed partly to the growing importance of the oyster fishery and partly to a revival of the shipping trade.

[d] The return for Althorne includes 5 persons occupying 1 house in a detached portion of the parish, near Canewdon in the Rochford District (192: 3).

[e] The increase of population in Southminster is attributed partly to improvements in agriculture, and partly to the extension of the malting trade.

[f] The increase of population in Tillingham is ascribed partly to the temporary presence of persons engaged in the Ordnance Survey, and partly to a high birth-rate as compared with the death rate.

[g] The parishes of Latchingdon and Snoreham are united for civil purposes.

[h] The parish of Purleigh includes Cock-Clarke's Village.

[i] The extension of the business of a large agricultural implement factory is mentioned as the principal cause of the increase of population in St. Peter in Maldon.

[j] In Heybridge the increase of population is mainly attributed to the extension of a large iron manufactory.

[k] The decrease of population in Little Totham is ascribed partly to an unusual mortality among its aged inhabitants, and partly to the amalgamation of small farms, causing a diminution in the number of labourers employed in the parish.

[a] The increase of population in the parish of St. Nicholas Harwich, is attributed to the revival of the shipping trade; the Great Eastern Railway Company having established a line of steamers trading between that port and the Continent. The number of persons enumerated on board vessels in the harbour was 455, of whom 162 belonged to H.M.S. "Penelope."

[b] The increase of population in Dovercourt is attributed partly to its growing reputation as a watering place, and partly to the limited extent of house accommodation in the neighbouring thriving town of Harwich.

195. COLCHESTER. [c] The increase of population in the borough of Colchester is attributed to various causes, among which may be mentioned the occupation of the new Cavalry Barracks, the establishment of a sewing machine factory, and the sale of land for building. The return includes 3506 military and their families in Colchester Camp, the Cavalry barracks and the Essex Militia depôt.

[d] The parish of St. Mary at the Walls includes the hamlet of Blatch Ground.

[e] No Man's Land, hitherto reputed to be extra-parochial, is stated to have not yet been brought under the operation of the Poor Laws, as required by the Act relating to extra-parochial places.

196. LEXDEN. [f] 120 persons were reported as absent from Wivenhoe, and 433 as absent from Brightlingsea, almost all fishing at sea.

[a] The decrease of population in the parishes of Boxted and Langham is attributed to the demolition of houses and to a decline in the demand for agricultural labourers.

[b] The increase of population at Dedham is mainly attributed to the pupils,—132 in number,—at boarding schools being included in the return for 1871. In 1861 the pupils at these schools were absent on their holidays.

197. WITHAM. [c] The decrease of population in Kelvedon is attributed to the discontinuance of a large boarding school.

[d] The closing of a silk factory, and the languishing condition of the velvet manufacture, are assigned as the causes of the decrease of population in Great and Little Coggeshall.

199. BRAINTREE. [e] The decrease of population in Finchingfield is attributed to the migration of families to London and elsewhere.

[f] The decrease of population in Bocking is attributed partly to the demolition of houses, and partly to migration.

200. DUNMOW. [a] The increase of population in Felstead is ascribed to the enlargement of the grammar school.

[b] The decrease in the population of Thaxted, a purely agricultural parish, is attributed to the lowness of wages, and consequent migration.

201. SAFFRON-WALDEN. [c] The decrease of population in Great Chesterford, Littlebury, and Wendens Ambo parishes is attributed to migration, caused by lowness of wages. Littlebury parish includes the hamlets of Littlebury Green and Catmer.

[d] The increase of population in Saffron-Walden is ascribed to the introduction of railway communication, an improved market, and the prosperity of the building trade. Saffron-Walden parish includes the hamlets of North End and Springwell.

[e] The other part of Ashdon (ancient) parish, (viz., Bartlow End hamlet,) is in the Linton District (179), Div. III.

202. RISBRIDGE. [a] The increase of population in the parish of Haverhill is attributed to the opening, since 1861, of two lines of railway, and the consequent extension of the staple manufactures.

[b] In Monks Risbridge the only house standing at the time of the Census of 1861 has been demolished.

[c] The increase of population in Little Bradley is attributed to the occupation of new cottages by labourers, removed from an adjacent parish.

[d] The increase of population in Clare is ascribed to the introduction of railway communication, and the removal of a large school from Halstead to this parish.

203. SUDBURY. [e] The decrease in the population of the parishes of Bures St. Mary, Nayland, Stoke by Nayland, and Great Henny is attributed to the diminished demand for manual labour in agriculture, and the consequent migration to other parts.

[f] In Ballingdon cum Brundon the decrease of population is ascribed to the pulling down of a number of houses, by the Great Eastern Railway Company.

203. SUDBURY. [a] The decrease of population in All Saints' parish is stated to have been caused by the demolition of a number of cottages.

[b] The increase of population in St. Gregory's is attributed to the erection of dwelling-houses in that parish, there being no land available for building elsewhere in the borough of Sudbury.

[c] The establishment of a new brick manufactory is stated to be the cause of the increase of population in the parish of Chilton.

[d] The decrease of population in Newton near Sudbury is ascribed to migration to manufacturing districts.

[e] The increase of population in Long Melford is attributed principally to an influx of new residents, attracted by the opening of a railway to the town.

[f] The parish of Glemsford owes its increase of population to the flourishing condition of its staple trades, viz., the weaving of cocoa-nut fibre, horsehair, and silk, and silk winding.

204. COSFORD. [g] The decrease of population in Boxford is stated to have been caused by the demolition of cottages and by migration.

[h] The decrease of population in Lindsey is attributed to the discontinuance of a brick-making business, and the consequent removal of the workmen and their families from the parish.

205. THINGOE. [i] The decrease of population in Rushbrooke is ascribed to migration, that in Rougham to emigration.

[j] Under the Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 122. sect. 27. Hardwick, formerly extra-parochial, has been annexed to the parish of Hawstead. In 1871 the population of Hardwick was 25 persons, residing in 4 houses.

[a] The decrease of population in Hargrave, Barrow, and Great Saxham is ascribed to migration, and in Culford to emigration.

[b] The increase of population at Ickworth is explained by the circumstance that the family and establishment of a nobleman, who were absent in 1861, were residing there on the day of the Census of 1871.

[c] Chimney Mills, formerly extra-parochial, is now annexed to the parish of Culford. Its population in 1871 was 4 persons, residing in 1 house.

[d] The decrease of population in Bardwell, Stanton All Saints, Stanton St. John the Baptist, and Pakenham is attributed to migration to the manufacturing districts.

206. BURY ST. EDMUND'S. [e] The borough of Bury St. Edmund's is co-extensive with the registration district. The return for the parish of St. Mary includes Thingoe Union Workhouse, and the Bury St. Edmund's Workhouse.

[f] The increase of population in St. James's is mainly attributed to the employment caused by the railway stations situate in that parish.

207. MILDENHALL. [g] In Freckenham the decrease of population is ascribed to migration (principally to Durham). To the same cause is attributed the decrease of population in Worlington and other adjacent parishes.

[h] The increase of population in Beck Row and Lakenheath is attributed to improvements in the fen lands.

[i] The decrease of population in Mildenhall High Town is attributed to the discontinuance of the water traffic, and the withdrawal of trade to the railways, which are at a distance. The sub-divisions of Mildenhall parish are not separately assessed to the poor-rate.

[j] The decrease of population in Eriswell and Icklingham St. James and All Saints is ascribed to migration to manufacturing districts.

208. STOW. [a] The increase of population in Stow Upland and Stowmarket is ascribed to the establishment of gun-cotton works, malt kilns, paper works, and a manure factory.

[b] The decrease of population in Gipping and Harleston is attributed to migration.

[c] The village or hamlet of Dagworth, containing 470 persons, is partly in Haughley parish, but the main portion is in Old Newton parish.

209. HARTISMERE. [d] The decrease of population in Mendlesham, Finningham, and Bacton is attributed to the lowness of wages and to the diminished demand for manual labour, in consequence of the introduction of steam machinery in agriculture. The same cause is assigned for the decrease in Rickinghall Superior, Redgrave, Burgate, and Mellis.

[e] The village of Brockford is included in the parish of Wetheringsett cum Brockford.

210. HOXNE. [a] Migration to towns and manufacturing districts, where higher wages are obtainable, is assigned as the principal cause of the decrease of population at Hoxne, Saxtead, and most other parishes in the district.

211. BOSMERE. [b] The decrease of population in most of the parishes of the Bosmere District (particularly in Winston, Debenham, Coddenham, and Hemingstone) is ascribed to migration to towns in the manufacturing and mining districts.

[a] The increase in the population of Bramford is attributed to the establishment of three manure factories and an asphalt factory.

212. SAMFORD. [b] In Hintlesham the decrease of population is partly attributed to emigration, but principally to migration.

[c] The decrease of population in Chelmondiston is ascribed to the decline of the stone dredging trade.

213. IPSWICH. [d] The increase of population in the parishes of St. Mary Stoke and St. Peter is attributed to improved railway accommodation.

[e] The increase of population in St. Matthew's Ipswich is mainly attributed to the removal of the wealthier townsmen into villas in this parish.

[f] The erection of dwelling-houses and the opening of a new lunatic asylum are the causes assigned for the increase in St. Clement's parish. The parish includes the Fore hamlet, the Back hamlet, and the hamlet of Wicks Bishop. In the suburban parishes of St. Helen and St. Margaret the increase of population is attributed to the erection of dwelling-houses.

[g] The following localities, formerly extra-parochial, have been annexed to adjacent parishes, viz.:—Pelaw's Houses, with a population in 1871 of 20 persons residing in 5 houses, to the parish of St. Stephen; Cold Dunghills, with a population in 1871 of 29 persons in 9 houses, and High Street, with a population in 1871 of 49 persons in 9 houses, to St. Margaret; and George Street, with a population in 1871 of 20 persons in 4 houses, to the parish of St. Matthew.

214. WOODBRIDGE. [h] The decrease of population in Witnesham is mainly attributed to the destruction by fire of a flax factory which has not been rebuilt.

[a] The decrease of population in Levington is attributed to the demolition of cottages.

[b] The increase of population in Felixstow is ascribed to its being a favourite watering place. Fifty-six strangers were present at the time of the Census in 1871.

[c] Kirton is reported to owe its increase of population partly to the coprolite diggings in the neighbourhood, and partly to the immigration of cottagers ejected from Levington.

[d] The increase of population in Melton is attributed to an addition to the dwelling-house accommodation.

[e] The decrease of population in Ufford is attributed partly to the demolition of cottages, and partly to the discontinuance of a boarding school.

[f] Dallinghoo-Wield, formerly an extra-parochial place, but now a parish, consists of a tract of land without houses or population. In 1861 the area was included in that of the parish of Dallinghoo.

215. PLOMESGATE. [g] The increase of population in Framlingham is mainly attributed to the opening, since 1861, of the Albert Middle-class College, in which, at the time of the census of 1871, there were 256 inmates.

[a] The increase of population in Aldeburgh parish is attributed to various causes, the principal being the extension of the fishing, brickmaking, and building trades.

216. BLYTHING. [b] At the time when the Census of 1871 was taken, 135 persons usually residing in the Westleton Sub-district, were reported to be absent at sea, principally engaged in fishing.

[c] The parish of Aldringham includes the hamlet of Thorpe.

[d] The parish of Blythburgh includes the hamlet of Hinton cum Blythburgh.

[e] Nowhere House, formerly extra-parochial, has been annexed to the parish of Thorington. Its population in 1861 was 2 persons; in 1871, 6 persons.

217. WANGFORD. [a] The decrease of population in Bungay St. Mary is attributed to the closing of a boarding school, and the removal of some families to Bungay Holy Trinity. [b] The municipal borough of Beccles is co-extensive with the parish. The increase of its population is attributed to the development of the Great Eastern Railway.

218. MUTFORD. [c] In Pakefield and Kirkley the increase of population is attributed partly to the success of the fisheries, and partly to participation in the prosperity of Lowestoft. [d] The large increase of population and houses at Lowestoft is attributed (1) to its popularity as a watering place; (2) to the success during late years of the herring and trawling fishery, the estimated number of men and boys employed in the boats having risen from 1520 in 1861 to 3085 in 1871; and (3) to the sale for building purposes of a large quantity of land, previously unavailable. The population includes 1258 persons on board vessels.

[e] The increase of population in Gorleston and South Town is attributed to the development of the herring and trawl fisheries. Many fishermen from Barking have come to live in Gorleston. The population of South Town (or Little Yarmouth) includes 95 strangers, mostly militia in training.

219. YARMOUTH. [a] The increase of houses and population in Great Yarmouth is ascribed to the uninterrupted success of the fisheries, and to the increasing favour in which the town is held as a watering place. The return includes 1342 persons on board vessels. Cobholm island, with a population of 714 persons, is included in the return for Great Yarmouth.

220. FLEGG. [b] The increase of population in Caistor next Yarmouth and Runham is ascribed to their proximity to Yarmouth.
[c] The decrease of population in Ormesby St. Michael is attributed to the absence of a large number of fishermen at sea on the night of the Census of 1871.
[d] The parish of Martham includes the hamlets of Cess and Damgate.

221. SMALLBURGH. [a] The increase of population in Waxham is ascribed to the erection of cottages for labourers previously residing in adjacent parishes.

[b] The decrease of population in East Ruston is ascribed to emigration.

[c] The decrease of population in the parish of Bacton and several other parishes in the Bacton Sub-district is accounted for mainly by migration to the North of England, and, to a small extent, by emigration to America.

222. ERPINGHAM. [d] The decrease of population in North Repps is attributed to the demolition of houses.

[e] The decrease of population in Edgefield parish is attributed to migration.

223. AYLSHAM. [a] The decrease of population in Foulsham, Aylsham, Buxton, Hevingham, and throughout the district generally is attributed to the increasing use of agricultural machinery, and the consequent migration to the manufacturing districts of the north. The population of Foulsham is stated also to have been diminished by emigration, and that of Aylsham parish by the discontinuance of a large boarding school.

224. ST. FAITH'S. [b] The decrease of population in Great Witchingham and Newton St. Faith's is attributed to emigration and migration, caused in the latter case by the decline of the staple trade, weaving.

* The area of these parishes is included in the total (5877 Acres) of Sub-districts Nos. 3, 4, 5, and part of 2.

[a] The increase of population in Sprowston and Catton is attributed to their contiguity to Norwich, and to immigration from agricultural districts.

[b] The other part of Hellesdon parish is in the city of Norwich, in the Norwich District (225).

225. NORWICH. [c] With reference to the increase of population in the city of Norwich, Mr. Blake, the Superintendent Registrar, states that he considers it to be mainly "due to the introduction of the shoe trade, and the manufacture of starch, "mustard, and corn-flour." The population, he adds, may be considered as extending beyond the municipal limits, into the adjoining villages of Sprowston and Thorpe-St. Andrew.

[d] In the parishes of St. Clement, St. Helen, St. James, St. George Tombland, St. Peter-per-Mountergate, St. Julian, St. John Sepulchre, St. Peter Southgate, Earlham, St. Benedict and Heigham, and in the hamlets of Thorpe and Pockthorpe, the increase of population is stated to be owing to the erection of new cottages and dwelling-houses (principally for the artizan classes in Heigham, Earlham, and St. Benedict), and to the immigration of many persons from the central parts of the city and elsewhere.

[e] In the parishes of St. Martin at Oak, St. Mary at Coslany, St. George Colegate, St. Augustine, St. Michael at Plea, St. Martin at Palace, St. Michael at Thorne, St. Gregory and St. Lawrence, the decrease of population is attributed to the demolition of houses and cottages to make way for business premises (including malt-kilns, an iron foundry, brewery, gasworks, &c.)

[f] The other part of the parish of Thorpe St. Andrew is in the Blofield District (228:1).

[g] In the Conisford Sub-district 200 strangers were reported present on the night of the Census, 1871, most of them attending a fair, 68 being in caravans.

[h] The decrease of population in the hamlets of Trowse-Millgate, Carrow, and Bracondale, is attributed to the demolition of houses rendered necessary by the carrying out of new sewerage works. The other part of this parish is in the Henstead District (227:2).

[i] In the Mancroft Sub-district at the Census of 1871 there were 101 strangers enumerated who were attending a fair.

[j] In St. Swithin's parish the increase of population is reported to be owing principally to additional house accommodation.

226. FOREHOE. [a] The decrease of population in Costessey, Barford, and Welborne is principally ascribed to migration.

[b] The decrease of population in Wymondham is attributed to the decline of manufactures in the locality and consequent migration to the manufacturing and mining districts in the North of England.

227. HENSTEAD. [c] The decrease of population in Mulbarton and Intwood is attributed principally to migration to the North of England.

[d] The parish of Stoke Holy Cross includes the village of Lower Stoke.

[c] The other part of the parish of Trowse (viz., Trowse-Millgate, Carrow, and Bracondale) is in the Norwich District (225:3). The decrease of houses and population in Trowse-Newton is stated to have been caused by the demolition of cottages, and the migration of labourers, in consequence of the diminished demand for labour resulting from the conversion of a considerable quantity of arable land into pasture.

228. BLOFIELD. [a] The increase of population in Thorpe next Norwich is attributed to an addition to the number of inmates in the Lunatic Asylum, and to increased house accommodation. To the latter cause the increase at Buckenham is also attributed.

[b] The remainder of the parish of Thorpe St. Andrew (viz., Thorpe hamlet) is in the Norwich District (225:2).

[c] The decrease of population in Brundall is ascribed to a reduction in the number of persons resident at a mansion in the parish.

[d] The decrease of population in Lingwood is attributed partly to the diminished number of inmates in the workhouse, and partly to the absence of fishermen at sea.

[e] Under the provisions of the Assessment Act of 1862, the formerly extra-parochial place known as "Nowhere" has since that year been annexed to the parish of Acle, and has therefore been transferred from the Flegg District (220) to the Blofield District (228). Its population in 1871 consisted of 15 persons residing in 2 houses.

[f] The decrease of population at Halvergate is attributed to the migration of families to the north of England.

229. LODDON. [g] The decrease of population in the parish of Thurlton is attributed to migration to the metropolis and the manufacturing districts.

[h] In Wheatacre All Saints and Burgh St. Peter the increase of population is attributed to an addition to the number of farm labourers employed in those parishes.

[i] In Kirby-Cane the discontinuance of an extensive brick and tile business is stated to be the cause of the decrease in the population.

[a] The decrease of population in the parish of Ditchingham is mainly attributed to the depression of the silk manufacture.

[b] The decrease of population in Woodton and Topcroft is attributed to the decline in the demand for manual labour in farming, owing to the increasing employment of machinery, and the consequent migration of labourers to towns.

230. DEPWADE. [c] The decrease in the population of Brockdish is reported to have been occasioned principally by the failure of the cocoa-nut matting manufacture, which was flourishing in this locality in 1861.

[d] For civil purposes Thorpe Parva, Scole and Frenze form a single parish under the title of "Scole with Thorpe Parva and Frenze."

[e] The increase of population in Diss is attributed to the establishment of a brush and matting manufactory.

[f] In the parish of Pulham St. Mary Magdalen the decrease of population is attributed to a reduction in the number of inmates in the Union Workhouse, and the migration of several families to the north of England.

[g] In Long Stratton St. Mary the decrease of population is ascribed to migration.

233. MITFORD. [c] The migration of young people to towns and to the mining districts is stated to be the principal cause of the decrease of population in the Mattishall Sub-district.

[a] The discontinuance of the paper manufacture is stated to have caused the decrease in the population of Lyng. The hamlet of Lyng Easthaugh is in this parish.

[b] East Dereham includes the hamlet of Dillington, with a population in 1871 of 44 persons, residing in 8 houses.

[c] The decrease of population in Gressenhall parish is principally attributed to a diminution in the number of inmates in the Union Workhouse.

[d] The decrease of population in Beeston All Saints is attributed to migration.

[e] The return for North Elmham includes 114 strangers, for the most part hawkers, &c attending a fair, of whom 98 slept in vans and tents.

234. WALSINGHAM. [f] The decrease of population in Little Ryburgh is ascribed to the demolition of cottages and the removal of the occupiers into adjoining parishes.

[a] The decrease of population in Wighton is mainly attributed to the migration of a number of families to manufacturing districts.

[b] The decrease of population throughout the Wells Sub-district is mainly attributed to the migration of agricultural labourers to the mining districts of the north of England. In the parish of Wells next the Sea the decrease is attributed to the discontinuance of the brick-making business, the closing of ship-building yards, and the diversion of traffic from the port to the railway.

[c] The parish of Holkham includes the hamlet of New Holkham.

235. DOCKING. [d] The decrease of population in Brancaster is attributed to the diversion to the railway of the traffic in corn, coals, timber, linseed, &c. which was formerly performed by coasting vessels. The sailors have migrated.

[e] The increase of population in Hunstanton is attributed to the increasing favour in which it is held as a summer watering place. The parish of Hunstanton includes Old Hunstanton, St. Edmund, and the hamlet of Barrett-Ringstead.

[f] The introduction of a railway, and an increase in the number of persons employed at the "Carr" pits, (in which a building stone, known as the Carr-stone, is quarried), are assigned as the principal causes of the addition to the population at Snettisham.

[g] The decrease of population in Docking is attributed partly to emigration, but principally to migration to Lancashire and the north of England manufacturing districts.

[h] The increase of population in Barwick is owing principally to the occupation of Barwick House, which was unoccupied in 1861.

[a] The decrease of population in East Rudham is attributed partly to emigration, but principally to migration to Lancashire and the manufacturing districts in the north of England.

[b] Appleton, which for civil purposes is united with Flitcham, is ecclesiastically distinct, and contains 51 persons in 8 houses.

236. FREEBRIDGE LYNN. [c] The returns for Sandringham and West Newton include several persons temporarily present in these parishes, being visitors or servants to H.R.H. the Prince of Wales.

[d] The decrease of population in Gayton and Mintlyn is ascribed to migration.

[f] The parish of Gaywood includes the hamlet of Highgate.

237. KING'S LYNN. [g] The decrease of population in Paradise ward is principally attributed to the scholars at 2 boarding schools being absent for the Easter holidays.

PERSONS ON BOARD VESSELS.

TABLE 6.—Number of Persons on board Sea-going Vessels in Harbours, Rivers, and Creeks on the Night of 2nd April, 1871, included among the General Population of Parishes, Places, &c.

Note.—Persons on board vessels belonging to the Merchant Service were enumerated by the officers of Her Majesty's Customs. The returns of officers, seamen, &c. on board the ships of the Royal Navy were obtained through the Admiralty.
All the above-mentioned persons have been included among the general population of the Districts, Sub-districts, Parishes, Places, &c. contiguous to the waters in which the vessels were lying: and, although some doubt has occasionally arisen respecting the Parish, Place, &c. to which persons on board certain vessels should be assigned, and complete accuracy is therefore scarcely attainable, yet it is believed that the results as stated in this Table are sufficiently correct for all general purposes.

District and Sub-district.	Parish or Place.	Persons on board: British Vessels.	Persons on board: Foreign or Colonial Vessels.	Total Number of Persons.	Number of Vessels.
